TT
H
Word	Meaning
(H)ORNYWINK	Lapwing, Plover or Peewit. (I think Peewit & Plover are the same bird. See also
(II)ORIVI WINK	Horniwink
(H)OSSLER	Horse dealer. (my reading tells me a 'ossler was someone paid by an Innkeeper to look after horses in livery; perhaps it was a term for both.) Ed
HAA' PATH	Halfpence, daft person ''ow are ee Mrs Goldsworthy?' Dunaw, aren't worth haa'path o' cold taa.'
HAAF	Half "Haaf a loaf is beter 'n none!"
HAAF SAVED	Half witted. 'He's more te be pittied than blames – he's only half saved.'
HAALED	Pulled with great strength. It is a phrase used by fishermen. 'They haal the crab/lobster pots when bringing them onto the boat from the sea with their catch.
HAALF BAAKED	"Put in with the bread and taken out with the cake". Said of someone who is thought stupid. A very dirogitory term
HACK	To dig. "Go an' hack out a few pits fer these 'ere posts.
HACK	A biddix. A metal tool with two handed hilt (handle) and double headed. Each chisel
HACKBOLT	shaped portion of the head being at 90 degs to the other. A shearwater. Sea bird
HACKER	Long handled two pronged fork for hacking (digging) potatoes from the ground & and
IIICKER	dung from farm carts by hand. Also used in domestic gardens to break up rough ground
HACKMAL/HECKYMILE	Ekkymole, Heckmowl: the Tomtit or titmouse. BlueTit
HADDICKS	Husks of threshed corn; see Ishan
HAELER	(rhyme: Jailer) A concealer; mainly in the sense – 'Hailers are as bad as stealers.' In the
HAELF	eyes of the law they are worse. Half
HAG	Mist 'There's an ol' hag comin in off the say (sea), fishin' bawts will be 'ome early
IIAG	night.'
HAGAR / AGAR	Ugly. (Has this come from 'Haggard')
HAGDEN	The common skua. (Sea bird)
HAGENBAG	Mutton or beef boiled or baked in pie-crust. "You caan't beat a bit a hagenbag after a cold frosty mornin' out in the fields."
HAGLAN / HAGGLAN / HAGGLES	Fruit of hawthorn. AGGLETS. "In the summer the holiday makers de cum down like
HAGLAN HAGGLAN HAGGLES	hagglans; the plaace is drippin with them."
HAIL	To cover or to hide
HAILED / HAILEN	Pulled with great strength. "It took sum hailen te git en up his 'ill." As in hauled.
HAILER	A thief's confederate or his receiver. "the hailer is as bad as the stailer".
HAILER / HELER/AILER	Receiver of stolen goods. The encourager of another in wrong-doing. 'The healer is as
HAIN	bad as the stealer.' To shut off cattle from a grass field to allow grass to make hay. Also, ground preserved
HAIN	by tin-bounds
HAIN/HELER/AILER	Kind of farm bailiff. Manager of a Gentleman's farm
HIND
HAIR PITCHED	Rough; animals with unbrushed coats. (Horses running wild)
HAIVERY HAKE	Miserly; envious or greedy of money
HAKE	A groove. See AKE. HAKING: see Hacken Large, cumbersome. 'A hake of a place or of a person.)
HAL AN TOW	A type of mystery, performed on the morning of Furry Day. "Heel and Toe". See " It is Internation	an enactment of St Geoge killing the Dragon. (See Helston's Coat of Arms or Logo."
HALE	Best parlour
HALE	To haul, drag pull violently. 'He was halein um this way and then that way te git un up tha 'ill).
HALE	The plough tail or tension rod under the plough
HALE	to roof with slates. "a haled house" Hence Hellyer, Heller Healer "a slater"
HALE	Part of a wooden plough. (Anyone know which part?)
HALE	The principle or best room in the house, probably the parlour
HALF-CREASE	Applies to several things, i.e. Half the increase; hens borrowed to rear chicken, the hen owner receives half the brood in payment. Also bees were frequently lent and the honey shared. And young cattle put to graze on 'Half-Crease in a field rented for a set period. System for hiring pasturage. "I put my young heifers out on half crease." The Letter of the land received something like half the value of any increase to the stock, whatever they be.

HALGAVE / HALGAVE TRIAL	Hang first and try afterwards. "A blundering use of halgavar". An old Bodmin custom to istall a 'Mock Mayor' who held court at Halhaver Moor, just outside the town.
HALISH / ALLISH/	Ailing, weak. Well under par
HALL MONDAY	Shrove day Monday, i.e. Monday before Shrove Tuesday. Hallow Monday when traditionally boys played impish tricks, also called "Nicky Nan Night".
HALLAN APPLE	A fine apple given to children on All Hallows Eve.
HALLYHOE	Skipper Fish (Cololabis Saiba) Founjd in the atlantic & Australian Waters
HALS_NUT_HALS	The hazel
HALVANS / HALVENS	Halves. Second grade, partly dressed ore but not the poorest. To go halvans: to receive half of produce. Or to we qually share something with someone else. Halvaner. (Refuse ore after Spallin'.)
HALY CALY	To throw things to be scrambled for, as in Tea-treats. A scramble. (I suppose the Hurling Ball is haly calved for the people to scamble for.)
HALY CALY	Largesse, a scramble. (Largesse = to give generously)
HAME	A circle of straw tied around the fore-legs of sheep to stop them straying
HAMES	A horse collar of straw with wooden collar-trees. (I don't know that usage, I only know hames as a brass/iron device that fits into the groove of a horse collar fitted with hooks to draw the burden, be it a cart or a harrow.) There's a well known phrase 'collar an' hames, so they must be two different items. The collar only acts as a 'cushion' to prevent the Hames digging in. Ed
HAND GLOVES	Pair of gloves
HANDING	Walking hand in hand
HAND-OVER-FIST	Outright. "I bate en 'and aver fist"
HANDSEL	A foretaste. An early snatch meal. When a man is well paid for a chance job early in the day he says, That's a good handsel.
HANDSOME	General complimentary adjective 'Ther'rt 'ansome shure nuff.'
HANDSOME BUT ONE UP	Ironic use of the description above
HANG FAN	Corruption of Hang Fan below 'wait a minute'
HANG FIRE	Hold off a minute. "Hang fire a minute." Could this be a mining term where for some reason the blasting of a hole was delayed for a short time?
HANGBOW	Part of a field gate
HANG-BY	The backend of a gate, i.e. the hinge end.
HANGE / HENGE / AINGE	Heart, liver, lights of sheep (the pluck)
HANGER	A sword similar to a cutlass
HANS	Hands. "Now, go an' wash yer hans 'ore you 'ave yer dinner."
HAPPARD (worth	A halfpenny (worth)
HAPSE / APSE	Fastener for a door or gate (a latch)
HARBY BEER	Herby beer, a most pleasantly refreshing tipple.
HARBY TAY	Herb tea
HARBY-PIE	Herb Pie
HARD HEAD	Refuse of Tin after smelting
HARDAH	Elvan rock. Tis like steel, hence our roads are extensively made of it.
HARDHEADS	the plaintain or knapweed, used in a game, abit like concers.
HARDLINES	Sort of an apology. Eg "I missed my maths exam by one mark." Reply, "That was hardline en boy."
HARDLY	Not quite; not enough. "I cen't do with my coffee as strong as that hardly. Or, hardly as strong as that."
HARE'S MEAT	the wood sorrel (Oxalis)
HARK (to me)	Listen 'Hark 'ere a minut while I 'ave my say.' 'Hark, I think I can 'ear somebody comin up the lane, less stand back 'ere behind this tree a minit.' (imagine a pitch black night out in the country. I must tell you my granpa's ghost sorry sometime.)Ed.
HARKEN	Listening "Harken are 'ee, while I'm taalken to ee?"
HARKING	Of weather, close, thundery
HARK TE ME	Listen to me
HARKY	Listen 'Listen 'ere te me a minite.' "Harky te me a minute, I got something twe say about this as well as you."
HARRAP	Worry

HARVE /HARVEY	To harrow.(Agric.) "I've got the oss 'iched up so I'm gone out to arvey the 'Ten Acres' a minute."
HARVE/HARVED/HARVING	To harrow the land to bring to a tilth ready for crop sewing.
HASTIS	Hasty. (from Cornish hysty) haste, to make haste – hurry up
HATCH	A staff 3 to 7 fathoms long made by tin-streamers. (2) the bottom half of a stable door.
HATCH	See "pliffen", and "heps".
HATCH	Timber lined shaft sunk through an alluvial deposit
HATTER FLITTER	For Heather Bleater. The jacksnipe.
HAUD 'EE BAL(L)	Stop talking. (something like 'hold your tongue.'
HAULD	Hold. "Hauld yedr tongue will ee? Childern shud be seen an' not 'eard."
HAUVES	SEE Auvis or Auvice
HAVAGE	Family, original stock. "He comes of a bad havage." ancestry
HAVAGE	Descent, lineage
HAVEN	Hand bow
HAVES	Eaves of a house.
HAVINS	To split 50/50 'I an't eat a whole tea treat bun go havins with me will 'ee?'
HAWN	Haven.
HAWN / AWME	Oven.
HAY	Enclosure
HAY MAIDEN	Ground Ivy (Nepeta)
HAYLE / HAYEL	The windpipe
HAYSING	Haysing: poaching, chasing hares by night. Lamping.
HAYTHEN	Heathen.
HEAD	Head of the well; the centre of influence.
HEAD AND HINGE	Most families had a Grandfather clock, if not they'd most likely have a Heand & Hinge Clock which was a Dutch Clock
HEAD FLAY	A disease of cattle
HEAD LIKE A TURMOT	Head like a turnip
HEAD SWORD	The water running through the adit
HEAD'N OFF	Persuade it to go another way – particularly used when herding animals; also when
HEAD NOTT	chasing criminals
HEADWEAR/GEAR	A device to stop water flowing down a leat and to divert it back to its original bed. (I imagine this to be some sort of sluice gate.)
HEADY	Dizzy, lightheaded
HEAP	Frightened, Amazed, A pile. 'Struck all of a heap'.
HEAP/HEEP	The thigh
HEAPS	Lots or plenty "ave a bag of apples will ee?" "naw thanks I got heaps home, this bit o'
HEARTSEASE	wind, they're fallin off the trees like aglins."
HEAVE / FAVE	To gave a good apetite.
HEAVE / EAVE	To exude moisture, 'The stones are heaving.' Also means 'full of' "The cheeld was eaven with fleas!" Also refers to a dirty thing or person.
HEAVER / HAVER	The grass. See Eaver (Grass seed)
HEAVERS	Rye-grass.
HEAVING	Dampness of stones due to change in temperature. See GIVING. Confusion with thawing. Particularly stone floors and cob walls in old cottages. A sure sign of a change in the weather. 'These walls are heaving.'
HEAVING TIME	Season of dropping calves. (One imagines this alludes to the time catlle usually give birth.)
HEAVY CAKE	A rich flat cake made without yeast containing currants and eaten warm, or better still straight fom the oven.
HEBBAL / EBBAL / IBBLE	Small mow of corn or hay left in the field.
HECCA / EKKA	A fool.
HECKETT, HICKETT	A ramming blow
HECKMAL / EKKMAL / EKKYMAL	the tomtit.
HEDGER	A straying animal eating in the hedgerows.
HEDGEY-BOAR HADGEY-BOAR(D)	A hedgehog may refer to any creepy crawley animal
HEDHEUGH	Enough! "Fetch it with you!" Cornish cry to oxen
HEDOKAGENA	A call to oxen. Hedheugh e genough! Lit. "fetch it with you" a fragment of spoken

HEEDES HE		Cornish. Ploughing with oxen at Trefusis.
HEED TEEP Histo and Seek, Cp. Mop. ha heedy HEEL "Comish the heef" theoroughty Cornish. Rather like "Cornish through and through," You de know them than heef HERD OFTHE HAND HEERD HEARD HEARD HEERD HEARD HEERD HEARD HEERD HEARD HEERD HEARD HEERD HERD HEARD HEERD HERD HERD HERD HEERD HERD HERD	HEED(S)
de knaw them dun ec?	HEEDY PEEP	Hide and Seek. Cp. Mop ha heedy
HIFTL OF THE HAND HEEP HEEP HEERD HEERD HEERD HEGRAN HERKIMAL/HICKMALL/EKKYMAL To heave. "Heff over the ellick." HEKGAN A hard dry cough HEKKIMAL/HICKMALL/EKKYMAL To the passage leading from the door to the parlour HIFL AFIL To shate a roof HELL FIL To shate a roof shate a roof HELL FIL To shate a roof shate a roof HELL FIL To shate a roof shate a ro	HEEL
HEPP Hip HERD Heard Heard
HERD Heard To heave, "Helf over the ellick." To heave, "Helf over the ellick." HEGGAN A hard dry cough HEKKIMAL/HICKMALL/EKKYMAL Torn tit
HEFF To heave. "Heff over the ellick."		1
HEKGGAN HEKKIMAL/HICKMALL/EKKYMAL HELL Torn tit HELL HELL AGLL To slate a roof HELL FER LEATHER Traveling quickly HELL FER LEATHER Traveling quickly HELLAS The nightjur A heavily camouflaged bird that nests on the ground on old waste ground and makes a rusping (jarring) noise at night. HELLER HELLING Roof ing stone, also in west Cornwall a roof HELLING Roof slates HELLYRE/HELLER/HEALER A slater HALE: to roof. HELMING HELLING Roof slates HELLYRE/HELLER/HEALER A slater HALE: to roof. HELMING HEMPEN WICK CANDLE Candles as used by miers HEMPING HEMPEN WICK CANDLE Superlative of almost any adjective HENYWAYS'-HIENNAWAYS Cataway in or copper ore. HEPS/HEPS/EPPS Lower half of a stable or cottage double door. "More tongue than teeth, she had better keep a heps befor her mouth." HERBY PIE / HARBY PIE Made of spinach, parsley, mustard and cress, pepper-cress, young onions, lettruce, slices of bascon and a little milk. To take in loose hap from pooks or drams (rows) ready for easy pitching onto horse drawn wagons. HERT WHATS HERTO HOTOLE HERTOLE HER HEKKIMAL/HICKMALL/EKKYMAL HEL The passage leading from the door to the parlour HELL FEIL To slate a roof HELL FER LEATHER Travelling quickly Travelling quickly HELLAR HELLAR Travelling quickly HELLAR HELLAR HELLAR HELLAR HELLAR HELLAR HELLAR Roof ing slone, also in west Cornwall a roof HELLAR HELLAR HELLAR HELLAR Roof slates HELLAR HELLAR HELLAR Roof slates HELLAR HELLAR Raking corn with a "helming rake". HELLAR HELLAR HELLAR Raking corn with a "helming rake". HELLAR HELLAR HELLAR Superlative of almost any adjective HENTWAYS / HENNAWAYS HENNYAYS / HENNAWAYS HENDYMAYS / HENNAWAYS HERPIROS Lower half of a stable like the old milk churn plats still found at old farmsteads and some old pubs. They were used for mounting one's horse. HERBY PIB / HARBY PIE HERBY PIB / HARBY PIE HERBY HER / HARBY PIE HERBY HER / HARBY PIE HERBY HER / HARBY PIE HERD IN HERBY HER / HARBY PIE HERD IN HE
HELL The passage leading from the door to the parlour
HELL ZELL HELL FR CEATHER HELLAR HELA
HELLAS The nightjar A beavily camouflaged bird that nests on the ground on old waste ground and makes a rasping (jarring) noise at might. HELLER Slater or tiler HELLING Roof ing stone, also in west Cornwall a roof HELLINS(ENS): /ELLINS Reof slates HELLER / HELLER / HEALER A slater HALE: to roof. HELMING Raking corn with a "helming rake". HEMING Raking corn with a "helming rake". Loadles as used by miners HEMING HEMPEN WICK CANDLE Candles as used by miners HEMIUS Superlative of almost any adjective HENYWAYS / HENNAWAYS Cast away fin or copper ore. HEPPING-STOCK A stone block rather like the old milk churn plats still found at old farmsteads and some old pubs. They were used for mounting one's horse. HEPS/HEPPS / EPPS Lower half of a stable or cottage double door. "More tongue than teeth, she had better keep a heps befor her mouth." Made of spinach, parsley, mustard and cress, pepper-cress, young onions, lettuce, slices of baseon and a little milk. HERD IN To rake in loose hay from pooks or drams (rows) ready for easy pitching onto horse drawn wagons. HERN Heron. Long legged wading bird plentiful on Cornish creeks HERTS/WERTS Wortleberries (Grow wild on Carn Brea and Tegonning Hill) HETCH or HUTCH Open working on the back of a lode – a water filled open work HETTED Hetted "The hay rick hetted an' caught fire." HETTER The heater block of an old fashioned box-iron or jenny quick HETTER A shaskle HETTER A s
HELLAS The nightjar A heavily camouflaged bird that nests on the ground on old waste ground and makes a rasping (jarring) noise at night. HELLING Roof ing stone, also in west Cornwall a roof HELLING Roof slates HELLYER/HELLER/HEALER A slater HALE: to roof. RELLYER/HELLER/HEALER A slater HALE: to roof. REMEMBY WICK CANDLE Candles as used by miners HENVUS Superlative of almost any adjective HENVEN Superlative of almost any adjective HENVEN Superlative of almost any adjective HENVEN Superlative of almost any adjective HEPS/HEPPING-STOCK A stone block rather like the old milk churn plats still found at old farmsteads and some old pubs. They were used for mounting one's horse. HEPS/HEPPS/EPPS Lower half of a stable or cottage double door. "More tongue than teeth, she had better keep a heps befor her mouth." HERBY PIE / HARBY PIE Made of spinach, parsley, mustard and cress, pepper-cress, young onions, lettuce, slices of bascon and a little milk. HERD IN To rake in loose hay from pooks or drams (rows) ready for easy pitching onto horse drawn wagons. HERTS/WERTS Worleberries (Grow wild on Carn Brea and Tegonning Hill) HET HEAT. A misty summer dawn may be said. "to be all fer het and pilchards." Or 'I'll put the kettle on the hen owy your come." HETTER The heater block of an old fashioned box-iron or jenny quick HETTER The heater block of an old fashioned box-iron or jenny quick HETTER A shackle pin HEV(V)A Cry of the huer to the fishermen in the boats off shore. This call was combined with a form of semaphore holing something conspicuous in both hands. (q. v.) HEWNE Side of a calciner in a tin burning bouse, from hewn granite? Fashioned out of—hewn out of—hew
HELLER HELLING HELLINS(ENS)/ELLINS Roof ing stone, also in west Cornwall a roof HELLINS(ENS)/ELLINS Roof slates HELLYRE/HELLER / HEALER HERNYMS / HENDAWAYS Candles as used by miners HENDIN Superlative of almost any adjective HENYWAYS/HENNAWAYS Lost away tin or copper ore. HEPSHEPPS-HEPPS Lower half of a stable or cottage double door. "More tongue than teeth, she had better keep a heps befor her mouth." HERBY PIE / HARBY PIE Made of spinach, parsley, mustard and cress, pepper-cress, young onions, lettuce, slices of bacon and a fittle milk. HERD IN To rake in loose hay from pooks or drams (rows) ready for easy pitching onto horse drawn wagons. HERTSWERTS Wortleberries (Grow wild on Cam Brea and Tegonning Hill) HET HEAT HARBY HEALE A misty summer dawn may be said - 'to be all fer het and pilchards.' Or 'I'll put the kettle on the het now your come.' HETTED Heated "The hay rick hetted and 'caught fire." HETTER The heater block of an old fashioned box-iron or jenny quick HETTER A shackle HETTER A shackle pin HETTER The heater block of an old fashioned box-iron or jenny quick HETTER A shackle pin HETTER A shackle pin HEWNE Side of a calciner in a tin burning house, from how prannie? Fashioned out of—hewn
HELLING (ENS) / ELLINS Roof slates Roof slates RELLYER / HELLER / HELLER / A slater HALE: to roof. HELMING Raking corn with a 'helming rake'. HEMPEN WICK CANDLE Candles as used by miners HENYWAYS / HENNAWAYS Cast away tin or copper ore. HEPPING-STOCK A stone block rather like the old milk churn plats still found at old farmsteads and some old pubs. They were used for mounting one's horse. HEPS/HEPPS/EPPS Lower half of a stable or cottage double door. "More tongue than teeth, she had better keep a heps befor her mouth." HERBY PIE / HARBY PIE Made of spinach, parsley, mustard and cress, pepper-cress, young onions, lettuce, slices of bacon and a little milk. HERD IN To rake in loose hay from pooks or drams (rows) ready for easy pitching onto horse drawn wagons. HERTS/WERTS Wortleberries (Grow wild on Carn Brea and Tegonning Hill) HET Heat. A misty summer dawn may be said - 'to be all fer het and pilchards.' Or 'l'll put the ketfle on te het now your come.' HETTED Heated "The hay rick hetted an' caught free." HETTER The heater block of an old fashioned box-iron or jenny quick HETTER A shackle HETTER A shackle HETTER A shackle HETTER A shackle pin HEV(V)A Cry of the huer to the fishermen in the boats off shore. This call was combined with a form of semaphore holing something conspicuous in both hands. (q.v.) Side of a caleiner in a tin burning house, from hewn granite? Fashioned out of—hewn ou		and makes a rasping (jarring) noise at night.
HELLINS(ENS) / ELLINS Roof slates HELLYRR / HELLER / HEALER A slater HALE: to roof. HELMING Raking corn with a 'helming rake'. HEMPEN WICK CANDLE Candles as used by miners HENJUS Superlative of almost any adjective HENYWAYS / HENNAWAYS Cast away tin or copper ore. HEPPING-STOCK A stone block rather like the old milk churn plats still found at old farmsteads and some old pubs. They were used for mounting one's horse. HEPS/HEPPS / EDPS Lower half of a stable or cottage double door. "More tongue than teeth, she had better keep a heps befor her mouth." Made of spinach, parsley, mustard and cress, pepper-cress, young onions, lettuce, slices of bacon and a little milk. HERD IN Jorake in loose hay from pooks or drams (rows) ready for easy pitching onto horse drawn wagons. HERN HERD HERD HERD (Grow wild on Carn Brea and Tegonning Hill) HET HERD HEAL A misty summer dawn may be said - 'to be all fer het and pilchards.' Or 'l'll put the kettle on te het now your come.' HETTED Heat ("The hay rick hetted an' caught fire.") HETTER A shackle pin HEV(V)A Cry of the huer to the fishermen in the boats off shore. This call was combined with a form of semaphore holing something conspicuous in both hands. (q.v.) HEWNE Side of a calciner in a tin burning house, from heave granter? Fashioned out of—heaven of HERZ A swarm of bees 'There's a righ hez over in Mary's garden, bees everywhere, black with 'em' tis.' HEBBAL A turnip, knoll or hummock HIBBAL A turnip, knoll or hummock HIBBAL HERG HIDNING A beating, shammering, Said of a person or animal. "I'll give 'ee a good hiding if you don't behave." HIGGLER / HAGGLER HIGGLER / HAGGLER HIGGLER / Hadle of a tool HILLS / ILLES Hadle of a tool
HELLYER / HELLER / HEALER A slater HALE: to roof. Raking corn with a 'helming rake'. HEMMEN WICK CANDLE Candles as used by miners Superlative of almost any adjective HENJUS Superlative of almost any adjective HENYWAYS / HENNAWAYS Cast away tin or copper ore. A stone block rather like the old milk churn plats still found at old farmsteads and some old pubs. They were used for mounting one's horse. HEPPING-STOCK A stone block rather like the old milk churn plats still found at old farmsteads and some old pubs. They were used for mounting one's horse. HEPS/HEPPS /EPPS Lower half of a stable or cottage double door. "More tongue than teeth, she had better keep a heps befor her mouth." Mace of spinach, parsley, mustard and cress, pepper-cress, young onions, lettuce, slices of bacon and a little milk. HERD IN To rake in loose hay from pooks or drams (rows) ready for easy pitching onto horse drawn wagons. HERTS/WERTS Wortleberries (Grow wild on Carn Brea and Tegonning Hill) HET Heat. A misty summer dawn may be said - 'to be all fer het and pilchards.' Or 'l'll put the kettle on the the now your come.' HETCH or HUTCH Open working on the back of a lode - a water filled open work HETTER The heater block of an old fashioned box-iron or jenny quick HETTER A shackle HETTER A shackle pin HEVVA Cry of the huer to the fishermen in the boats off shore. This call was combined with a form of semaphore holing something conspicuous in both hands. (q.v.) HEWNE Side of a calciner in a tin burning house, from hewn granite? Fashioned out of—hewn out of—hew out of—he had a pight hill alst night,
HELMING
HEMPEN WICK CANDLE HENPWAYS / HENNAWAYS Cast away tin or copper ore. HEPPING-STOCK A stone block rather like the old milk churn plats still found at old farmsteads and some old pubs. They were used for mounting one's horse. LOwer half of a stable or cotage double door. "More tongue than teeth, she had better keep a heps befor her mouth." HERBY PIE / HARBY PIE Made of spinach, parsley, mustard and cress, pepper-cress, young onions, lettuce, slices of bacon and a little milk. HERD IN To rake in loose hay from pooks or drams (rows) ready for easy pitching onto horse drawn wagons. HERRS/WERTS Heron. Long legged wading bird plentiful on Cornish creeks HERTS/WERTS Wortleberries (Grow wild on Carn Brea and Tegonning Hill) HETCH or HUTCH Open working on the back of a lode — a water filled open work HETTED Heated "The hay rick hetted an' caught fire." HETTER A shackle pin HETTER A shackle pin HEV(V)A Cry of the huer to the fishermen in the boats off shore. This call was combined with a form of semaphore holing something conspicuous in both hands. (q.v.) Side of a calciner in a tin buming house, from hewn granite? Fashioned out of—hewn out of—hewn out of—hewn out of—hewn of Daga" Bank of Daga is on Phillack downs. HIBBAL A Lumip, knoll or hummock HIBBAL A Lumip, knoll or hummock HIBBAL A Lumip, knoll or hummock HIBBAL Heaped qu. "Hibbled up like the Banks of Daga" Bank of Daga is on Phillack downs. HIBET The newt HIGGLER / HAGGLER Interval Handle of a tool HIGGLER / HAGGLER Interval Handle of a tool HILLA Nightmare. A bad dream or nightmare. 'I had a right hilla last night, I dream't I was put in prison and then throved the key in the river.' HILLA Handle of a tool
HENJUS HENYWAYS / HENNAWAYS Cast away tin or copper ore. A stone block rather like the old milk churn plats still found at old farmsteads and some old pubs. They were used for mounting one's horse. HEPPING-STOCK A stone block rather like the old milk churn plats still found at old farmsteads and some old pubs. They were used for mounting one's horse. HEPS/HEPPS /EPPS Lower half of a stable or cottage double door. "More tongue than teeth, she had better keep a heps befor her mounth." HERBY PIE / HARBY PIE Made of spinach, parsley, mustard and cress, pepper-cress, young onions, lettuce, slices of bacon and a little milk. To rake in loose hay from pooks or drams (rows) ready for easy pitching onto horse drawn wagons. HERN HERO I. To rake in loose hay from pooks or drams (rows) ready for easy pitching onto horse drawn wagons. HERTS/WERTS Wortleberries (Grow wild on Carn Brea and Tegonning Hill) HET Heat. A misty summer dawn may be said - 'to be all fer het and pilchards.' Or 'I'll put the kettle on te het now your come.' Open working on the back of a lode - a water filled open work HETTED Heated "The hay rick hetted an' caught fire." HETTER A shackle HETTER The has a shackle pin HEV(V)A Cry of the huer to the fishermen in the boats off shore. This call was combined with a form of semaphore holing something conspicuous in both hands. (q.v.) HEWNE Side of a calciner in a tin burning house, from hewn granite? Fashioned out of—hewn out of—hem out has a stain, a hammering. Said of a person or animal. "I'll give 'ee a good hiding if you don't behave." HIBB
HENYWAYS / HENNAWAYS Cast away tin or copper ore. A stone block rather like the old milk churn plats still found at old farmsteads and some old pubs. They were used for mounting one's horse. HEPS/HEPPS / EPPS Lower half of a stable or cottage double door. "More tongue than teeth, she had better keep a heps befor her mouth." Made of spinach, parsley, mustard and cress, pepper-cress, young onions, lettuce, slices of bacon and a little milk. HERD IN To rake in loose hay from pooks or drams (rows) ready for easy pitching onto horse drawn wagons. HERN Heron. Long legged wading bird plentiful on Cornish creeks HERTS/WERTS Wortleberries (Grow wild on Carn Brea and Tegonning Hill) HET Heat. A misty summer dawn may be said - 'to be all fer het and pilchards.' Or 'l'll put the kettle on te het now your come.' HETCH or HUTCH Open working on the back of a lode - a water filled open work HETTER The heater block of an old fashioned box-iron or jenny quick HETTER A shackle HETTER PIN A shackle pin HEV(V)A Cry of the huer to the fishermen in the boats off shore. This call was combined with a form of semaphore holing something conspicuous in both hands. (q.v.) HEZ A swarm of bees 'There's a righ hez over in Mary's garden, bees everywhere, black with 'em' tis.' HIBBAL A turnip, knoll or hummock HIBBAL A turnip, knoll or hummock HIBBAL Heave Thenewt HIDING A beating, a hammering. Said of a person or animal. "I'll give 'ee a good hiding if you don't behave." HIGGLER / HAGGLER Ininerant dealer in butter, eggs, poultry etc. HIGGLER / HAGGLER Ininerant dealer in butter, eggs, poultry etc. HIGHLBY-DAY In broad daylight. "The brake inta the house high-by-day would you believe." HILLA Nightmare. A bad dream or nightmare. 'I had a right hilla last night, I dream't I was put in prison and then thrawed the key in the river.' HILLA		•
HEPPING-STOCK A stone block rather like the old milk churn plats still found at old farmsteads and some old pubs. They were used for mounting one's horse. Lower half of a stable or cottage double door. "More tongue than teeth, she had better keep a heps befor her mouth." HERBY PIE / HARBY PIE Made of spinach, parsley, mustard and cress, pepper-cress, young onions, lettuce, slices of bacon and a little milk. HERD IN To rake in loose hay from pooks or drams (rows) ready for easy pitching onto horse drawn wagons. HERN Heron. Long legged wading bird plentiful on Cornish creeks HERTS/WERTS Wortleberries (Grow wild on Carn Brea and Tegonning Hill) HET Heat. A misty summer dawn may be said - 'to be all fer het and pilchards.' Or 'I'll put the kettle on the ten towy our come.' HETTED Heated "The hay rick hetted an' caught fire." HETTER The heater block of an old fashioned box-iron or jenny quick HETTER A shackle HETTER (A shackle pin) HEV(V)A Cry of the huer to the fishermen in the boats off shore. This call was combined with a form of semaphore holing something conspicuous in both hands. (q.v.) HEWNE Side of a calciner in a tin burning house, from hewn granite? Fashioned out of—hewn out of—hem out o		· · ·
Old pubs. They were used for mounting one's horse.
Recep a heps befor her mouth."		old pubs. They were used for mounting one's horse.
HERBY PIE / HARBY PIE Made of spinach, parsley, mustard and cress, pepper-cress, young onions, lettuce, slices of bacon and a little milk. To rake in loose hay from pooks or drams (rows) ready for easy pitching onto horse drawn wagons. HERN Heron. Long legged wading bird plentiful on Cornish creeks Wortleberries (Grow wild on Carn Brea and Tegonning Hill) HET Heat A misty summer dawn may be said - 'to be all fer het and pilchards.' Or 'I'll put the kettle on te het now your come.' Open working on the back of a lode - a water filled open work HETTED Heated "The hay rick hetted an' caught fire." HETTER The heater block of an old fashioned box-iron or jenny quick HETTER PIN A shackle HETTER PIN A shackle pin HEV(V)A Cry of the huer to the fishermen in the boats off shore. This call was combined with a form of semaphore holing something conspicuous in both hands. (q.v.) HEWNE Side of a calciner in a tin burning house, from hewn granite? Fashioned out ofhewn out ofhewn out ofhewn out ofhewn out ofhewn out ofhewn of bees 'There's a righ hez over in Mary's garden, bees everywhere, black with 'em' 'tis.' HIBBAL A turnip, knoll or hummock HIBBLED Heaped up. "Hibbled up like the Banks of Daga" Bank of Daga is on Phillack downs. HIBBET The newt HIDING A beating, a hammering. Said of a person or animal. "I'll give 'ee a good hiding if you don't behave." HIGGLER / HAGGLER Itinerant dealer in butter, eggs, poultry etc. HIGH LIVING Eating EXPENSIVELY — "We're living high tonight.' HIGH-BY-DAY In broad daylight. "The brake inta the house high-by-day would you believe." HILES / ILES Barley bread HILLS HILLS HILLS HILLS HILLS HILLS HILLS HILLS Handle of a tool	HEPS/HEPPS /EPPS
HERD IN To rake in loose hay from pooks or drams (rows) ready for easy pitching onto horse drawn wagons. HERN Heron. Long legged wading bird plentiful on Cornish creeks HERTS/WERTS Wortleberries (Grow wild on Carn Brea and Tegonning Hill) HET Heat. A misty summer dawn may be said - 'to be all fer het and pilchards.' Or 'l'll put the kettle on te het now your come.' Open working on the back of a lode - a water filled open work HETTED Heated "The hay rick hetted an' caught fire." HETTER The heater block of an old fashioned box-iron or jenny quick HETTER A shackle HETTER A shackle HETTER IN A shackle pin HEV(V)A Cry of the huer to the fishermen in the boats off shore. This call was combined with a form of semaphore holing something conspicuous in both hands. (q.v.) HEWNE Side of a calciner in a tin burning house, from hewn granite? Fashioned out ofhewn out ofhewn out ofhewn out ofhewn out ofhewn out ofhewn out of heads with 'em' 'tis.' HIBBAL A turnip, knoll or hummock HIBBLED Heaped up. "Hibbled up like the Banks of Daga" Bank of Daga is on Phillack downs. HIBET The newt HIDING A beating, a hammering. Said of a person or animal. "I'll give 'ee a good hiding if you don't behave." HIGGLER / HAGGLER Itinerant dealer in butter, eggs, poultry etc. HIGH LIVING Eating EXPENSIVELY - "We're living high tonight." HIGH-BY-DAY In broad daylight. "The brake inta the house high-by-day would you believe." HILES / ILES Barley bread HILLA Nightmare. A bad dream or nightmare. 'I had a right hilla last night, I dream't I was put in prison and then thrawed the key in the river.' HILLT Handle of a tool	HERBY PIE / HARBY PIE	Made of spinach, parsley, mustard and cress, pepper-cress, young onions, lettuce, slices
HERN Heron. Long legged wading bird plentiful on Cornish creeks HERTS/WERTS Wortleberries (Grow wild on Carn Brea and Tegonning Hill) HET Heat. A misty summer dawn may be said - 'to be all fer het and pilchards.' Or 'l'll put the kettle on te het now your come.' HETCH or HUTCH Open working on the back of a lode - a water filled open work HETTED Heated "The hay rick hetted an' caught fire." HETTER The heater block of an old fashioned box-iron or jenny quick HETTER A shackle HETTER PIN A shackle pin HEV(V)A Cry of the huer to the fishermen in the boats off shore. This call was combined with a form of semaphore holing something conspicuous in both hands. (q.v.) HEWNE Side of a calciner in a tin burning house, from hewn granite? Fashioned out ofhewn out ofhewn out ofhewn out of with 'em' 'tis.' HIBBAL A turnip, knoll or hummock HIBBLED Heaped up. "Hibbled up like the Banks of Daga" Bank of Daga is on Phillack downs. HIBET The newt HIDING A beating, a hammering. Said of a person or animal. "I'll give 'ee a good hiding if you don't behave." HIGGLER / HAGGLER Itinerant dealer in butter, eggs, poultry etc. HIGH LIVING Eating EXPENSIVELY - 'We're living high tonight.' HIGH-BY-DAY In broad daylight. "The brake inta the house high-by-day would you believe." HILES / ILES Barley bread HILLA Nightmare. A bad dream or nightmare. '1 had a right hilla last night, I dream't I was put in prison and then thrawed the key in the river.' HILLY Handle of a tool	HERD IN	To rake in loose hay from pooks or drams (rows) ready for easy pitching onto horse
HERTS/WERTS Wortleberries (Grow wild on Carn Brea and Tegonning Hill) HET Heat. A misty summer dawn may be said - 'to be all fer het and pilchards.' Or 'I'll put the kettle on te het now your come.' HETCH or HUTCH Open working on the back of a lode - a water filled open work HETTED Heated "The hay rick hetted an' caught fire." HETTER The heater block of an old fashioned box-iron or jenny quick HETTER A shackle HETTER PIN A shackle pin Cry of the huer to the fishermen in the boats off shore. This call was combined with a form of semaphore holing something conspicuous in both hands. (q.v.) Side of a calciner in a tin burning house, from hewn granite? Fashioned out ofhewn out of HEZ A swarm of bees 'There's a righ hez over in Mary's garden, bees everywhere, black with 'em' 'tis.' HIBBAL A turnip, knoll or hummock HIBBLED Heaped up. "Hibbled up like the Banks of Daga" Bank of Daga is on Phillack downs. HIBET The newt HIDING A beating, a hammering. Said of a person or animal. "I'll give 'ee a good hiding if you don't behave." HIGGLER / HAGGLER HIGH-BY-DAY In broad daylight. "The brake inta the house high-by-day would you believe." HIGH-BY-DAY In broad daylight. "The brake inta the house high-by-day would you believe." HILES / ILES Barley bread HILLA Nightmare. A bad dream or nightmare. 'I had a right hilla last night, I dream't I was put in prison and then thrawed the key in the river.' HILLT Handle of a tool	HERN
HET Heat . A misty summer dawn may be said - 'to be all fer het and pilchards.' Or 'I'll put the kettle on te het now your come.' HETCH or HUTCH Open working on the back of a lode – a water filled open work HETTED Heated "The hay rick hetted an' caught fire." HETTER The heater block of an old fashioned box-iron or jenny quick HETTER A shackle HETTER A shackle pin HEV(V)A Cry of the huer to the fishermen in the boats off shore. This call was combined with a form of semaphore holing something conspicuous in both hands. (q.v.) Side of a calciner in a tin burning house, from hewn granite? Fashioned out of—hewn out of HEZ A swarm of bees "There's a righ hez over in Mary's garden, bees everywhere, black with 'em' tis.' HIBBAL A turnip, knoll or hummock HIBBLED Heaped up. "Hibbled up like the Banks of Daga" Bank of Daga is on Phillack downs. HIBET The newt HIDING A beating, a hammering. Said of a person or animal. "I'll give 'ee a good hiding if you don't behave." HIGGLER / HAGGLER Itinerant dealer in butter, eggs, poultry etc. HIGH LIVING Eating EXPENSIVELY - 'We're living high tonight.' HIGH-BY-DAY In broad daylight. "The brake inta the house high-by-day would you believe." HILES / ILES Barley bread HILLA Nightmare. A bad dream or nightmare. 'I had a right hilla last night, I dream't I was put in prison and then thrawed the key in the river.' HILLT Handle of a tool	HERTS/WERTS
HETCH or HUTCH Open working on the back of a lode – a water filled open work HETTED Heated "The hay rick hetted an' caught fire." The heater block of an old fashioned box-iron or jenny quick HETTER A shackle HETTER PIN A shackle pin HEV(V)A Cry of the huer to the fishermen in the boats off shore. This call was combined with a form of semaphore holing something conspicuous in both hands. (q.v.) HEWNE Side of a calciner in a tin burning house, from hewn granite? Fashioned out of—hewn out of HEZ A swarm of bees 'There's a righ hez over in Mary's garden, bees everywhere, black with 'em 'tis.' HIBBAL A turnip, knoll or hummock HIBBLED Heaped up. "Hibbled up like the Banks of Daga" Bank of Daga is on Phillack downs. HIBET The newt HIDING A beating, a hammering. Said of a person or animal. "I'll give 'ee a good hiding if you don't behave." HIGGLER / HAGGLER Itinerant dealer in butter, eggs, poultry etc. HIGH LIVING Eating EXPENSIVELY — 'We're living high tonight.' HIGH-BY-DAY In broad daylight. "The brake inta the house high-by-day would you believe." HILES / ILES Barley bread Nightmare. A bad dream or nightmare. 'I had a right hilla last night, I dream't I was put in prison and then thrawed the key in the river.' HILLY Handle of a tool	HET
HETTED Heated "The hay rick hetted an' caught fire." HETTER The heater block of an old fashioned box-iron or jenny quick HETTER A shackle HETTER PIN A shackle pin HEV(V)A Cry of the huer to the fishermen in the boats off shore. This call was combined with a form of semaphore holing something conspicuous in both hands. (q.v.) HEWNE Side of a calciner in a tin burning house, from hewn granite? Fashioned out of—hewn out of HEZ A swarm of bees 'There's a righ hez over in Mary's garden, bees everywhere, black with 'em 'tis.' HIBBAL A turnip, knoll or hummock HIBBLED Heaped up. "Hibbled up like the Banks of Daga" Bank of Daga is on Phillack downs. HIBET The newt HIDING A beating, a hammering. Said of a person or animal. "I'll give 'ee a good hiding if you don't behave." HIGH LIVING Eating EXPENSIVELY - 'We're living high tonight.' HIGH-BY-DAY In broad daylight. "The brake inta the house high-by-day would you believe." HILES / ILES Barley bread HILLA Nightmare. A bad dream or nightmare. 'I had a right hilla last night, I dream't I was put in prison and then thrawed the key in the river.' HILT Handle of a tool
HETTER The heater block of an old fashioned box-iron or jenny quick HETTER A shackle HETTER PIN A shackle pin Cry of the huer to the fishermen in the boats off shore. This call was combined with a form of semaphore holing something conspicuous in both hands. (q.v.) HEWNE Side of a calciner in a tin burning house, from hewn granite? Fashioned out of—hewn out of HEZ A swarm of bees 'There's a righ hez over in Mary's garden, bees everywhere, black with 'em 'tis.' HIBBAL A turnip, knoll or hummock HIBBLED Heaped up. "Hibbled up like the Banks of Daga" Bank of Daga is on Phillack downs. HIBET The newt HIDING A beating, a hammering. Said of a person or animal. "I'll give 'ee a good hiding if you don't behave." HIGGLER / HAGGLER Itinerant dealer in butter, eggs, poultry etc. HIGH LIVING Eating EXPENSIVELY – 'We're living high tonight.' HIGH-BY-DAY In broad daylight. "The brake inta the house high-by-day would you believe." HILES / ILES Barley bread Nightmare. A bad dream or nightmare. 'I had a right hilla last night, I dream't I was put in prison and then thrawed the key in the river.' HILT Handle of a tool
HETTER A shackle HETTER PIN A shackle pin HEV(V)A Cry of the huer to the fishermen in the boats off shore. This call was combined with a form of semaphore holing something conspicuous in both hands. (q.v.) HEWNE Side of a calciner in a tin burning house, from hewn granite? Fashioned out of—hewn out of—hewn out of—hewn out of—hewn out of—hewn out of bees 'There's a righ hez over in Mary's garden, bees everywhere, black with 'em' 'tis.' HIBBAL A turnip, knoll or hummock HIBBLED Heaped up. "Hibbled up like the Banks of Daga" Bank of Daga is on Phillack downs. HIBET The newt HIDING A beating, a hammering. Said of a person or animal. "I'll give 'ee a good hiding if you don't behave." HIGGLER / HAGGLER Itinerant dealer in butter, eggs, poultry etc. HIGH LIVING Eating EXPENSIVELY – 'We're living high tonight.' HIGH-BY-DAY In broad daylight. "The brake inta the house high-by-day would you believe." HILES / ILES Barley bread HILLA Nightmare. A bad dream or nightmare. 'I had a right hilla last night, I dream't I was put in prison and then thrawed the key in the river.' HILT Handle of a tool		, ,
HETTER PIN A shackle pin Cry of the huer to the fishermen in the boats off shore. This call was combined with a form of semaphore holing something conspicuous in both hands. (q.v.) HEWNE Side of a calciner in a tin burning house, from hewn granite? Fashioned out of—hewn out of HEZ A swarm of bees 'There's a righ hez over in Mary's garden, bees everywhere, black with 'em 'tis.' HIBBAL A turnip, knoll or hummock HIBBLED Heaped up. "Hibbled up like the Banks of Daga" Bank of Daga is on Phillack downs. HIBET The newt HIDNG A beating, a hammering. Said of a person or animal. "I'll give 'ee a good hiding if you don't behave." HIGGLER / HAGGLER HIGH LIVING Eating EXPENSIVELY – 'We're living high tonight.' HIGH-BY-DAY In broad daylight. "The brake inta the house high-by-day would you believe." HILES / ILES Barley bread Nightmare. A bad dream or nightmare. 'I had a right hilla last night, I dream't I was put in prison and then thrawed the key in the river.' HILT Handle of a tool		V V 1
HEV(V)A Cry of the huer to the fishermen in the boats off shore. This call was combined with a form of semaphore holing something conspicuous in both hands. (q.v.) Side of a calciner in a tin burning house, from hewn granite? Fashioned out of—hewn out of HEZ A swarm of bees 'There's a righ hez over in Mary's garden, bees everywhere, black with 'em 'tis.' HIBBAL A turnip, knoll or hummock HIBBLED Heaped up. "Hibbled up like the Banks of Daga" Bank of Daga is on Phillack downs. HIBET The newt HIDING A beating, a hammering. Said of a person or animal. "I'll give 'ee a good hiding if you don't behave." HIGGLER / HAGGLER HIGH LIVING Eating EXPENSIVELY – 'We're living high tonight.' HIGH-BY-DAY In broad daylight. "The brake inta the house high-by-day would you believe." HILES / ILES Barley bread HILLA Nightmare. A bad dream or nightmare. 'I had a right hilla last night, I dream't I was put in prison and then thrawed the key in the river.' HILT Handle of a tool form of semaphore holing something conspicuous in both hands. (q.v.) HEWNE Side of a calciner in a tin burning house, from hewn granite? Fashioned out of— hewn out of A swarm of bees 'There's a righ hez over in Mary's garden, bees everywhere, black with 'em 'tis.' HIBBAL A turnip, knoll or hummock HIBBLED Heaped up. "Hibbled up like the Banks of Daga" Bank of Daga is on Phillack downs. HIBET The newt HIDING A beating, a hammering. Said of a person or animal. "I'll give 'ee a good hiding if you don't behave." HIGGLER / HAGGLER Itinerant dealer in butter, eggs, poultry etc. HIGH LIVING Eating EXPENSIVELY - 'We're living high tonight.' HIGH-BY-DAY In broad daylight. "The brake inta the house high-by-day would you believe." HILES / ILES Barley bread HILLA Nightmare. A bad dream or nightmare. 'I had a right hilla last night, I dream't I was put in prison and then thrawed the key in the river.' HILT Handle of a tool		1
hewn out of HEZ A swarm of bees 'There's a righ hez over in Mary's garden, bees everywhere, black with 'em 'tis.' HIBBAL A turnip, knoll or hummock HIBBLED Heaped up. "Hibbled up like the Banks of Daga" Bank of Daga is on Phillack downs. HIBET The newt HIDING A beating, a hammering. Said of a person or animal. "I'll give 'ee a good hiding if you don't behave." HIGGLER / HAGGLER Itinerant dealer in butter, eggs, poultry etc. HIGH LIVING Eating EXPENSIVELY – 'We're living high tonight.' HIGH-BY-DAY In broad daylight. "The brake inta the house high-by-day would you believe." HILES / ILES Barley bread HILLA Nightmare. A bad dream or nightmare. 'I had a right hilla last night, I dream't I was put in prison and then thrawed the key in the river.' HILT Handle of a tool	. ,	form of semaphore holing something conspicuous in both hands. (q.v.)
with 'em 'tis.' HIBBAL A turnip, knoll or hummock HIBBLED Heaped up. "Hibbled up like the Banks of Daga" Bank of Daga is on Phillack downs. HIBET The newt HIDING A beating, a hammering. Said of a person or animal. "I'll give 'ee a good hiding if you don't behave." HIGGLER / HAGGLER Itinerant dealer in butter, eggs, poultry etc. HIGH LIVING Eating EXPENSIVELY – 'We're living high tonight.' HIGH-BY-DAY In broad daylight. "The brake inta the house high-by-day would you believe." HILES / ILES Barley bread HILLA Nightmare. A bad dream or nightmare. 'I had a right hilla last night, I dream't I was put in prison and then thrawed the key in the river.' HILT Handle of a tool	HEWNE	hewn out of
HIBBAL A turnip, knoll or hummock HIBBLED Heaped up. "Hibbled up like the Banks of Daga" Bank of Daga is on Phillack downs. HIBET The newt HIDING A beating, a hammering. Said of a person or animal. "I'll give 'ee a good hiding if you don't behave." HIGGLER / HAGGLER Itinerant dealer in butter, eggs, poultry etc. HIGH LIVING Eating EXPENSIVELY – 'We're living high tonight.' HIGH-BY-DAY In broad daylight. "The brake inta the house high-by-day would you believe." HILES / ILES Barley bread HILLA Nightmare. A bad dream or nightmare. 'I had a right hilla last night, I dream't I was put in prison and then thrawed the key in the river.' HILT Handle of a tool	HEZ
HIBET The newt HIDING A beating, a hammering. Said of a person or animal. "I'll give 'ee a good hiding if you don't behave." HIGGLER / HAGGLER Itinerant dealer in butter, eggs, poultry etc. HIGH LIVING Eating EXPENSIVELY – 'We're living high tonight.' HIGH-BY-DAY In broad daylight. "The brake inta the house high-by-day would you believe." HILES / ILES Barley bread HILLA Nightmare. A bad dream or nightmare. 'I had a right hilla last night, I dream't I was put in prison and then thrawed the key in the river.' HILT Handle of a tool	HIBBAL
HIDING A beating, a hammering. Said of a person or animal. "I'll give 'ee a good hiding if you don't behave." HIGGLER / HAGGLER Itinerant dealer in butter, eggs, poultry etc. HIGH LIVING Eating EXPENSIVELY – 'We're living high tonight.' HIGH-BY-DAY In broad daylight. "The brake inta the house high-by-day would you believe." HILES / ILES Barley bread Nightmare. A bad dream or nightmare. 'I had a right hilla last night, I dream't I was put in prison and then thrawed the key in the river.' HILT Handle of a tool	HIBBLED	Heaped up. "Hibbled up like the Banks of Daga" Bank of Daga is on Phillack downs.
don't behave." HIGGLER / HAGGLER Itinerant dealer in butter, eggs, poultry etc. HIGH LIVING Eating EXPENSIVELY – 'We're living high tonight.' HIGH-BY-DAY In broad daylight. "The brake inta the house high-by-day would you believe." HILES / ILES Barley bread HILLA Nightmare. A bad dream or nightmare. 'I had a right hilla last night, I dream't I was put in prison and then thrawed the key in the river.' HILT Handle of a tool	HIBET	The newt
HIGGLER / HAGGLER Itinerant dealer in butter, eggs, poultry etc. HIGH LIVING Eating EXPENSIVELY – 'We're living high tonight.' HIGH-BY-DAY In broad daylight. "The brake inta the house high-by-day would you believe." HILES / ILES Barley bread HILLA Nightmare. A bad dream or nightmare. 'I had a right hilla last night, I dream't I was put in prison and then thrawed the key in the river.' HILT Handle of a tool	HIDING
HIGH-BY-DAY In broad daylight. "The brake inta the house high-by-day would you believe." HILES / ILES Barley bread Nightmare. A bad dream or nightmare. 'I had a right hilla last night, I dream't I was put in prison and then thrawed the key in the river.' HILT Handle of a tool	HIGGLER / HAGGLER
HILES / ILES Barley bread HILLA Nightmare. A bad dream or nightmare. 'I had a right hilla last night, I dream't I was put in prison and then thrawed the key in the river.' HILT Handle of a tool	HIGH LIVING	Eating EXPENSIVELY – 'We're living high tonight.'
HILLA Nightmare. A bad dream or nightmare. 'I had a right hilla last night, I dream't I was put in prison and then thrawed the key in the river.' HILT Handle of a tool	HIGH-BY-DAY	In broad daylight. "The brake inta the house high-by-day would you believe."
put in prison and then thrawed the key in the river.' HILT Handle of a tool	HILES / ILES	Barley bread
HILT Handle of a tool	HILLA
	HILT
	HIND	Farm Manager employed by an absentee or gentleman farmer.

HINDERMENT	Hindrance "I abm 'ad nawthen more then hiderment after hinderment all this morning; I
III	abm even made the beds yet."
HINGE	The pluck, lungs and heart of an animal sometimes served in a pasty; 'Apple 'n hinge.' (Liver & lungs usually of a pig.)
HIPPED	Depressed, ill in imagination
HIPPING STOCK	See hepping stock
HIRE	Hear
HISK(ING)	Wheeze(ing) 'He's always hisking, that boy, can never seem te thraw et off.'
HISS'N ON	Encouraging someone partaking in a fight or contest perhaps. 'Even though 'e was on the ground nearly daed mawther was hiss'n of 'n on.' (See 'egg en on' & slock en on'.)
НІТСН	Shallow hole cut in rock-face to support timber underground. 'He made (drove) a hitch in the side wall to carry the beam across.'
HITCH	To sew roughly and clumsily
HITCHED UP	Said of neglected children
HITCHED UP	To join a harnessed animal, horse, donkey etc to the implement that it is going to pull
HOARDER	A keeping apple
HOASE	A forbear ???? Help
HOBBAN / HOGGIN	Baked dinner cake. Figgy hobbin etc. Hogginthe-liddle; containing a small piece of pork.
HOBBAN or HOGGIN BAG	Miner's crib bag
HOBBLE	A party of guided tourists
HOBBLE	The share each person received when the vessel was brought in. perhaps when the catch was sold
HOBBLE	A span tied from an animal's front to back foot to prevent hedge jumping. (Banned today I'm sure.)
HOBBLER?HOBBLING	Ferryman. Guide. A touter; touting
HODDYMAN/ HODDYMANTODDY	A simpleton
HOFFICER	Officer
HOGGAN	Tattey Hoggan – Potato pasty. Also described as a lump of unlevened dough into which is pressed a morsel of green pork; popular amongst min ers.
HOGGAN BAG	A miner's bag in which he carried his provisions. (Hoggan Cornish coarse.) Hoggan is also said to be a pork pasty.
HOGGANS	Haws. See Egglets. Fruits of the hawthorn
HOGGEN	A haw
HOGSHEADS	Striaght sided barrels or casks
HOG-STOG	Busy; staged; "I'm all of a hog-stog."
HOISE / HOISEY	Horse or horsey 'Horsey, horsey, don't you stop, Just let your feet go clippity clop'
HOIZY	Chesty, wheezy, hoarse, bronchial "My Fred is sum hoizy, 'tis painful te 'ear'n in there. I shall 'ave git the Doctor fer 'n fer sure."
HOKE, HOKE / HOIT, HOIT	Mid Cornwall and Est Cornwall, respectively – call for cows, to bring them up to you for any reason; ie. Milking time, transfer to another pasture.
HOLE-TE-GRASS	Workinga vein of metal to the surdface
HOLD 'ARD	Wait a minute. "Don't be so forthy."
HOLIDAYS	Gaps or spaces where things have been missed or left out. 'He painted the door yess'day but now 'ees dry I can see plenty of holidays in un.' Simiarly if a farmer had planted a field of say, cabbage plant, if any had failed after a week or so he'd send out a couple of men with an armful of plant and a shovel instructing them to 'fill in all the holidays.'
HOLLA	To shout or talk very loudly
HOLLA POT/TOM HOLLA	Confusion, muddle. See THOLLAPOT. Also loud talking person. "Hollow pot." 'Empty or hollow vessels make the most noise.'
HOLLAN	Pool in a field
HOLLENSMOCKS	Sea campions, Silene aritime. Holland Smock from their colour.
HOLLIBUBBER	A man who deals in slate and rubbish
HOLLICK / OLLEK	house-leek, Sempervivum. Allicacous plant of the onion/allium family.
HOLLOW WORK	A particular type of embroidery 'She can't knit fer toffee but she's a dab 'and at that there 'ollow work.' (Possibly more to do wth crochet, Candlewick or knitting.)
HOLLOW-WARE	Poultry as opposed to butcher's meat
HOLM	The holly tree (I wonder if this is what Holmbush at St Austell is named after.)
HOLM	Home
HOLM SCRITCH /	Missel thrush. In Devon, the jay. HOLM: the holly.
SCREECH /HOMESTRITCH

HOLT/HOLSTER	Lurking place; a badgers sett
HOMASS	The Medlar
HOME	To put home: To take home, or give a lift
HOME	. If something is 'Home' it is said to be in the closed position. i.e. "Close home the door boy 'tis sum drafty in eer."
HOME	Shut. "Pull home the door when you de go will ee? It de keep the draft out."
HOMER	A freebie job done for yourself in work time. "The foreman is off 'day so I got a lil homer te do 'fore lave work."
HOMER	A Homer field is said to be the nearwer field.
HOMER-FIELD	Nearest field to Farmstead; town-field
HONEY PIN	Variety of apple.
HOOCARNER/HUCCANER	A wood –corner beside a fireplace. "Da' de always sit in the hoocarner." I wander if it refers to the old wooden 'Settles'
HOOD	Wood, in the form of a bundle for fuel, usually comprising Hazel twigs.
HOOD WOOD	Woods or Forest
HOODLE, HOOL	Shorten a belt or chain. To tighten a rope by insertion of a bar or cart windlass.
HOODOWL	Green woodpecker.
HOODRICK	Rick of furze – fuel storage. "Caan't 'ford buy coal at the price ee is so will 'ave te start pulling from the hoosrick."
НООЈАН	Like thing-a-me-gig, used when you can't find the right word. It might refere to an object or a person. "what de you call it" is another such expression.
HOOTIN' COUGH	Hooping cough
HOOKER	Fishing boat; casting 'long lines'.
HOOLYBUS	Noise
НООР	Bullfinch.
HOOPER	Spirit at Sennen that gave warning by shouting. WHOOPER: Cp. "whooping cough".
HOOSE	Knot in wood.
HOOSE	Garden hose. "Give us the hoose yo, I'll flosh a drop o' waater on rthey marigolds, they're lookin a bit wisht."
HOOSEY	Crabbed, ill-tempered
HOOT	To bray, to cry, whistle. 'Hootin' like a steamer.'
HOOT	Bray like a donkey. "'ear that ol donkey out on the Downs hooten' can ee?"
HOOTIN(G) COUGH	Whooping cough; Hooping cough
HOOZY	Having a hoarseness, or a cough. (Hoost, hoose, acough. Anglo Saxon hwosta & Cornish hoarse)
HOP/OPP WAY/OPP/OPE	Open way connecting two streets. E.G. Coinage Ope, Helston.
HOPE/	Narrow passage or Ope; section in a Dutch Barn
HOPPETY BED	The game of hopscotch
HOPPS	Small bits
HOPPS	Small bit "These ol' hopps take sum pickin' up I tell ee."
HORMICK	Shapeless person.
HORNED CATTLE	Nickname for limpets etc.
HORNIWINK	Plover, lapwing. Also a useless ornament, a desolate place or building. Also a toad or a slug
HORRA	Prostitute
HORROCK WATER	Ditch water. Brackish water?
HORROK	Filth.
HORSE	Mining, where a vein changes course. ? A piece of country contained within a wide lode or between two branches of a lode.
HORSE	A wooden table
HORSE	Fault in a rock
HORSE ADDER / HOSS ADDER	Dragon fly. "There's a load of they horse-adders flyin' round the pond down by the stream."
HORSE OF KNOWLEDGE	One who knows everything. "Oh! 'e 'e's a right horse o' knowledge, 'e de knaw everything."
HORSE TOOTH	Quartz spar in granite.
HOSGID	Hogshead
HOSGIT	A Hogshead with a volume of 66 Imperial gallons, but was also used to transport tobacco.

HOUSE / HOUSING / HOUSEN (IN)	Gossipping from house to house. "She's never 'ome she's ousing' morning, noon and
HOUSE OF WATER	night." Someone going around just to gossip and drink tea (Also Coosing.) Mining, a large body of water in a flooded mine and accidentally holed.
HOUSEY	Ennui caused by too much confinement in the house. A kind of boredom or nothalga or
HOUZEN	nausea Houses. Also someone going from house to house to gossip
HOV	Throw or leave. "I'd been out lampen an 'ad a few rabbits aver me shoulder. As I was
TIO V	walking back down this narra lane I saw a flashlight comin; I thot ee might be a Pleeceman so I hov the rabbits aver the edge til I see'd who twas."
HOV UP	Vomit
HOW	Why – 'How aren't you at work today?'
HOWNAN	Wendron word for a stock works or open working on a deposit of tin ore occurring in numerous thin veins or strings, necessitating the removal of the whole ineralized
HOZZLE/OZZLE/UZZLE	deposit Wind pipe
HOZZLE/OZZLE/UZZLE	The windpipe
HUBBA	Watchers call to fishermen when Pilchards are spotted
HUBBA – DULLIA/ HUBBA –	A row, noise or disturbance
BALLOO HUBBA / HUBBADULLYA /
HUBBA(L)DULLION	Uproar, noisy row.
HUCCANER	Wood-corner in a kitchen. (See hoocarner above)
HUCKSEN	Knuckles, joints; plural of HOCK. Also, to hamstring. To fasten rabbit's hind legs by passing a skewer through the sinews at the hocks.
HUCKSTER /UCKSTER	A person selling things, Refers, usually to food, like Pork etc
HUD	Husks of corn
HUDDICK	Haddock
HUDDICKS	Grains of wheat not separated from their husks
HUDDY	Potato store or clamp. "Best close up the huddy er the frost will 'ave the tattes night."
HUEL	Mine or works
HUER	Look-out near the sea who shouted or signaled when he spotted a shoal of fish offshore. He'd cry "Heva – Heva."
HUER	Look-out man for a pilchard shoal. Cp. E. hue and cry.
HUFFA / UFFA	Hoof. Also shoemaker's last.
HUFFLE	To whiffle, as wind about a house or buildings
HUFFY	Cobbler's last for repairing shoes & boots
HUGO / HUGGO/STUGGO	A sea cave or cavern
HULLY	A hole in the rocks. Often used as a store for shell fish.
HULSTER/HOLT	Holt, A hold or rertreat to harbour. A Badger's Sett
HUM	Home
HUMDINGER	Some thing or even somebody jovial, very good or special and with a quick wit. Good company perhaps. 'He's a right humdinger, e've always got a yarn er a joke te tell.'
HUMMIN(G)	Stinking 'What on earth have you been doin boy the'rt hummin strinking, I should think a rat crawled up yer ass an' died!'
HUMMOCK	Stout unwieldly woman
HUNGRY	Mean, stingy, misderly.
HUNGRY	Said of soul that needs a lot of fertilizer to produce good crops
HUNGRY	May be said of sand or other material, for instance in the building trade certain sands especially if they had come from a mine with high mineral contentare said to be 'hungry' if the require extra cement to get a nice 'fatty' mortar.
HUNTSMAN'S CUP	Flower of water-figwort (Scrophularia).
HURLE	Filament of flax, "as dry as hurle". Filament = a slender or thread-like
HURLE	Sift earth through an oblong sieve supported against a pole or wall.
HURLER	A screen or griddle for sifting corn or 'screening' stone, by letting the fine bits fall through
HURLER(S)	Noun. Hurlers: sparks that run along the soot at the back of the hearth in dry weather. Hurling weather: drying weather.
HURLING	Basically throwing, as in the Cornish game of Hurling the silver ball. Similar to 'Hov' above
HURLING WEATHER	Fine, Drying weather
HURLY BURLY	A scramble. Hurling: "the old village game". As in Wales later to be adopted as
	"Rugby". (Oganised chaos).

HURRELS	Row points in a boat's bulwarks. "Put the oars in the hurrels yo, er you'll catcha crab." (Also hurlole & thurleole)
HURRIED	Worried, anxious, frightened, even annoyed. 'Tis 5 o'clock and my boy idn 'ome from school yet, I'm some hurried now.'
HURRY / HURRIED	To frighten or to be frightened. "I aren't huuried by en no matter w'at ee de say."
HURRYSOME	Hasty, Passionate
HURTED (AREE?)	Hurt 'There 've been a murder down te Pen Ponds, but nobody was hurted, so they say.' Are you hurt(injured)
HURTH	Hearth
HURTS / URTS	Wortleberries
HUSKING	A scolding.
HUSSLER/OSTLER	Man who stables horses for travellers
HUSTLER	A hold or retreat; to harbour; also a badger's sett
HUTCHWORK	Small ore washed by a sieve
HUXTABLE	Maker of one way turnover horse plough. (Not dialect but included for reference only)

315 words 22:06:19 - Federation of Old Cornwall Societies