Word	Meaning
, , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , ,	The state of the s
CADGE/CADGIN'	To beg. Begging. "Look up Buller's comin, he's bound te be on the cadge fer somethin'."
CAAGE	A set of used bones or teeth.
CAAGE-OF-BONES / CAAUGE	A skeleton. A very thin person. "I saw un on 'is death bed yo, an' ee was nawthin more'n a cage o' bones."
CA-AH	Stomach of a fowl
CAALED-UN	Called him. To call. "I caaled-un and caaled-un but 'e didn't answer, so I opened the door an' there 'e was gone!"
CAALL 'OME	Remember. Can't call to mind. "I caan't caal'n 'ome from what you're tellin' ov. If I see 'is faace, then I'll knaw en right nuff."
CAALIN	Calling
CAAN'T	Cannot. You knaw 'is trouble dun ee? He an't see the wood fer the trees."
CAAS	In case. "Taake yer raincoat jus' in caas."
CAB	Mess, Disorder. "I juss been up to see Mrs. Polkinhorne, my gar, the plaace is in some cab up there since 'er husband's gone."
CAB	A horny 'gall' on the hand; a callous – something similar to a wart I imagine.
CAB AWAY	Verb: to faint, give up the ghost.
CABABBLED	Mystified; deceived
CABAGGLED	Messed yup – dirty
CABAROUSE	Thickening or hardening of the skin – a gall
CABAROUSE	Seaman's term to pull together at a rope whilst singing and shouting
CABBAGING	Diddling
CABBED / CABBED-OVER	Handled. Messed about
CABBING	Making things dirty & messy
CABBY	Dirty. Sticky. Untidy. (see Cab above.)
CARECTA	To steal fish from nets, pots or carts
CABESTA CABING	Space between hook and lead in fishing line Pilfering
CABOOSE	An iron stove as used on fishing boats. "You got ta be darn careful use'n they cabooses
CA CW HANDED	on board a boat er you'll catch the plaace alight."
CACK HANDED	Awkward / Left handed (see click handed)
CADDLE	Do house work in an untidy manner, (like caudle.) Caudlin' water is brackish water used for such things as floshin' down the caunce or washing under-bed chambers!
CADDLER	One who caddles/caudles
CADER	A frame on which fishing lines are kept
CADGE	See CAADGE above
CAFF	Waste fish also refuse
CAG	A keg. "We'd better git a few extra cags in, tis Flora day thi weekend."
CAGE CAGGED	A set (as of teeth) "I bin dentist, and cum 'ome with a new cage o' teeth."  Annoyed, vexed
CAGGLED/ ALSO CAGGED	Covered with muck, oil, dirt, etc. "He have bin out there changing the oil on the tractor, you should see en, 'e's caggled from'ead te foot."
CAIHAIR BROOM	Coconut Fibre Broom
CAMAR BROOM CAINGEN	Sea Spray
CAKEY	A fool, a poor thing. A bit simple – Put in with the cake and took out with the buns; inferring someone came out of the womb before he/she was quite done!!
CAKEY	Young male with a manner older than his years
CAL	Tungstate of Iron. Also a liar
CALAMANJINO	The Ray with two flowers on its wings
CALCAR	The Lesser Weaver Fish or Sting Fish
CALL OUT	Have your bans called/read out in Church. "My lil maid an' me 'ad our first callout in Church last Sunday, two more te go."
CALL.	Coal. "Gone out back minit an git 'nawther bucket o' call, best catch up he fire 'gain for ee got out."
CALL-'OME	Remember - call to mind or memory. "I've bi tryin' 'ard all mornen, but I an't call en 'ome."
CALVES DROPPER	Small yub for feeding calves
I

CALVES SNOUT	Snapdragon or Antirrhinum
CAMBORNE	A beating. "Give em Camborne, let em knaw woose boss."
CAMBORNE MEN	'Hails'
CAMEL	The camomile plant
CANDRUMS	Nickname for Methodists
CANDTEENING	Twilight, candleteening time (Dummity Time?)
CAN-IN-THE-PAN	A somersault
CANKER	type of crab
CANNIS	To toss about carelessly
CANNYKEEPER / CANTYKEEPER	The Spider Crab; In Mullion & Porthleven Cannykeeper, elsewhere Cantycreeper. (Long clawed crab)
CANORUMS	Nickname for Methodists
CANT	A fall; fall over; a slope; or to slope. "After the 'oss an' cart ran into en 'e wad'n straight no more.an' 'e bin on the cant (leaning) ever since."
CANT	A long way. "Tis a cant of a way fom 'ere."
CANTER	Square frame upon which to wind a fishing line. "I've bin an' got a bit bigger canter, now I shan't 'ave put so many winds in un."
CANVAS	Linoleum, especially cheap linoleum, it would tear just by looken at en.
CAPE	Large hooded cloak as formerly worn by fishermen especially while resting or sleeping
CAPELING	The outer nets of a Trammel. (Trammel – to hold as if in a net.)
CAPERLONGER	Razor Fish or Shell Fish
CAPPEN/CAP'N/ MRS CAP'N	Captain & Captain's wife, boss or headman. There were captains of ships, boats and above and below ground at mines.
CAPPENIN	Domineering
CAPPEROUSE / CAPERHOUSE	A row, hubbub or uproar, a noisy frolic
CAR	Carry. "I got masses of tomatoes 'ere, 'ave few car 'ome will ee?
CARBOID	Carboy
CARBONNA	Accumulation odf rich ore in a mine
CARBOOLEN STONE	A stone suspended from a rope and kept constantly plunging in order to secure pilchards in a net and to prevent them escaping
CARE	Mountain ash
CARG	Salted cod. (Tidn bad if you soak 'n fer a Day er two afore you de poach'n in drop milk.) Also said of salted Conger.
CARN	Sepulchural
CARNELS	Chamomile
CARNEY	To wheedle, to caress. "I cud see en carneyin' her as if there was goyne be no tumarra."
CARPENTER'S LOUCE	Bruised finger or Black Man's pinch! A Gwidgagwee.
CARR/CARR'D	To carry – Carried. "He fell down an' broke 'is leg an' I carr'd 'n all the way 'ome."
CARRACK	A rock
CARROTS	Nickname for red-haired person
CARVES	Triangular woodedn boxes to hold loster ot crayfish
CASABULLY	Winter Cress
CASED TIN	Ingot made of good tin outside and dross inside
CASLING	Prematurely born. "Lil chap is five now but dawn't look too good do ah? Mind 'e was a casling."
CASTE	Verb; to plough furrows away from each other; usually the opening vors then the plowman cud plow both ways
CASUALTIES	Waste from early tin dressing operations; now called slimes.
CAT LAP	Derisive rterm for an insipid drink
CAT'S CARRAIGE	Two people clasp hands 7 Carrying a child whiles singing "Carry the baby to London for a rotten onion." Someone (KH) recalls playing this a t school.
CATCHED	Catched has a number of uses; 1. To be found in a compromising situation. 2. When a fire is lit it is catched. 3.If food is over-cooked and burnt a bit it is catched.
CATCH UP	May be used in relation to food, i.e. "Gone in an catch up a bit o' an ning 'far dinner." In this conrtext; compile, put together ingredients.
CATCH. CATCH-UP	Doorlatch
CATCHERS	The ball game 'Rounders' Popular un Junior Schools
CATCHING/CATCHEY	Unsettled, Changeable "The weather's bin catchey all day, I dun aw whether te put the washin out on the line er no."
CATCH-UP	To dry or to light-up (as a fire). Also to complete one's jobs or tasks. "Now, gone catch-up minute for go funeral."
CAT-IN-THE-PAN	Changed ideas. A traitor
CAT-IN-THE-PAN	Summersalt – head over heels
CATLED	Eased referring to the weather. "The rain never catled fer the day."
CATS EYES	Greater Stitchwort
1

CATS OR DOGS TAILS	The catkins of the willow. "I think I'll pick few o' they catkins, they'll look nice up
CITIS ON DOGS TIMES	Chapel fer Easter. God willikn nobody went knaw where I got them from!!"
CAUDLE. CAUDLING	To slop. To make a mess. A difficulty.
CAUDLER	Dirty or messy worker
CAUDLING WATER	Caudling water not fit for drinking. Washday water used for other mundane purposes like washing floor clothes, bed chambers etc
CAUDY	of sheep infested with liver flike
CAULD	Cold
CAULK	A small drop of liquor
CAULK	To waterproof the planks of a boat by driving tarred or pitched rope between the planks with a hammer and chisel.
CAUNCE. CAUNTS /CAWNSE	Stones (usually projecting) in a paved path, more so a stone flagged yard at the back of a peasant's house. An area of stone paving using 'bullies' from the beach
CAUNCH / CAUCH / CAUCHY	Mess, confusion, messy. Sloppy
CAUNTING / CAUNTED / CAUNTER	Athwart. Diagonal. Cross-handed blow. Leaning
CAUNTS	Stones (usually projecting in a paved or cobbled path.
CAUS	Cemented path or area. Similar to 'caunce' I imagine
CAUSE	Case. "it that's the cause (case) I must do it."
CAUSE	Short form of because. "Ma why 'ave I got wash behind my ears?" "Cause I said so."
CAUTCHERY	A nasty, messy mixture
CAVALAKER	Slovenly person
CAVINS	Useless grain from thresher. (Similar to Ishins)
CAVSOMEMORE	Can I have some more
CAWDLE	To be in rather a mess, busy doing nothing or not seeming to achieve what you intended
CAWDLE	A bit like fooch. "He's goyne caudle round now fer 'alf 'our til dinner time." There is also a term 'cawdling water' I think it is brackish water that has been used perhaps for washing then reused for a dirtier job like cleaning mud off best shoes before polishing,
CAWDLING WATER	and washing out chamber pots! Busy doing nothing much. A bit like daudle.
CAWDLING WATER	Water that had been used possibly for washing clothes and had become soiled so was reused for washing items tht disdn't demand purely clean water; perhaps wellie boots or chamber pots
CAWED	Sheep affected with the Cawnse ??
CAWEDID	Liver riddled with fluke worm.
CAWNSE / CAUNSE	A paved roadway. A causeway. (Perhaps coming from Causeway).
CAYER/CAZIER/ KAYER	Coarse sieve for winnowing corn
CAZIER / CAYER	A sieve for sifting grain. "I shud think this cazier 'ave been moth eaten by the rats, tis levvin eve'ry thing thruw, grain an' chaff."
CEAGUE	A cheat, deceiver, rogue
CEDGED/CLIDGED/ KEDGED	Stuck fast. Said of a bone that has knitted
CEMENT WASH	A mixture of cement and sand mixed to a thinish slurry. It was brushed over scantle slate roofs to help combat riffles. i.e. slates lifting in storm conditions
CENSURE	To estimate, think, reckon. Opinion. To be of opinion
CENTRY	Church or Glebe
CH'-TOWN	Church Town, the village adjoining the Parish Church
CHACK / CHACKING	Parch. To dry. Thirsty, also chattering. "I'm chackin' my thrawt is as dry as a wooden god."
CHACKPIE	Scolding similar to 'tongue pie'
CHACKS	The cheeks. "When I smack'd en across the chacks, ee didn' like that too much, so 'e backed away an' I never seed en nomore."
CHACKY-CHEESE	The seeds of the marrow
CHAD	Young bream
CHAD	Young bream
CHAFF	Straw chopped for horse feed.
CHAGPIE	Magpie
CHAINY	China. Mawther's goyne git the best chainy out day, Squire's comin round fer the rent."
CHALL	Cattle-house. "Tis time te put the kine (cattle) in the chall over night, tis getting' frosty."
CHALT	Cheat
CHAMBER (IN)	In bed. Bedroom. Upstairs (under bed utensil) (See Charlie above)
CHAMBER(IN)	In bed; Bedroom; Under-bed utensil.
CHAMPION LODE	The principal or leading lode
CHAMY	A toothless person. "what do 'e look like goyne roun' chamy all the time with 'is face screwed up like a cheeld's fert."

CHANEY-BAL	Clay works "If you look aver te St Auzzell way you can see all they Chaney Bals."
CHANGES	Underwear, the bits of a man's clothing that had to be changed regularly.
CHANST	Chance. "A chanst would be a fine thing!"
CHANST	Chance  Chance
CHANTICLUR	Fighting Cock
CHAP	Young farmworker living in. "I see the Pryors 'ave got a farm chap now, I bet they'll
CHAI	make ee git up early in the marnins dawn't you?"
CHARLIE	Chamber Pot. "Do ee see the time? Tis 10 o'clock and there idn a bed made or a Charlie
CHARLE	(pot) emptied yet."
CHARLIE	From the Stratton School log book of 1873
	6 th June 1873 'In the upper standards nearly all the boys are away pulling weed 'Charlie' for the farmers.'
	13th June 1873 'Charlie' pulling still continues although a few of the bigger boys have returned that were at work' (Probably Ragwort – tis poisoness to animals.) (I presume this refwers to pulling Ragwort, a notifiable weed.)
CHATE	Cheat
CHATE	Cheat. "'e's an ol' chate, see en slip that card under 'is plaate did ee?"
CHATTY	Not 'talkative' but 'dirty', or 'unkempt'
	The origin of the words is Mary Jane Burnett (nee Elliot), Wella's maternal grandmother who was born and brought up in Lostwithiel
	Received via William (Wella) Brown
	I guess similar to TATTY. Ed.
CHAUNT	To Scold/tell off
CHAUNT / CHAUNTY	To scold, to mutter
CHAW/CHEE-AH	A call to summon pigs to be fed or housed
CHAW/CHOW	Chew "See the jaws o'bm goyne, 'e's a'lays chowin' bacca."
CHE'L'-VEAN/CHILD VYGHAN	Little child, an endearment
CHEAT	A false shirt-front "I 'spect 'is shirt is grafted behind that there cheat dun you?" What we might call a dickie today.
CHEEL FUGGAN	Cake of saffron and currants, given to the first child met when returning from a Christening
CHEEL(D)-VEAN	Little child. Term of endearment "Owe are 'e my cheel(d) vean?" i.e. "How are you my old friend?" or "'Ow are me dear?" Vean, (Cornish) = little CHEELD / CHIEL	Child, usually a girl. "What did she 'ave en yo', a boy or a cheeld?"
CHEELDIN	Woman in labour
CHEEN (Y)	Sprout, potatoes or seeds, to cheen or cheeny, put out to cheeny or sprout. They could
CHEED IN IC	then be planted for a new crop or consumed in that state rather like beab sprouts.
CHEENING	The sprouting of grain etc
CHEENS	The loins or small of the back. The quarters of a house. "I got som pain in my cheens, I
CHEDIG	'ardly naw w'at te do."
CHEENS	Sprouts on potatoes
CHEENY/CHEENY	To remoive sprouting shoots from potatoes
CHEER	Chair "Draw up the cheer boy, a bit nearer the fire."
CHEESE APPLES	Pounded apples ready for pressing
CHEESE-AT	Stop it. "Now cheese-at 'fore I give ee a good 'iden."
CHECWIDDEN DAY	Thin, tiny, miserable-looking
CHEGWIDDEN DAY	White Thursday, one clear day before Christmas, when black tin was turned into white tin. Said to be the day on which smelted tin was fist sold in West Cornwall.
CHELDER / CHELDEM	Children. "Tis the chelders' tea treat 'marra'"
CHELDER / CHELDEM CHEMOZZLE	Confusion, even a fracas or general mellaise
CHERKS	Cinders, ashes
CHERRY (TO)	To skim flat stones across water
CHERRY (10) CHERRYING	To swim under water
CHERS	Chores / odd jobs "I'm goyne ploughing' match this afternoon if I cen catch up me chers
CHERO	this morin'."
CHERIO	Good bye for now
CHEST WAGON	Wagon fitted with raised sides and usually limited lock.
CHEST WAGON CHET(S)	New born kitten(s)
CHEYY	Great noise or battle
CHEVI CHEWIDDEN DAY	Jeu-whydn, White Thursday, the Thurdsay that is one clear week before Christmas day, being the day that black tin was first turned into white tin or metal
CHEWSDAY	Tuesday
CHEWSDAT  CHIBBLE / CHIBBLETS	Kind of small onion (spring onion)
CHIBBLES  CHIBBLES	Green tops from Spring onions. May in some districts refer to all of a Spring Onion
CHICH	To fasten. "Chich the door shut please."
CITICII	10 fasten. Chief the door shut please.

CHICK	To crouch down. "Chicky down"
CHICK DOWN	To crouch as a hdn setting
CHICKCHAFER/ CHICKER	The Wheatear
CHICKELL / CHICKCHACKER / CHICKER	The wheat-ear
CHIDS	Spouts on potatoes
CHIFF-CHAFF	The Chaffinch
CHIFFER / CHIFFERING	To drive a bargain. To haggle. "'e had a good chiffer there, 'e got that pony fer ten quid, lucky buer."
CHILDER	Children Children
CHILL (STONEN)	An earthenware lamp for burning fish oil (train oil) See also Iron Chill) The vessel would hold one or two cups of oil.
CHILLBLADDER	Chilblain
CHILLTH	Chilly air
CHIM(B)LY	Chimney
CHIMBLEY-CLATH	Chimney Cloth. A valance hung from a chimney-shelf
CHIMMING	One of he operations in cleaning tin in a' kieve' or tub before it is sold to the smelter
CHINA STONE	The production of the granite rock which furnishes the kaolin; but in a less advanced state of decomposition
CHING	Chin
CHIP	The foot of a plough
CHIPPER	The Crossbill
CHIPPING / CHAPPING	Talking in an affected, refrained way.
CHIST	Chest. "Ever since I aver stretched I've 'ad sum pain in the chist."
CHIRKS	Burnt and partly burnt coals from a fire, after it has gone out. Often used to relight a fire next morning.
CHITLINS	Stones from castrated lambs/pigs, lovely fried.
CHITTERFACE	Thin face
CHITTERLINGS/	Small entrails (usually pigs)
CHITTLINS
CHIVVY	A row, or a fuss, an uproar
CHOCKS	Slits on fingers. (could this be like chaps?)
CHOCKS	Wedge shaped pieces, either metal or wood put under a wheel to stop it moving off downhill."
CHOD	A stew – also a stodge
CHOOG / CHOOGY	Little pigs – also calling pigs to their meal
CHOUST	A cheat or to cheat
CHOW	Chew, as in chewing tobacco
CHOW	Twist of Tabacco
CHOW	Local pronunciation for 'Chough'
CHOWIN BACCA	Tobacco for chewing rather than smoking it
CHOWTER	Female fish vendor
CHRESTMAS STOCK	The Christmas log for the fire, which in strictness should last through the holidays and a piece saved to light next year's stock. 'Part must be kept. Wherewith to teend,  The Christmas log next year.'
CHUCK	Throat. "Dry about the chuck" also To choke. (Someone might have a coughing fit and 0777.077	asked if they have a cold. The reply might be, "No, go a bit a chuckage yo, tha's all."
CHUCK	Something that's too dry to eat, possibly stale. "This cake is as dry as chuck." (Sometimes – dry-chuck)
CHUCK CHEELD	Allis Chad, fish full of bones, (a young Bream
CHUCKED / STARVED	Famished
CHUCKED-SHEEP	Nothing to say. Contempt
CHUCKIN	Very thirsty Have heard of 'chackin' for very thirsty – this relates to chacks = cheeks.  Ed
CHUCKIN	Vile smell In modern parlance 'chucking up'. Choaking because of the evil smell. Ed
CHUCKLE-HEAD	Stupid person
CHUCKY CHEESE	Fruit of the mallow plant
CHUFF	Sulking. "EE's chuffen now 'c ause I told en off."
CHUFF	Healthy-looking. Full-faced. "A'b'm seen ee fer ages but I must say yer lookin' chuff."
CHULL	Truly
CHUR	Chores, odd jobs
CHURCH-HAY	The churchyard. I see somebody 'ave cut the grass in the Church-Hay, lookin grand tis too."
CHURCHTOWN	Village around the church
	9

CHURER	Charwoman
CHURING / CHURER	Charring.Charwoman. "She got go out churin' to make end meet."
CHURKS/CHERKS	Clinkers. Cinders. "The raked out the firebox o' the traction engine, olut in the rawd,
CITETALS/ CITETALS	I've just bin out and picked aver the cherks. There's still a bit o' burnin in they tha's fer sure.
CHURL CHORES	A small job. Housework. I've caught up all me cheres so I'm goyne put up me best
CHERE CHOKES	apern an fit the taa."
CHURREY	Charring
CHYWOLLACK	Redwing
CIDER-POUNLD	Cider press
CIVES	Small Leeks
CIVIL WAR
	Wordy strife
CLABBY / CLIBBY	Wet and sticky. The weather's clabby day shure nuff, we'll 'ave thunder shouldn'
CL A CIV	wonder."
CLACK	The flap of old non-return valves allowing water to flow in one direction only. Used in
CL A CK HANDED	mikne lift pumps.
CLACK HANDED	Left handed – also 'cack-handed'
CLACKER	A woman's tongue. (Say no more!!) Tongue "The ol' clacker ov 'er was goyne nineteen
67 . 77 .	te the dozen."
CLAIN	Clean. "That there sink idn very clean me dear, put a bit o' Vim on yer cloth an' do en
ST LIVE STE	again.
CLAIN OFF	Proper; at once
CLAM	A tree-trunk or plank across a stream
CLAM	A footbridge. Cobbler's wooden spring vice. "I can see Mr. Rosemergy now with the clam 'tween 'is kn ees knocki' sprigs inta the soles of farmers' boots."
CLAM	Starfish
CLAM	A footbridge
CLAM	Fainting fit
CLAM / CLAMMED	Out of health ??
CLAMBER / CLEM	Climb "That bouy de luv clemberin aver they there rocks."
CLAMMED	Out of health. Often ill
CLAMMERED	Ailing, weak, sickly
CLAMS	Cobblers wooden spring vice
CLAP	Prattling, chattering
CLAP	"'ave ee seen Joe anywhere 'round?" "No, I haven't clapped eyes on en."
CLAP (P)	A clap or roll of thunder.
CLAPS	A clasp. "Clap the door 'fore go bed will ee?"
CLAT	Turf cut with Cornish shovel. Cut to shape not a tob.
CLATH	Cloth
CLATHETS/CLATHERS	Clothing
CLAVEL / CRAVEL	Beam over Cornish cooking range, usually granite
CLAVES	A wooden instrument on which the hooks of a long line are arranged.
CLAW	A cleft wooden instrument on which the hooks of a longline are arranged
CLAWDY	Fish entrails used as bait
CLAYS/CLAYERS	Small clay marbles that have been fired
CLEAN-OFF	Cleverly. Completely. "I flinked me'ands an' knocked the glasses clean off the CLEAN-OFF	sideboard."
CLEB	To cleave; adhere
CLEAN FORFOT
	Totally forgot  A taken name for a 'Day Mark' Church tower
CLEETA	A taboo name for a 'Day Mark' Church tower
CLEEVES	Cliff-tops. Huers used to stand on the cleeves waiting to sight showells of mackerel.
CLEMES	Fish and potatoes, fried togwether
CLEMMED/CLEMMIN	Thirsty; sticky like glass
CLEVER	Tolerably well. In good health. "'ow are ee boy?" "Aren't feelin too clever tell the
CL FILLER	truth."
CLEWED	Benumbed
CLEWYOW	A great fuss. "cutting a brave clewyow
CLIBBY	Sticky Also used in reference to damp/dank misty weather or atmoshphere. (see Clabby).
CLICK	fasten, "click the gate"
CLICK	Clique. Gus on, I don't have nawthen do with that crowd, they're nothing' more than a big click – wan fer all an' all fer one in a way o' spaaken."
CLICK / CLIP	A sharp blow. "I gib'm a click 'round the ear'ole."
CLICK-HANDED	Left-handed. Awkward. Clumsy (see cack-handed above) Dorn Kledk or glikin (Cornish)
	, , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , , ,

CLICKY	left hand.
CLIDERS	Goose grass of the Rubiaceae family
CLIDGE	To cling, to join together; stuck. They sweets 'ave bin in my pocket fer ages, now they're all clidged together."
CLIDGE JAW	Treacle Pudding
CLIDGY NICEY	Boiled sweet mixture. Often stuck together in a lump
CLIDGY/CLODGY	Sticky toffee. There are a number of Clodgey Lnanes & Road about. I understand this was the nearfest to the town centre that leppers were allowed.
CLIFF HAWK	Kestrel
CLIG/CHIGGED	Cling; to cling
CLIGGARD	A species of Lance fish
CLINCHED	Married
CLINK	Gaol or Lock-up. Perhaps from the distinctive noise a large bunch of heavy keys make
CLDIVED(C)	when jangled.
CLINKER(S) CLINTLERS	Slag, embers, residue from burning coal, coke anthracite, etc  Goose grass
CLIP	Short measure, speech or length. "I asked fer three yards, tha's a bit clip en a?"
CLIPPER	One who turnas the ground
CLISTY/CLODGY/	Soft; sticky
CLUSTY/CLITCHY	Soft, sticky
CLITCH	To latch
CLITS	The toes of a cloven footed animal. "Best gone out and clip the clits of the goats er they went be able te walk fitty."
CLITTER	A confused noise. To clutter up
CLIVVER	A cleaver. Give es that clivver aver there an' I'll whip 'is 'ead off."
CLIVVER	Clever
CLOAM / CLOME	EarthenWare, crockery, oven, table or other ware
CLOAMERS	See Clays
CLOB / COB	Clay mixed with straw for building use
CLOB STANKERS	Heavy boots
CLOCK	Crop or craw ?? Have heard of 'Clock' in the context of registering who or what something is and what they are about, as in 'I've marked his card,' but not crop or claw.  PP
CLOCK	The crop of a bird
CLOCK CLODGY/ CLODGEY	Boggy. Muddy (Clodgy Lane) Clammy or sticky. In Clodgey Lane I understand it also
CLODG 1/ CLODGE 1	to be as close as lepers were allowed to come to the town. Ed
CLODHOPPERS	Feet
CLOES	Clothes
CLOME-AUV'N	Earthen Ware Oven. Used principly for baking bread.
CLOMEN	Made of earthenware "He's an ning' like a cloamen cat."
CLONK	Verb; to gulp down quickly. To swallow. A chap asked an older fella what was wrong with 'is donkey. "I dawn't rightly knaw, all I can tell ee is he an't clonkey ner 'ee an't dungy."
CLOP / CLOPPER. CLOPPING	Limp. A lame person/animal. Limping. "Fred is cloppi'n along there like one with a wooden leg!." Kloppek Cornish - lame CLOSE	Reticent – reserved – introverted. Person who keeps oneself to oneself. "You went git nought out of ee, ee's too close fer that." We might say today; "He plays his cards c lose
CLOSE	to his chest."
CLOSE HOM	Clammy weather Shut home the door – Shut to.
CLOUCHING / SKULKING	Unreliable (person) Being moody equiv to sulking
CLOUT	An old cloth or rag – even clothing like work wear. "Never cast a clout 'til May is out."
1 02001	1 1 m ora orom or rag - oven oroming inco work wour. The vol cast a clout til iviay is out.
	Is a very well known saying.
CLOUT CLOUT NAIL	Is a very well known saying.  Verb; to swipe or thump. "I shou'dn't stand no buck from un yo, I shud cloat go to en."
CLOUT	Is a very well known saying.
CLOUT	Is a very well known saying.  Verb; to swipe or thump. "I shou'dn't stand no buck from un yo, I shud cloat go to en."  A short nail with a large head as used to secure felt to a roof. The larger head helps stop the felt from pulling through the nail.  Handle roughly; Churlish; brutal; rude; rough
CLOUT CLOUT NAIL	Is a very well known saying.  Verb; to swipe or thump. "I shou'dn't stand no buck from un yo, I shud cloat go to en."  A short nail with a large head as used to secure felt to a roof. The larger head helps stop the felt from pulling through the nail.  Handle roughly; Churlish; brutal; rude; rough  Cruel. Brutish. "He's one o' they clubbish types, I shudden 'ave nawthen do wi'' edn if
CLOUT NAIL  CLUBBISH  CLUBBISH	Is a very well known saying.  Verb; to swipe or thump. "I shou'dn't stand no buck from un yo, I shud cloat go to en."  A short nail with a large head as used to secure felt to a roof. The larger head helps stop the felt from pulling through the nail.  Handle roughly; Churlish; brutal; rude; rough  Cruel. Brutish. "He's one o' they clubbish types, I shudden 'ave nawthen do wi' edn if I was you."
CLOUT CLOUT NAIL CLUBBISH	Is a very well known saying.  Verb; to swipe or thump. "I shou'dn't stand no buck from un yo, I shud cloat go to en."  A short nail with a large head as used to secure felt to a roof. The larger head helps stop the felt from pulling through the nail.  Handle roughly; Churlish; brutal; rude; rough  Cruel. Brutish. "He's one o' they clubbish types, I shudden 'ave nawthen do wi' edn if I was you."  A sitting hen, abroody hen. "Still gvot they gleeny eggs 'ave ee mawther, cause
CLOUT CLOUT NAIL CLUBBISH CLUBBISH CLUCK / CLUCKY HIN	Is a very well known saying.  Verb; to swipe or thump. "I shou'dn't stand no buck from un yo, I shud cloat go to en."  A short nail with a large head as used to secure felt to a roof. The larger head helps stop the felt from pulling through the nail.  Handle roughly; Churlish; brutal; rude; rough  Cruel. Brutish. "He's one o' they clubbish types, I shudden 'ave nawthen do wi' edn if I was you."  A sitting hen, abroody hen. "Still gvot they gleeny eggs 'ave ee mawther, cause there's a bantam gone clucky out in the pen. She'll sit on they as tight's a gin."
CLOUT CLOUT NAIL  CLUBBISH CLUBBISH CLUCK / CLUCKY HIN  CLUCKY – DOWN	Is a very well known saying.  Verb; to swipe or thump. "I shou'dn't stand no buck from un yo, I shud cloat go to en."  A short nail with a large head as used to secure felt to a roof. The larger head helps stop the felt from pulling through the nail.  Handle roughly; Churlish; brutal; rude; rough  Cruel. Brutish. "He's one o' they clubbish types, I shudden 'ave nawthen do wi' edn if I was you."  A sitting hen, abroody hen. "Still gvot they gleeny eggs 'ave ee mawther, cause there's a bantam gone clucky out in the pen. She'll sit on they as tight's a gin."  Squat as in milking an animal without a stool – sirting on your heels! 1
CLOUT CLOUT NAIL  CLUBBISH CLUBBISH  CLUCK / CLUCKY HIN  CLUCKY – DOWN CLUE	Is a very well known saying.  Verb; to swipe or thump. "I shou'dn't stand no buck from un yo, I shud cloat go to en."  A short nail with a large head as used to secure felt to a roof. The larger head helps stop the felt from pulling through the nail.  Handle roughly; Churlish; brutal; rude; rough  Cruel. Brutish. "He's one o' they clubbish types, I shudden 'ave nawthen do wi' edn if I was you."  A sitting hen, abroody hen. "Still gvot they gleeny eggs 'ave ee mawther, cause there's a bantam gone clucky out in the pen. She'll sit on they as tight's a gin."  Squat as in milking an animal without a stool – sirting on your heels! 1  To grasp or to hold
CLOUT CLOUT NAIL  CLUBBISH CLUBBISH  CLUCK / CLUCKY HIN  CLUCKY – DOWN CLUE CLUET	Is a very well known saying.  Verb; to swipe or thump. "I shou'dn't stand no buck from un yo, I shud cloat go to en."  A short nail with a large head as used to secure felt to a roof. The larger head helps stop the felt from pulling through the nail.  Handle roughly; Churlish; brutal; rude; rough  Cruel. Brutish. "He's one o' they clubbish types, I shudden 'ave nawthen do wi' edn if I was you."  A sitting hen, abroody hen. "Still gvot they gleeny eggs 'ave ee mawther, cause there's a bantam gone clucky out in the pen. She'll sit on they as tight's a gin."  Squat as in milking an animal without a stool – sirting on your heels! 1  To grasp or to hold  Wattled grass
CLOUT CLOUT NAIL  CLUBBISH CLUBBISH  CLUCK / CLUCKY HIN  CLUCKY – DOWN CLUE	Is a very well known saying.  Verb; to swipe or thump. "I shou'dn't stand no buck from un yo, I shud cloat go to en."  A short nail with a large head as used to secure felt to a roof. The larger head helps stop the felt from pulling through the nail.  Handle roughly; Churlish; brutal; rude; rough  Cruel. Brutish. "He's one o' they clubbish types, I shudden 'ave nawthen do wi' edn if I was you."  A sitting hen, abroody hen. "Still gvot they gleeny eggs 'ave ee mawther, cause there's a bantam gone clucky out in the pen. She'll sit on they as tight's a gin."  Squat as in milking an animal without a stool – sirting on your heels! 1  To grasp or to hold

CLUME-BUZZA	F4
	Earthen pan A different pronounciation fir 'Cloam'.
CLUNK(ED)(T)	Swallow(ed) / gulp(ed) Klunk Cornish swallow
CLUNKER	The uvula. The wiggly little thing that hangs down in back of the mouth. Clunca
	(Borlase) Adam's apple? Throat
CLUSH	Hide or stoop. "The hen wouldn't clush her chicks."
CLUSHY-IN	To draw neater together. "Gosh tis bitter up on these moors, less clushy-in."
CLUSTY	Said of close bread. (I presume bread that has not risen, so is not springy, rather remained close and tight
CLUT	A gap in the hedge. To fall in a heap. "We want fer te mend these few cluts in the 'edge te keep the sheep in."
CLUTCHY	Sticky
CLUTTY DOWN	To crouch down. Squat (See Clucky Down)
CLYNE	Seabirds feast. Indicating a shoal.
CLYSTY / CLISTY	Moist as badly made bread or a bad potato.
СО	Come, or go
COADY	Dirty; nasty; sloppy
COADY / CAWED	Liver disease of sheep, liver-fluke.
COAGERS END	Cobblers wax used to strengthen and waterproof cobblers thread.
COAJER'S-WAX	Shoemakers wax or polish
COANSE	Stone paved yard scoaned – stones. (See Caunce)
COANSE / COOSE	Cold (of weather). "The weather's a bit cossey idna boy?"
COARSE TOWSER	Rough hessian apron, protection worn over workclothes
COATS	Petticoats. "Missis de put up they there flannel coats cum cold weather!"
COATS	An animal larger than a pony but lighter than a horse. A very useful animal on small
СОВ
COD	Cornish holdings.
COB	Forelock/fringe. A crest of hair or feathers, a young seagull. "Cum 'ere minute lem me
COD	cut yer cob, 'tis gittin in yer eyes."
COB	horse's mane, also boy's forelock, similar to a girl's fringe. "Tis time fer ee te 'ave yer
COD / CL OD	cob cut, tis gittin in yer eyes."
COB / CLOB	Above, clay and straw for walls to break into small pieces with a cobbing hammer
COB / COBBA	Gull. [C.S.W.] Also, jocularly, a simpleton, a lout
COBB	A lout
COBB'D	Beat or thumped. 'Ee ob'd 'ell out obm.'
COBBATY CUT / COBBLEDENUT	"Down nut, jee jaw, first blaw" A game with hazel nuts. ???
22777	Can anyone explain?
COBBE	A bungler
COBBER	A bruiser of tin ore, one who cobbs
COBBET	Blow
COBBING	Breaking ore into small pieces with a hammer and done by Bal Maidens.
COBBING HAMMER	Hammer used in breaking ore
COBBLE-DE-CUT-NUTS	Hazelnuts
COBMORE / COGMORE	Clubroot in cabbage.
COBOUTS / COBNUTS	Hazelnuts. Game played with nuts on string
COBSHAN / COPTION	Money or savings. (Caption, old legal term.)
COCK	To cock hay into a pile
COCK AN BAWBA / COCKEN BABA	Toy boat.
COCK ROBIN	Red campion (Lychnis dioica)
COCK'S EYE	Halo round the sun or moon. "We're goyn have frost boy, see that cock's eye round the moon ."
COCKABELLE/COCKLEBELL/CONK	Icicle
ERBELLE
COCKABELLS / CONCUBBELLS /	Icicles.
CONKERBELLS
COCKAGE/COCK-HEDGE	Green privet (or similar) hedge. 'I'd better sharpen the shears, I'm goyne out te cut the cockage.'
COCKATHODON	Manx shearwater.
COCKATHRODON	Manx Shearwater (also crow)
COCKBOAT	Attend the mackerel seine.
COCK-BUTTON	The burrs of the burdock
COCKCOMBS	The Montbretia plant
COCKDAYKA	?? Can anyone help please?
COCKDOLLAR	To discharge excrement, to let fly with heels as of a donkey.
COCKDOLLING
COCKED UP	Turned up out of its natural place. Like a cocked hat. Akimbo
COCKED UP	Turned up out of its natural place. Like a cocked hat. Akimbo

COCK-HAW a game played with hazel nuts.  COCK-HEDGE A privet hedge  COCKING- JACK Guillemot  COCKLE Schorl or Capel. Rock derived from Killas.(See Cockle above)  COCKLE BELLS (BUTTONS) Cockle buttons, cockle dock: the burdock plant. From cuckold buttons?  COCKLE UP TO To confront  COCKLE/CAPEL/CAPLE Schrol; Black tourmaline: a mineral that is a complex borosilicate a luminium containing iron and magnesium and calcium and lith sodium; it is usually black but occurs in transparent colored form	nd hydroxide of
COCKLE COCKLE Schorl or Capel. Rock derived from Killas.(See Cockle above) COCKLE BELLS (BUTTONS) COCKLE UP TO COCKLE/CAPEL/CAPLE Schrol; Black tourmaline: a mineral that is a complex borosilicate a luminium containing iron and magnesium and calcium and lith sodium; it is usually black but occurs in transparent colored form	nd hydroxide of
COCKLE Schorl or Capel. Rock derived from Killas. (See Cockle above)  COCKLE BELLS (BUTTONS)  COCKLE UP TO  COCKLE/CAPEL/CAPLE  Schrol; Black tourmaline: a mineral that is a complex borosilicate a luminium containing iron and magnesium and calcium and lith sodium; it is usually black but occurs in transparent colored form	nd hydroxide of
COCKLE BELLS (BUTTONS)  COCKLE UP TO  COCKLE/CAPEL/CAPLE  Schrol; Black tourmaline: a mineral that is a complex borosilicate a luminium containing iron and magnesium and calcium and lith sodium; it is usually black but occurs in transparent colored form	nd hydroxide of
COCKLE UP TO  COCKLE/CAPEL/CAPLE  Schrol; Black tourmaline: a mineral that is a complex borosilicate a luminium containing iron and magnesium and calcium and lith sodium; it is usually black but occurs in transparent colored form	nd hydroxide of COCKLE/CAPEL/CAPLE  Schrol; Black tourmaline: a mineral that is a complex borosilicate a luminium containing iron and magnesium and calcium and lith sodium; it is usually black but occurs in transparent colored form luminium containing iron and magnesium and calcium and lith sodium; it is usually black but occurs in transparent colored form sodium; it is usually black but occurs in transparent colored form	ium and s that are used as gemstones
COCKLEHEAD To turn over heels in bed; part of a rhyme. A Dick head.
COCKLY(-LEE) BREAD Early morning bread
COCKOO Harebell or bluebell. "The woods is full o' cuckoos, tis a mass o' blu' a	all over."
COCKS AND HENS Plantains.
COCOR "Quiver, scabbard"
COD Bag of a trawl net.
COD Humerous aggravation – tall story or tease "What yer tellin' is nathin n	nore then a load
o' ol' cod's wallop." (which of course is water!
CODDLE see CAUDLE. A mess
CODDLE / CODDLING / CHURS  A mess. Wet and dirty jobs. Coddling water was soapy brackish water
ALSO CAUDLE washday. It was used to wash dirty things in including chamber pots.	Then 'twas
thrawed away!	0 1 477
CODDLE/ CAWDDLE  Be busy doing nothing. A mess, a spatter; CODDLIN CHERS = wert & shud ov see en wealding that there distemper brush, he got in some caw
CODDLY Sinual ov see en wealding that there distemper brush, he got in some caw	ddie i teil ee.
CODJAR,/CODGER/ Originally a kind of Peldar; applied to a mean person as an expression of	of contampt
CADGER  CADGER	or contempt.
CODGE / CODGER/CADGER Untidy, Slovenly A slovenly worker, originally a kind of Pedlar –	to hodge "Look at that, 'tis a right codge of a job I de call it, nawthen don't fit fitty."	to bodge. Look
CODGY-WAX  Cobblers wax
CODLIN' WATER water unfit for drinking. (probably drawn from a stream & used for feed	ling animals &
washing down walls & floors.)	8
CODLING WATER Water in a pan or bowl for washing the hands (See coddling)
CODNOR Stew. "This is a nice bowl o' condor mawther, this'll make yer navel by	uzz!
CODSWALLOP Water or a load of old nonsense – derived strangely enough from the Co	odd bottle patented by Hiram Codd
COE / COW Small hut of clods or boards over a shaft to keep it dry.
COFFAN / COFFEN Open tin work.
COFFER Small water trough which receives the tin cleaned of its impurities.
COFFINE /COFFINS Hollows in the earth caused by subsidence due to underground working	S
COIN Corner stone – quoine
COIN STONE / COYN / COIGN Corner stone
COINAGE Tax on smelted tin
COINING Breaking a piece from a corner of a block for assay
COLD ROOZ 'Close the net's command given in pilchard fishing
COLD ROSTE A trumpery thing, i.e. an attractive article of little use or value.
COLE / COIL Squid, cuttlefish. COLE/COLEWORT Cabbage
COLEMOUSE Cabbage  Coaltit
COLL 'OME COALL 'OME)  COLL 'OME Verb; to remember. (See CALL 'OME)
COLLYBRAN(D) / COLLABRANZ Summer lightning. O.E. col brand. Also smut in wheat from supposed c	eause
COLLYBRAND Sheet lightning. Also black ears of corn	auso.
COLLYWOBBLES Stomach rumblings
COLP Short rope for carrying sheaves from rick to barn
COLP Cuff. Thump. "You'll git a colp 'round the ear'ole if you don't behave	e, Strike. O.Fr.
collop. Colloping: a thrashing.	3.11.
COLP / COLLOP Thump
COLPAS Cowlpress, Coupress, Colpice, Colpress: the fulcrum of a lever. (Fulcru	ım in older
English was "underset")
COLPERRA Lent Crocking. The throwing of crocks at doors on Shrove Tuesday. He	ere's pretty much the full story:- Bands of children would call at houses and chant songs	in return for a gift of flour, eggs, or milk. When enough had been gathered they would ret make their Shrove Tuesday pancakes from the proceedings. As with me to door collections there was a penalty should a gift not be forthcoming	. The miserly household would have a handful of heartily thrown broken chinaaimed at their door.

	One of the chanted verses goes like this:
	Lent crocks give me a pancake
	Or a fritter for my labour
	Or a dish of flour or a piece of bread;
	Or what you're pleased to render.
	I see by the latch
	There is something to catch,
	I see by the string
	There's a good Dame within.
	Trap, trapping, throw,
	Give me my mumps* and I will go!.
	*Check out mumps in a modern dictionary.
COLT	Indiscriminately used for either sex. ??
COMBE	Earth ridge made by plough. "You got a nice straight, even comb there boy, you aught git a prize."
COMBE	To rake. "combe the rish" "Git they rish rakes down from the rafters, we'd best go out an' combe the rish."
COMBE / COOM	Valley. "Tis nice an' sheltered down in the coom."
COME EER'	Call to horse to turn left. (Reminds me of the shepherds with their 'come bye'.
COME-BY-CHANCE	Accidental. An illegitimate child. (It seems that these things do happen)
COMED COMED	Came. He comed 'ere yest'day I told en then we 'ad no scrap, kick 'is ass out of here."
COME-OUT	Quarrel. Fracas
COME-UPPING	A flogging. "I'll give ee sum come-uppin' in a minute, if ee dawn't behave."
COMFORT	Conforming to, agree able to something, obliging
COMFORTABLE	A person deemed to not be in want although not considered to be rich. Some one comfortably well off. Lear 14
COMFORTER	A term used by a farmer when referring to a stick he used to persuade his cattle to keep moving along the road, rather than hold up traffic. This use of a Comforter also has a direct link to William in the Bayeux Tapestry.
COMICAL	Temper
COMICAL	Moon struck or Comet struck. "Never make a mock of a maygum; you may be struck comical yourself one day"
COMIN' TO COME	Starting to work out. Getting there when turnig cream to butter.
COMISH PIES	Squab pie. Nattlin pie. Fishy pie. Muggety pie. Star-gazey pie. Likkey pie, Conger pie.
	Tetty pie. Parsley pie. Giblet pie. Herby pie. Tiddago pie. Lamby-pie. Bottom pie. Piggy pie. Sour sab pie
COMMIS-ZON	Come on "Commis-zon err we'll miss the bus." ('Come on now.') said in earnest.
COMMONACK	Pigeon of mixed breeds
COMPARTNER	A companion. A consort. "I see shee aver the road 'ave got a compartner now; seems te
COMPARTNER
COMPOSANITS	be all the go these days. Dawn't she like 'er awn compney er w'at?"
COMPOSANTS	Jack Harry's Lights, St. Elmo's fire. (This is a weather phenomenon seen in thunder&
COMPREHEND	lightening storms – luminous plasma.) Meteor, caster pullux; ominous to sailers
COMPREHEND	Be equal to a task
COMRPESSING	Fleeting, sliding away
CON	Intention. "More by hap than con."
CONDIDDLE	To get anything by stealth.
CONDUCK	Conduct
CONDUDDLE(S)	Conceit(s)
CONFAB / CONFLAB	Having a conversation. "They're 'aven a good old conflab over there, spose they're
CONFABULATION	taalken 'bout the football."
CONFINED	Child-birth (confinement) 'Ess she's gone into confinement this morning.'
CONFLOPTION
	Great Flurry Minor disaster "The wind blawed the show tent down an' all the exhibits
CONFLOTTION	Great Flurry, Minor disaster. "The wind blawed the show tent down an' all the exhibits in en. Twas sum conflortion w'en we got un there" in en. Twas sum confloption w'en we got up there."
CONGER DOUCE/DOUST	in en. Twas sum confloption w'en we got up there."  Dried conger, powdered to make fish soup in en. Twas sum confloption w'en we got up there."  Dried conger, powdered to make fish soup  An icicle. "We 'ad some storm last night, wind rain an' 'ail, see they conkerbells
CONGER DOUCE/DOUST CONKERBELL	in en. Twas sum confloption w'en we got up there."  Dried conger, powdered to make fish soup  An icicle. "We 'ad some storm last night, wind rain an' 'ail, see they conkerbells hangen off the tin roof, that'll tell ee w'at weather we 'ad."
CONGER DOUCE/DOUST	in en. Twas sum confloption w'en we got up there."  Dried conger, powdered to make fish soup  An icicle. "We 'ad some storm last night, wind rain an' 'ail, see they conkerbells hangen off the tin roof, that'll tell ee w'at weather we 'ad."  A notion, conceit. "He's some consaited, never knaw 'ow te take en I don't." Also a
CONGER DOUCE/DOUST CONKERBELL CONSAIT	in en. Twas sum confloption w'en we got up there."  Dried conger, powdered to make fish soup  An icicle. "We 'ad some storm last night, wind rain an' 'ail, see they conkerbells hangen off the tin roof, that'll tell ee w'at weather we 'ad."  A notion, conceit. "He's some consaited, never knaw 'ow te take en I don't." Also a fancy
CONGER DOUCE/DOUST CONKERBELL CONSAIT CONSARN	in en. Twas sum confloption w'en we got up there."  Dried conger, powdered to make fish soup  An icicle. "We 'ad some storm last night, wind rain an' 'ail, see they conkerbells hangen off the tin roof, that'll tell ee w'at weather we 'ad."  A notion, conceit. "He's some consaited, never knaw 'ow te take en I don't." Also a fancy  Concern. 'Tis nun o' your consarn is it, w'at I de do in me awn plaace is my business?'
CONGER DOUCE/DOUST CONKERBELL CONSAIT	in en. Twas sum confloption w'en we got up there."  Dried conger, powdered to make fish soup  An icicle. "We 'ad some storm last night, wind rain an' 'ail, see they conkerbells hangen off the tin roof, that'll tell ee w'at weather we 'ad."  A notion, conceit. "He's some consaited, never knaw 'ow te take en I don't." Also a fancy  Concern. 'Tis nun o' your consarn is it, w'at I de do in me awn plaace is my business?'  Concern. 'I'm sum consart about 'en, 'ee idn the man 'ee was.'
CONGER DOUCE/DOUST CONKERBELL CONSAIT CONSARN	in en. Twas sum confloption w'en we got up there."  Dried conger, powdered to make fish soup  An icicle. "We 'ad some storm last night, wind rain an' 'ail, see they conkerbells hangen off the tin roof, that'll tell ee w'at weather we 'ad."  A notion, conceit. "He's some consaited, never knaw 'ow te take en I don't." Also a fancy  Concern. 'Tis nun o' your consarn is it, w'at I de do in me awn plaace is my business?'
CONGER DOUCE/DOUST CONKERBELL CONSAIT CONSARN CONSART	in en. Twas sum confloption w'en we got up there."  Dried conger, powdered to make fish soup  An icicle. "We 'ad some storm last night, wind rain an' 'ail, see they conkerbells hangen off the tin roof, that'll tell ee w'at weather we 'ad."  A notion, conceit. "He's some consaited, never knaw 'ow te take en I don't." Also a fancy  Concern. 'Tis nun o' your consarn is it, w'at I de do in me awn plaace is my business?'  Concern. 'I'm sum consart about 'en, 'ee idn the man 'ee was.'
CONGER DOUCE/DOUST CONKERBELL  CONSAIT  CONSARN CONSART CONTINNY	in en. Twas sum confloption w'en we got up there."  Dried conger, powdered to make fish soup  An icicle. "We 'ad some storm last night, wind rain an' 'ail, see they conkerbells hangen off the tin roof, that'll tell ee w'at weather we 'ad."  A notion, conceit. "He's some consaited, never knaw 'ow te take en I don't." Also a fancy  Concern. 'Tis nun o' your consarn is it, w'at I de do in me awn plaace is my business?'  Concern. 'I'm sum consart about 'en, 'ee idn the man 'ee was.'  Continue. "I'm goyne continny up the row 'ere."

COOCH HANDED	Left handed.
COOCHY	Lefthanded person. Cp. Fr. gauche. See "click handed"
COOKS / KOOKS	Quoits
COOL / COOLER	A Well bucket. A salting tub. An oval bussa
COOL/ COOLER	A well bucket. A saiting tub. All oval bussa
COOL-PERRA	A 4 1/4 in I 1 in I 1 in I Character Translation in I 1 for C1
COOL-PERRA	A tradition in Landewednack; on Shrove Tuesday children begged for Cool-perra. Whatever its meaning, they expected ½ d or food. The formula repeated was, "Hen
COOMBE	cock, he cock, give me a tubban (morsel) or else cool-perra shall come to your door.  Hollow between hills open at one end only
COOMBE COOR, CORE	Shift or spell of paid work. "out of coor" working on the side fer cash in hand.
COORAM	Decorum; Order; "Le's 'ave a bit o' coorum 'ere please."
COORAM	Decorum, Order, Le's ave a bit o coorum ere please.
COORAM / CORUM	Order. Decorum, "keep coram!" i.e. Keep order
COOSE	Water course
COOSE	Cold "Coose edna?"
COOSE. COOSING	Chase / Hunt / Pursue, as in hare coursing wsith dogs. Also said of someone who is always in other peoples' houses. A chase. "I bin coosen the pigs 'round all morning tryen git 'em out of they broccoli."
COOSIGEN	Blood caused by nip
COOSIN'/CURZIN	Coursey go – gossiping
COOSTOM	A drop of coostom (custom) is a drop of brandy after goose, plum pudding etc.
COOSY	Short, rough, coarse
COOSY	To talk, as in gossiping; to chat
COOT	Metal plate on sole of shoe
COOT	"Bald as a coot" "as poor as a coot"
COOT	Thrash or a thrashing
COOTING	Same as 'kiting' "He slipped on the ice an' went cooting."
COOYER	Overhanging mass of rock
COOZE / COOZING	ldle gossip. Wasting time chatting. Going from houswe to house idley gossiping and rumour mongering.
COOZY	To loiter. I feel there is a direct link between Coozy & Coosy, in that there were certain people in almost every village who would loiter near shops, bus stops, houses etc just to gossip. It was quite an honed skill!!
COP	a tuft of feathers. Coppie: a fowl with a cop. Cp. Cob
COPE	Verb; to jump over
COPE-COPE COOPE & CUP	Used to call cattle from the field at milking time
COPINS	Rubbish [thistleheads etc] from thresher.
COPPER	A large 'iron' vessel, with heavy lid, usually bricked around for support and to keep the
CORPUR EDICH	'het' in and with a fire box underneath used to boil water for 'washday'.
COPPER-FINCH	The chaffinch
COPS	Iron shackles used in gates. A jeweler in Penzance was asked, "did they sell any copses
COP CDI	for the arms?" i.e. bracelets.
COR CRI	Criss-cross.
COR CRI	Corpus Christi
CORB / CORVE	Floating crab box.
CORD	See Gard, Guard
CORDWINDER	Cobbler. Cordwainer
CORE	Spell of work. A shift of work. "On night core". One reference says, 'eight hours' I
CORE / CHORE	doubt whether a core was an exact length of time.
CORCEL	A spell of work
CORGEL	An accordion or concertina
CORISY	Hatred, ill feeling, ill will. "'is mawther never left en a penny in 'er will, now e's as full of corisy as a jug is full o' milk.
CODICY CODDOCY	Hotrad III faaling III will An old grudge on amigurance
CORISY-CORROSY	Hatred. III-feeling. III;-will. An old grudge or grievance.
CORISY-CORROSY CORKER	Usually (a fair corker': exceedingly and unexpectantly good. (could be an exceptional
CORKER	Usually (a fair corker': exceedingly and unexpectantly good. (could be an exceptional team player or an item.)
CORKER  CORN-CRAKE	Usually (a fair corker': exceedingly and unexpectantly good. (could be an exceptional team player or an item.)  The Landrail
CORKER  CORN-CRAKE  CORN-CROW	Usually (a fair corker': exceedingly and unexpectantly good. (could be an exceptional team player or an item.)  The Landrail  Wood pigeon
CORKER  CORN-CRAKE  CORN-CROW  CORNE OUT	Usually (a fair corker': exceedingly and unexpectantly good. (could be an exceptional team player or an item.)  The Landrail  Wood pigeon  Fracas; a good turn out
CORKER  CORN-CRAKE CORN-CROW CORNE OUT CORNISH	Usually (a fair corker': exceedingly and unexpectantly good. (could be an exceptional team player or an item.)  The Landrail  Wood pigeon  Fracas; a good turn out  To Cornish together. Sharing a cup
CORKER  CORN-CRAKE CORN-CROW CORNE OUT CORNISH CORNISH	Usually (a fair corker': exceedingly and unexpectantly good. (could be an exceptional team player or an item.)  The Landrail  Wood pigeon  Fracas; a good turn out  To Cornish together. Sharing a cup  Use one glass for several people; also tobacco pipe.
CORKER  CORN-CRAKE CORN-CROW CORNE OUT CORNISH CORNISH CORNISH DIAMONDS	Usually (a fair corker': exceedingly and unexpectantly good. (could be an exceptional team player or an item.)  The Landrail  Wood pigeon  Fracas; a good turn out  To Cornish together. Sharing a cup  Use one glass for several people; also tobacco pipe.  Quartz crystal
CORKER  CORN-CRAKE CORN-CROW CORNE OUT CORNISH CORNISH	Usually (a fair corker': exceedingly and unexpectantly good. (could be an exceptional team player or an item.)  The Landrail  Wood pigeon  Fracas; a good turn out  To Cornish together. Sharing a cup  Use one glass for several people; also tobacco pipe.  Quartz crystal  Give someone something either you don't want, don't like, or is otherwise useless. E.g.
CORKER  CORN-CRAKE CORN-CROW CORNE OUT CORNISH CORNISH CORNISH DIAMONDS	Usually (a fair corker': exceedingly and unexpectantly good. (could be an exceptional team player or an item.)  The Landrail  Wood pigeon  Fracas; a good turn out  To Cornish together. Sharing a cup  Use one glass for several people; also tobacco pipe.  Quartz crystal

CORNISH HILG CORNISH ORGAN Bellows CORNISH PIES See Jagup p. 143 CORNISH PIES See Jagup p. 143 CORNISH PIES See Jagup p. 144 Internationated by the donor. Fig. a consin of mine asked if I wanted a decent shirt. He said, "I've 'ad nathin' but bad back ever since I baught en; you can 'ab'm if you mind to." CORNISHILEN Lapwing CORNISH PIES CORNISHILEN Lapwing CORNISH PIES CORNISHILEN Lapwing CORNISH PIES CORNISHILEN Lapwing CORNISH Pert, impudent. "As corrat as Crocker's mare". CORRESEY CORIZZY Feat, old grudge, harred, Anglo-French: corrocier. CORRIBEY CORREST GORTHLY CORTILLY CORTILLY CORTILLY Feat, was water. Fioagra or mistry (Accent on the second syllabal) CORNICH CORNICH Spelder crab. CORNICH Spelder crab. Of a tool, sharpened or hammered into shape. Vb. Cossen. Also to repair a worn out tool by beating metal onto it where worn. Presumably with the help of a forget' COSTAN A flast raw basket time which bables were put to sleep. I Joint know if this was their prime purpose. Please help Fine purpose. Please help COSTAN COSTEN  COSTAN/COSTEN A flast raw basket time which bables were put to sleep. I Joint know if this was their prime purpose. Please help COSTAN/COSTEN  COSTAN/COSTEN  COSTAN/COSTEN  A flast raw basket time which bables were put to sleep. I Joint know if this was their prime purpose. Please help Fine purpose. Please help COSTAN/COSTEN  COSTAN/COSTEN  COSTAN/COSTEN  COSTAN/COSTEN  A flast raw flow and the stream (or cane). Bables were often placed in them to sleep. COSTAN/COSTEN Costan PIII' GETIER PIT  COSTAN COSTEN Costan PIII' GETIER COSTAN COSTEN Costan C	CORNISH HAIR	Rough wool of ancient sheep
CORNISH (TES)  See Jago p. 143  CORNISHMAN'S GIFT  Item unwanted by the donor. Fig. a cousin of mine asked if It wanted a decent shirt. He staid, "I've "an anthin" but bed hold be kever since I baught en; you can "ab" in if you mind to."  CORNIWILLEN  The lapwing  CORRONN Grawing  CORRONN Grawing  CORRONN Grawing  CORRONN Grawing  CORRON Grawing  C
CORNISH PIES  See Jago, p. 143  Ilmu manutated by the chore. E.g. a cousin of mine asked if I wanted a decent shirt. He said, "I've 'and nathin' but bad luck ever since I baught en; you can 'ab'm if you mind to."  Lapwing.  CORNIWILLEN  The lapwing.  CORDIN'  CORRITSY / CORIZYY  Feed, old gradge, hasted. Anglos-French corrosier.  CORRITSY / CORIZYY  Feed, old gradge, hasted. Anglos-French corrosier.  CORRITLLY  CORTILLY  CORTILLY  CORTILLY  CORTILLY  CORVILLY  C
Item unwanted by the donor. E.g. a cousin of mine asked if I wanted a decent shirt. He said, "Tve 'al analim' but bad luck ever since I baught en; you can 'ab'm if you mind to."
Said, T've 'ad nathin' but bad luck ever since I baught en; you can 'ab'm if you mind to."  Lapwing  CORNIWILLEN  The lapwing  CORODIN'  GRANT  Pert, impudent. 'As corrat as Crocker's mare".  CORREESY / CORIZY  Feed, old grudge, lastered. Anglo-French: corrocier.  CORRELLY  CORTILLY  CORTILLY  CORTILLY  CORTILLY  Fouga, misty weater, (stress on second syllable).  CORVE  Flooting crab box  CORVECH  Spider crab.  COSSENED  Of a tool, sharpened or hummered into shape. 'Vb. Cossen. Also to repair a worn out tool by beating metal onto it where worn. Presumably with the help of a forge!  A flat strave basket into which babies were put to sleep. I don't know if this was their prime purpose. Please help.  COSTAN  A flat strave basket into which babies were put to sleep. I don't know if this was their prime purpose. Please help.  COSTAN / COSTEAN PIT/  COTIAN Old undisturbed stratum. (Plarlase)  COSTINE CONTINE  COTITIES   That for topes running over the rick and weighted at the ends with stones, See BROACH.  COTT   Cottage, house  COTTINE   Pot-book or tranment to hang a pot over a fire; dim. Of cotter. "Mind w'en you hang that pot over the fire, that there cotter elvel the rid 'ot."  COTTINE   Fix the extreme ends of the net to the babet.  COTTINE   Fix the extreme ends of the net to the babet.  COTTONON   Grasp the idea. Comprehen. ""en odded right nuff so I think 'c cottoned on te what I was tellen."  COUNTER   Should be described by the content of the part over the fire, that there cotter elvel him of your mornal job for gainful purposes, you was value for the way to Porthowane etc.  COUNTER   Aperiod of work, a shift. If you were paid a wage, you were said to be working 'in courier by the way to Porthowane etc.  COUNTRY ANNER   Country or the way to Porthowane etc.  COUNTRY   Aperiod of work, a shift. If you were paid a wage, you were said to be working in courier by preson was promedy, medicinal mixt
CORNIWILLEN The lapwing CORODIN' GORNWILLEN The lapwing CORODIN' GORNAND CORRATT Pert, impudent. "As corrat as Crocker's mare".  CORRESSY / CORIZZY Fead, old gradge, hatred. Anglo-French: corrociet.  CORSIII CORSIII Gome resembling hopsoch.  CORTILLY CORVIT Floating crab hav. CORVIT Floating crab hav. CORVIT CORVIT Floating crab hav. CORVIT CORVIT CORVIT Floating crab hav. CORVICH OSSENED Of a tool, sharpened or hammered into shape. Vb. Cossen. Also to repair a worn out tool by beating mentol motor in where worn. Presembly with the help of a forge!  COSTAN A flat straw basket into which babies were put to skep. I don't know if this was their prime purpose. Please help rime purpose. Please help rime purpose. Please help rime purpose. Please help GOSTAN A flat basket, usually made of straw (or cane). Babies were often placed in them to Accompany to the straw of the control of the straw of the place of the straw of the control of the straw of the place of the straw of the straw of the place of the straw of CORDIN' CORRESY CORIZY Pert, impudent. "As cornal as Crocker's mare". CORRESY CORIZY CORRESY CORIZY GORRESY CORIZY Found, old gradge, harted. Anglo-Fronchs corocier. CORREST Grade Cornel of the second syllable). CORREST Grade Cornel of the second syllable). CORREST Grade Cornel of the second syllable). CORTILLY CORTICLY Floating crab box CORYE CORY CORY CORY CORY CORY CORY CORY CORY	CORNIWHILEN
CORRITY Pent, impudent. "As corrat as Crocker's mare".  CORRETSBY / CORITZY Feat, old gradge, hatred. Anglo-French: corrocier.  CORSHIP Game resembling hospectch.  CORSHILY CORTILLY CORTILLY CORTILLY CORTILLY CORTILLY CORTILLY CORNEC Floating crab box CORTILLY CORNEC Floating crab box CORTILLY CORNEC Floating crab box CORNICL Spider varb. CORSHOD  Of a tool, sharpened or hammered into shape. Vb. Cossen. Also to repair a worn out tool by beating metal onto it where worn. Pressumably with he help of a farge to by beating metal onto it where worn. Pressumably with he help of a farge to by beating metal onto it where worn. Pressumably with he help of a farge to by beating metal onto it where worn. Pressumably with he help of a farge to by beating metal onto it where worn. Pressumably with he help of a farge to show the prime purpuse. Please help  COSTAN  A flat straw basket into which babies were put to sleep. I don't know if this was their prime purpuse. Please help  COSTAN A flat basket, usually made of straw (or cane). Babies were often placed in them to sleep.  COSTAN A flat basket usually made of straw (or cane). Babies were often placed in them to sleep.  COSTAN GOSTEAN PIT?  COSTEANING  COSTIAN COSTEAN PIT?  COSTAN A mining partnership in transferable shares  COSTAN COSTAN PIT?  COS
CORRESY / CORIZY Foud. old grudge, hatter A. nglo-French: corroier.  CORSTIP CORTILLY CORTICLY CORTICL
CORRELESY / CORIZZY  Found, old grudge, hatred. Anafol-French: corrocier. CORSILIP  Game resembling hopsecuch. CORSILLY  CORTILLY  CORTILLY  Fogsy, misty weather. Fogsy or misty / Accent on the second syllabal)  CORTILLY  CORVIE  Thotating enab box.  CORNICH  Spider crab.  CORSENED  Of a tool, sharpened or hammered into shape. Vb. Cossen. Also to repair a worn out tool by beating metal onto it where worn. Presumably with the help of a forge!  A flat straw basket tust which belose were put to steep. I don't know if this was their prime purpose. Please help  COSTAN / COSTEN  A flat basket, usually made of straw (or cane). Babies were often placed in them to sleep.  COST-BOOK COMPANY  A mining partnership in transferable shares  COSTEAN / COSTEAN PITI/  COSTEAN / COSTEAN PITI/  COSTEAN / COSTEAN PITI/  COSTEAN / COSTEAN PITI/  COTHAN  COSTEAN / COSTEAN PITI/  COTHAN  Old undisturbed stratum. (Bordase)  COSTEAN DIA COSTEAN PITI/  COTHAN  Old undisturbed stratum. (Bordase)  COTTER EL  Pot-book or transmel to hang a pot over a fire; dim. Of cotter. "Mind w'en you hang that pot over the fire, that there control will be rid yot."  COTTER EL  Pot-book or transmel to hang a pot over a fire; dim. Of cotter. "Mind w'en you hang that pot over the fire, that there control will be rid yot."  COTTION-ON  Grasp the idea. Comprehend. "e nodded right nuff so I think 'e cottoned on te what I was tellen."  COUNTER  To sing, especially in a place of worship  COUNTRY  The ground itself near an excavation. We have the well known area of North Country on the way to Porthwaynes.  COUNTRY JANNER  COUNTRY ANNER  COUNTRY INDIA COUNTRY  The ground itself near an excavation. We have the well known area of North Country on the way to Porthwaynes.  COUNTRY JANNER  COUNTRY JANNER  COUNTRY ON Country person  COUNTRY ON Country person  COUNTRY ON Country person  COUNTRY A Person Country person  COUNTRY A Person Country person  COUNTRY ON Country Person  COUNTRY ON Country Person  COUNTRY A Person Country Person  COUNTRY SULLA COUNTRY Country Pers
CORSIIP CORTILLY CORTILLY CORTILLY CORTILLY CORTILLY CORTILLY CORTILLY CORTILLY CORTILLY CORNEC Floating crab box Floating crab box CORVE CORWICH CORNEC COR
CORTILLY CORNICH CORRICH CORDICH CORNICH COSTEN CORNICH COSTEN COSTEN A late straw basket native worn. Presumably with the help of a forget COSTAN A late straw basket native which halves were put to sleep. I don't know if this was their prime purpose. Please help COSTAN / COSTEN A late basket, usually made of straw (or cane). Babies were often placed in them to sleep. COSTAN / COSTEN A late basket, usually made of straw (or cane). Babies were often placed in them to sleep. COST-BOOK COMPANY A mining partnership in transferable shares COSTEAN / COSTEAN PIT/ COTHAN Old undisturbed stratum. (Borlase) COSTEN PIT Exploritory hole when looking for a lode, a mining term Old undisturbed stratum. (Borlase) COTTINA Old undisturbed stratum. (Borlase) COTTINA Old undisturbed stratum. (Borlase) COTTER EL Pol-book or tranmel to hang a pot over a fire; dim. Of cotter. "Mind w'en you hang that pot over the fire, that there cotter el will be rid 'tot." COTTION-ON Grass the idea. Comprehend. "e nodded right nuff so I think 'e cottoned on te what I was tellen." COUNTER COUNTER To sing, especially in a place of worship COUNTER To sing, especially in a place of worship The ground itself near an excavation. We have the well known area of North Country on the way to Porthowant etc. COUNTRY A period of work, a shift. If you were paid a wage, you were said to be working 'in cour'e but if you were working outside of your normal job for gainful purposes, you was 'working out of core'.  COURANT (COURANTIN' Copical Spatial and the court of an outside property. COURSEY COURSEY COURSEY COURSEY COURSEY COURSEY COURSEY COWERSLUT Colving spaties of an outside spatial be working the variation black out. Corresponded to the court of an outside spatial purposes, you was 'working out of core'. Course and your defined a coursil Jack a CORVE   Floating crab box   CORNET   Floating crab box   CORNET   Floating crab box   CORNET   Floating crab box   CORNET   Spider crab.
CORWICH  CORRICH  Spider crab.  Of a tool, sharpened or hammered into shape. Vb. Cossen. Also to repair a worn out tool by beating metal onto it where worn. Presumably with the help of a forge!  COSTAN  A flat straw basket into which babies were put to sleep. I don't know if this was their prime purpose. Please help  COSTAN / COSTEN  A flat basket, usually made of straw (or cane). Babies were often placed in them to sleep.  A mining partnership in transferable shares  COSTEAN / COSTEAN PIT/  Getting surface tin, wood tin. To examine back of a lode by digging pits.  COSTEAN / COSTEAN PIT/  COSTEAN PIT  COSTEAN Old undisturbed stratum. (Borlase)  Thack ropes running over the rick and weighted at the ends with stones. See BROACH.  COTT  COTTAN  Old undisturbed stratum. (Borlase)  Thack ropes running over the rick and weighted at the ends with stones. See BROACH.  COTT  COTTAGE. house  COTTEREL  Pot-hook or tranmel to hang a pot over a fire; dim. Of cotter. "Mind w'en you hang that pot over the fire, that there cotter el will be rid' ot."  COTTLEDALE  Fix the extreme ends of the net to the batch.  COTTONON  Grasp the idea. Comprehend. "'en nodded right nuff's ol think' e cottoned on te what I was tellen."  COUGING  Shuffling. Walking with heavy tread. "Must of bin a long day. Fred is gone uplong couging. I could "ear" is hoots scrooding "long the gravel from in 'ere."  COUNTER  To sing, especially in a place of worship  COUNTRY  The ground itself near an excavation. We have the well known area of North Country on the way to Porthiowan etc.  GOUNTRY JANNER  COUNTRY JANNER  COUNTRY STREACLE  Garlie (Carew) "Triacle" was any remedy, medicinal mixture, also of certain springs of water.  COURANT  COWERSY  COURANT  COWERSY  OVERSELUT  Ook work, a shift. If you were paid a wage, you were said to be working in courte' but if you were working outside of your normal job for gainful purposes, you was 'working out of core'.
CORNENTS  COSSENTIO  Of a tool, sharpened or hammered into shape. Vh. Cossen. Also to repair a worn out tool by beating metal onto it where worn. Presumably with the help of a forge!  A flat straw basket into which babies were put to sleep. I don't know if this was their prime purpose. Please help  COSTAN / COSTEN  A flat basket, usually made of straw (or cane). Babies were often placed in them to sleep.  COST-BOOK COMPANY  A mining partnership in transferable shares  COSTEAN / COSTEAN PIT/ COSTEANING  COSTILY  COSTEANING  COSTILY  COSTILIDALE  Fix the extreme ends of the net to the batch.  COTTON-ON  Grasp the idea. Comprehend. "e nodded right nuff so I think 'e cottoned on te what I was tellen."  COUNTIER  COUNTING  COUNTER  To sing, especially in a place of worship  COUNTINY  The ground itself near an excavation. We have the well known area of North Country on the way to Porthwan etc.  COUNTRY  The ground itself near an excavation. We have the well known area of North Country on the way to Porthwan etc.  COUNTRY  The ground itself near an excavation. We have the well known area of North Country on the way to Porthwan etc.  COUNTRY  The ground itself near an excavation. We have the well known area of North Country on the way to Porthwan etc.  COUNTRY  The ground itself near an excavation. We have the well known area of North Country on the way to Porthwan etc.  COUNTRY  A period of work, a shift. If you were paid a wage, you were said to be working 'in courte' but if you were working outside of your normal job for gainful purposes, you was '
COSTEND  Of a tool, sharpened or hammered into shape. Vh. Cossen. Also to repair a worn out tool by beating metal on toit where worn. Presumably with the help of ronge!  A flat straw basket into which babies were put to sleep. I don't know if this was their prime purpose. Please help  COSTAN / COSTEN  A flat basket, usually made of straw (or cane). Babies were often placed in them to sleep.  COSTEANO'COSTEAN PIT/ COSTEAN / COSTEAN PIT/ COSTEAN PIT/ COSTEAN PIT/ COSTEAN PIT/ COSTEAN PIT/ COSTEAN PIT COSTEAN PIT/ COSTEAN PIT COSTE
A flat straw basket into which babies were put to sleep. I don't know if this was their prime purpose. Please help COSTAN / COSTEN  A flat basket, issually made of straw (or cane). Babies were often placed in them to sleep. COSTE-BOOK COMPANY  A mining partnership in transferable shares COSTEAN / COSTEAN PIT/ COTHAN  Old undisturbed stratum. (Borlase)  Thatch ropes running over the rick and weighted at the ends with stones. See BROACH. COTT Cottage, house  COTTERS  Thatch ropes running over the rick and weighted at the ends with stones. See BROACH. COTTEDALE  COTTEDALE  Fix the extreme ends of the net to the batch.  Grasp the idea. Comprehend. "c nodded right nuff so I think' e cottoned on te what I was tellen."  COUGING  COUNTER  COUNTING  COUNTING  Shuffling. Walking with heavy tread. "Must of bin a long day, Fred is gone uplong couging, I could'ear 'is hoots scroodgin' long the gravel from in 'ere."  COUNTRY  To sing, especially in a place of worship COUNTRY  The ground itself near an excavation. We have the well known area of North Country on the way to Porthlowan etc.  COUNTRY ANNER  COUNTRY If ground itself near an excavation. We have the well known area of North Country on the way to Porthlowan etc.  COURCORE  A period of work, a shift. If you were paid a wage, you were said to be working 'in coure' but if you were working outside of your normal job for gainful purposes, you was 'working out of core'.  COURANT  Cow's courant??? Cows and young heifers in particular do kick their heels in rihe air and runa bout at the same time.  COURANT  COWESEY  To go gossiping  COURSEY  To go gossiping  COURILEDGE / CURTILEGE  yard at front or back of house. The boundary of any domestic property.  COURISIALAC  Comishamo out of Commall. All Gladiolus byzantius.  COURSE / COWZEY / COURSEY  A blind. You had to be careful that there		Of a tool, sharpened or hammered into shape. Vb. Cossen. Also to repair a worn out tool prime purpose. Please help  A flat basket, usually made of straw (or cane). Babies were often placed in them to sleep.  COST-BOOK COMPANY A mining partnership in transferable shares  COSTEAN / COSTEAN PIT/ COSTEANING  COSTEANING  COSTIVE COTHAN  Old undisturbed stratum. (Borlase) COTNERS Thatch ropes running over the rick and weighted at the ends with stones. See BROACH.  COTT COTTAGE, house COTT COTTAGE, house  COTT COTTAGE, house COTT COTTAGE, house COTTLEDALE Fix the extreme ends of the net to the batch.  COTTLEDALE Fix the extreme ends of the net to the batch.  Grasp the idea. Comprehend. "e nodded right ruff so I think 'e cottoned on te what I was tellen."  COUGING Shuffling, Walking with heavy tread. "Must of bin a long day, Fred is gone uplong couging, I could 'ear 'is boots scroodgin' long the gravel from in 'ere."  COUNTER To sing, especially in a place of worship COUNTRY The ground itself near an excavation. We have the well known area of North Country on the way to Porrithowan etc.  COUNTRY JANNER COUNTRY In ground itself near an excavation. We have the well known area of North Country on the way to Porrithowan etc.  COUNTRY MAN'S TREACLE Garlie (Carew) "Triacle" was any remedy, medicinal mixture, also of certain springs of water.  COURANT COW'S courant?? Cows and young heifers in particular do kick their heels in rihe air and runs bout at fix same time.  COURANT COW'S courant?? Cows and young heifers in particular do kick their heels in rihe air and runs bout at the same time.  COURNIACK COURSEY To go gossiping COURILEGG / CURTILEGG Vard at front or back of house. The boundary of any domestic property.  COUSIN JACK COTISHANCE COURSEY To go gossiping COURILEGG / CURTILEGG Vard at finot or back of house. The boundary of any domestic property.  COUSIN JACK COTISHANCE COUSIN JACK COTISHANCE COURSELUT A blind, You had to be careful that there were no holes in your coverslits dur	COSTANI
A flat basket, usually made of straw (or cane). Babies were often placed in them to sleep.  COST-BOOK COMPANY A mining partnership in transferable shares  GOSTEAN / COSTEAN PIT/ Getting surface tin, wood tin. To examine back of a lode by digging pits.  COSTEINE COSTEEN PIT Exploritory hole when looking for a lode, a mining term  COSTEN PIT Exploritory hole when looking for a lode, a mining term  COTHAN Old undisturbed stratum. (Borlase) Thatch ropes running over the rick and weighted at the ends with stones. See BROACH.  COTT Cottage, house COTTER E. Pot-hook or trammel to hang a pot over a fire; dim. Of cotter. "Mind w'en you hang that pot over the fire, that there cotter el will be rid 'ot." Fix the extreme ends of the net to the batch.  COTTON-ON Grasp the idea. Comprehend. "'e nodded right nuff so I think 'e cottoned on te what I was tellen."  COURING Shuffling. Walking with heavy tread. "Must of bin a long day, Fred is gone uplong couging. I could 'ear 'is boots scroodgin 'long the gravel from in 'ere."  COUNTER To sing. especially in a place of worship COUNTRY The ground itself near an excavation. We have the well known area of North Country on the way to Porthtowan etc.  COUNTRY ANNER COUNTRY The ground itself near an excavation. We have the wolk how nere aid to be working in coure' but if you were working outside of your normal job for gainful purposes, you was 'working out of coror'.  COURANT COWS COURANT COW'S courant??? Cows and young heifers in particular do kick their heels in rihe air and runa bout at the same time.  COURANT COURANTIN' Copering. Romping, a running romp. Numbering the pushes for a child on a swing. (Courant is a form of dance, does anyone know what it is?)  COURSEY To go gossipping COURTLEDGE / CURTILEGE Yard at front or back of house. The boundary of any domestic property.  COUSIN JACK Cornishman out of Cornwall. All Gladiolus byyaantius.  COUSSE / COWZEY / COURSEY A chart to gossip. To go a gossipping Spatter-dashes.  COWERSLUT Clothing slipped on to cover dirt. COWCENSLUT COWAL	COSTAN
Sleep.   Sleep.	COSTAN / COSTEN
COSTEAN/COSTEAN PIT/ COSTEANING  COSTEANING  COSTEANING  COSTEANING  COSTEANING  COSTEANING  COSTEVE  COSTEANING  COSTEANING  COTHAN  COI undisturbed stratum. (Borlase)  Thatch ropes running over the rick and weighted at the ends with stones. See BROACH.  COTT  COTAGE, house  Pot-hook or trammel to hang a pot over a fire; dim. Of cotter. "Mind w'en you hang that pot over the fire, that there cotter el will be rid 'ot."  COTTLEDALE  Fix the extreme ends of the net to the batch.  COTTON-ON  Grasp the idea. Comprehend. "'e nodded right nuff so I think 'e cottoned on te what I was tellen."  COUNTER  COUNTER  To sing, especially in a place of worship  Mine management office building.  COUNTRY  The ground itself near an excavation. We have the well known area of North Country on the way to Porthtowan etc.  COUNTRYMAN'S TREACLE  Garlic (Carew) "Triacle" was any remedy, medicinal mixture, also of certain springs of water.  COURANT  COURANT  COURANT  A period of work, a shift. If you were paid a wage, you were said to be working 'in coure' but if you were working outside of your normal job for gainful purposes, you was 'working out of core'.  COURANT (Cow's ourant!??? Cows and young heifers in particular do kick their heels in rthe air and runa bout at the same time.  COURANT / COURANTIN'  Capering, Romping, a running romp. Numbering the pushes for a child on a swing. (Courant is a form of dance, does anyone know what it is?)  COUSIN JACK  COH, and I and JACK  COUSIN JACK	COSTAIN / COSTEIN	sleep.
COSTEANNG  COSTIVE  COSTIVE  COSTIVE  COSTEEN PIT  Exploritory hole when looking for a lode, a mining term  OTHAN  Old undisturbed stratum. (Borlase)  Thatch ropes running over the rick and weighted at the ends with stones. See BROACH.  COTT  COTTERS  Thatch ropes running over the rick and weighted at the ends with stones. See BROACH.  COTT  COTTER EL  Pot-hook or trammel to hang a pot over a fire; dim. Of cotter. "Mind w'en you hang that pot over the fire, that there cotter el will be rid 'ot."  Fix the extreme ends of the net to the batch.  COTTON-ON  Grasp the idea. Comprehend. "'e nodded right nuff's o I think 'e cottoned on te what I was tellen."  COUGING  Shuffling, Walking with heavy tread. "Must of bin a long day, Fred is gone uplong couging, I could 'ear 'is boots scroodigin 'long the gravel from in 'ere."  COUNTER  To sing, especially in a place of worship  COUNTRY  The ground itself near an excavation. We have the well known area of North Country on the way to Porthowan etc.  COUNTRY JANNER  COUNTRY JANNER  COUNTRY Garbic (Carew) "Triacle" was any remedy, medicinal mixture, also of certain springs of water.  COURCORE  A period of work, a shift. If you were paid a wage, you were said to be working 'in coure' but if you were working outside of your normal job for gainful purposes, you was 'working out of core'.  COURANT  COW's courant??? Cows and young heifers in particular do kick their heels in rthe air and runa bout at the same time.  COURANT  COW's Courant is a form of dance, does anyone know what it is?)  COURSEY  To go gossiping  COURSEY  To go gossiping  COURTILEOGE / CURTILEGE  yard at front or back of house. The boundary of any domestic property.  COUSIN JACK  COM's Jana Jack at the bottom.  COVERSLUT  COW'SCOWL  One who takes blame for someone else  COW'COWL  Moveable part of an oast-house; a windlass.
COSTIVE CONSTEN PIT Exploritory hole when looking for a lode, a mining term COTHAN Old undisturbed stratum. (Borlase) COTNERS Thatch ropes running over the rick and weighted at the ends with stones. See BROACH. COTT Cottage, house COTTER L Pot-hook or trammel to hang a pot over a fire; dim. Of cotter. "Mind w'en you hang that pot over the fire, that there cotter el will be rid 'ot." COTTLEDALE Fix the extreme ends of the net to the batch. COTTON-ON Grasp the idea. Comprehend. "'e nodded right nuff so I think' e cottoned on te what I was tellen." COUGING Shuffling. Walking with heavy tread. "Must of bin a long day, Fred is gone uplong couging. I could 'ear 'is boots seroodgin 'long the gravel from in 'ere." COUNTER To sing, especially in a place of worship COUNTHOUSE Mine management office building. COUNTRY The ground itself near an excavation. We have the well known area of North Country on the way to Porthtowan etc. COUNTRY JANNER COUNTRY The ground itself near an excavation. We have the well known area of North Country on the way to Porthtowan etc.  COUR/CORE A period of work, a shift. If you were paid a wage, you were said to be working 'in coure' but if you were working outside of your normal job for gainful purposes, you was 'working out of core'.  COURANT COW's courant?"? Cows and young heifers in particular do kick their heels in rthe air and runa bout at the same time.  COURANT COURANTIN' Capering. Romping, a running romp. Numbering the pushes for a child on a swing. (Courant is a form of dance, does anyone know what it is?)  COURSEY To go gossiping COUSTILEGE / CURTILEGE / Spatter-dashes.  COUSIN JACK Cornishman out of Comwall. All Gladiolus byzantinus.  COUSSE/ COWZEY / COURSEY / A chat; to gossip. To go a gossipping  COVERSLUT (A blind. You had to be careful that there were no holes in your coverslits during the wartime blackout.  COW'ECOUL Moveded for an oast-house; a windlass.		Getting surface tin, wood tin. To examine back of a lode by digging pits.
COSTEEN PIT Exploritory hole when looking for a lode, a mining term COTHAN Old undisturbed stratum. (Borlase) COTNERS Thatch ropes running over the rick and weighted at the ends with stones. See BROACH. COTT Cottage, house COTTER EL Pot-hook or trammel to hang a pot over a fire; dim. Of cotter. "Mind w'en you hang that pot over the fire, that there cotter el will be rid 'ot." COTTEDALE Fix the extreme ends of the net to the batch. COTTON-ON Grasp the idea. Comprehend. "'e nodded right nuff so I think 'e cottoned on te what I was tellen." COUGING Shuffling. Walking with heavy tread. "Must of bin a long day, Fred is gone uplong couging, I could 'ear 'is boots seroodgin 'long the gravel from in 'ere." COUNTER To sing, especially in a place of worship COUNTHOUSE Mine management office building. COUNTRY JANNER COUNTRY The ground itself near an excavation. We have the well known area of North Country on the way to Porthtowan etc. COUNTRYMAN'S TREACLE Graftic (Carew) "Triacle" was any remedy, medicinal mixture, also of certain springs of water.  COUR/CORE A period of work, a shift. If you were paid a wage, you were said to be working 'in course' but if you were working outside of your normal job for gainful purposes, you was 'working out of core'.  COURANT COW's courant??? Cows and young heifers in particular do kick their heels in rthe air and runa bout at the same time.  COURSEY To go gossiping COURSEY To go gossiping COURSEY To go gossiping COURSEY To go do say, 'and aff front or back of house. The boundary of any domestic property.  COUSIN JACK Cornishman out of Cornwall. All Gladiolus byzantinus.  COUSIN JACK Cornishman out of Cornwall. All Gladiolus byzantinus.  COUSIN JACK Local term of contempt. They used to say, 'wherever in the world there's a hole in the ground you'd find a Cousin Jack at the bottom.  COVERSLUT Clothing slipped on to cover dirt.  COVERSLUT Clothing slipped on to cover dirt.  COVERSLUT Cornwall Conversed part of an oast-house; a windlass.		Constinated
COTHAN Old undisturbed stratum. (Borlase) Thatch ropes running over the rick and weighted at the ends with stones. See BROACH. COTT Cottage, house OTTER EL Pot-hook or trammel to hang a pot over a fire; dim. Of cotter. "Mind w'en you hang that pot over the fire, that there cotter el will be rid 'ot." COTTEDALE Fix the extreme ends of the net to the batch. COTTON-ON Grasp the idea. Comprehend. "'e nodded right nuff so I think 'e cottoned on te what I was tellen."  COUGING Shuffling. Walking with heavy tread. "Must of bin a long day, Fred is gone uplong couging, I could 'ear 'is boots seroodgin 'long the gravel from in 'ere." COUNTER To sing, especially in a place of worship COUNTRY Mine management office building.  COUNTRY The ground itself near an excavation. We have the well known area of North Country on the way to Porthtowan etc. COUNTRYMAN'S TREACLE Garlie (Carew) "Triacle" was any remedy, medicinal mixture, also of certain springs of water.  COURCORE A period of work, a shift. If you were paid a wage, you were said to be working 'in coure' but if you were working outside of your normal job for gainful purposes, you was 'working out of core'.  COURANT COW's courant??? Cows and young heifers in particular do kick their heels in rthe air and runa bout at the same time.  COURSEY To go gossiping COURTLEGGE OURTLEGGE / CURTILEGE yard at front or back of house. The boundary of any domestic property.  COUSIN JACK COUSIN JACK Cornishman out of Cornwall. All Gladiolus byzantinus.  COUSS / COWZEY / COURSEY A blind. You had to be careful that there were no holes in your coverslits during the wartime blackout.  COVERSLUT ONEW to be shall be shall be shall be covered it.  COVERSLUT One who takes blame for someone else  Moveable part of an oast-house; a windlass.
COTTERS  Thatch ropes running over the rick and weighted at the ends with stones. See BROACH.  COTTER EL  OCHER EL  Pot-hook or trammel to hang a pot over a fire; dim. Of cotter. "Mind w'en you hang that pot over the fire, that there cotter el will be rid 'ot."  COTTLEDALE  Fix the extreme ends of the net to the batch.  Grasp the idea. Comprehend. "'e nodded right null'so I think 'e cottoned on te what I was tellen."  COUGING  Shuffling. Walking with heavy tread. "Must of bin a long day, Fred is gone uplong couging, I could 'ear 'is boots scroodgin 'long the gravel from in 'ere."  COUNTER  To sing, especially in a place of worship  COUNTRY  Mine management office building.  COUNTRY  The ground itself near an excavation. We have the well known area of North Country on the way to Porthtowan etc.  COUNTRY JANNER  COUNTRYMAN'S TREACLE  Garlie (Carew) "Triacle" was any remedy, medicinal mixture, also of certain springs of water.  COUR/CORE  A period of work, a shift. If you were paid a wage, you were said to be working 'in coure' but if you were working outside of your normal job for gainful purposes, you was 'working out of core'.  COURANT  COWANT  COW'S courant??? Cows and young heifers in particular do kick their heels in rthe air and runa bout at the same time.  COURSEY  COURSEY  To go gossiping  COURTLEDGE / CURTILEGE  yard at front or back of house. The boundary of any domestic property.  COUSIN JACK  COMISSIN JACK  COMISSIN JACK  COMISSIN JACK  COWENCUSEY  A blind. You had to be careful that there were no holes in your coverslits during the wartime blackout.  COVERSLIT  A blind. You had to be careful that there were no holes in your coverslits during the wartime blackout.  COWERCUT  COWAL  Howeale part of an oast-house; a windlass.
BROACH COTTE CUtage, house COTTER EL Pot-hook or trammel to hang a pot over a fire; dim. Of cotter. "Mind w'en you hang that pot over the fire, that there cotter el will be rid 'ot."  COTTLEDALE Fix the extreme ends of the net to the batch. COTTON-ON Grasp the idea. Comprehend. "'e nodded right nuff so I think 'e cottoned on te what I was tellen."  COUGING Shuffling. Walking with heavy tread. "Must of bin a long day, Fred is gone uplong couging, I could 'ear 'is boots scroodgin 'long the gravel from in 'ere."  COUNTER To sing, especially in a place of worship COUNTHOUSE Mine management office building.  COUNTRY The ground itself near an excavation. We have the well known area of North Country on the way to Porthtowan etc.  COUNTRY JANNER COUNTRY JANNER COUNTRY MAN'S TREACLE Garlic (Carew) "Triacle" was any remedy, medicinal mixture, also of certain springs of water.  COURCORE A period of work, a shift. If you were paid a wage, you were said to be working in coure' but if you were working outside of your normal job for gainful purposes, you was 'working out of core'.  COURANT COW'S courant'??? Cows and young heifers in particular do kick their heels in rthe air and runa bout at the same time.  COURANT COURANTIN' Capering. Romping, a running romp. Numbering the pushes for a child on a swing. (Courant is a form of dance, does anyone know what it is?)  COURSEY To go gossiping COUSIN JACK Comishman out of Commall. All Gladiolus byzantinus.  COUSIN JACK Local term of contempt. They used to say, wherever in the world there's a hole in the ground you'd find a Cousin Jack at the bottom.  COUSE / COWZEY / COURSEY A chat; to gossip. To go a gossipping  COVERCLOUTS Spatter-dashes.  COWERCLUT One who takes blame for someone else  COW/COWL Moveable part of an oast-house; a windlass.
COTTER EL Pot-hook or trammel to hang a pot over a fire; dim. Of cotter. "Mind w'en you hang that pot over the fire, that there cotter el will be rid 'ot."  COTTLEDALE Fix the extreme ends of the net to the batch.  COTTON-ON Grasp the idea. Comprehend. "e nodded right nuff so I think 'e cottoned on te what I was tellen."  COUGING Shuffling. Walking with heavy tread. "Must of bin a long day, Fred is gone uplong couging, I could 'ear 'is boots scroodgin 'long the gravel from in 'ere."  COUNTER To sing, especially in a place of worship  COUNTHOUSE Mine management office building.  COUNTRY The ground itself near an excavation. We have the well known area of North Country on the way to Porthtowan etc.  COUNTRYJANNER Country person  COUNTRYMAN'S TREACLE Garlic (Carew) "Triacle" was any remedy, medicinal mixture, also of certain springs of water.  COUR/CORE A period of work, a shift. If you were paid a wage, you were said to be working 'in coure' but if you were working outside of your normal job for gainful purposes, you was 'working out of core'.  COURANT COURANTIN' Capering. Romping, a running romp. Numbering the pushes for a child on a swing. (Courant is a form of dance, does anyone know what it is?)  COURSEY To go gosspiping  COUSIN JACK Cornishman out of Cornwall. All Gladious byzantius.  COUSE / COWZEY / COURSEY A chait to gossip. To go a gossipping  COUSE / COWZEY / COURSEY A chait to gossip. To go a gossipping  COUSE / COWZEY / COURSEY A chait to gossip. To go a gossipping  Spatter-dashes.  COVERSLUT Chothing slipped on to cover dirt.  COVERSLUT Come working out of an oast-house; a windlass.
COTTER EL Pot-hook or trammel to hang a pot over a fire; dim. Of cotter. "Mind w'en you hang that pot over the fire; that there cotter el will be rid 'ot."  COTTLEDALE Fix the extreme ends of the net to the batch.  COTTON-ON Grasp the idea. Comprehend. "'e nodded right nuff so I think 'e cottoned on te what I was tellen."  COUGING Shuffling. Walking with heavy tread. "Must of bin a long day, Fred is gone uplong couging, I could 'ear 'is boots scroodgin 'long the gravel from in 'ere."  COUNTER To sing, especially in a place of worship  COUNTRY Mine management of fire building.  COUNTRY The ground itself near an excavation. We have the well known area of North Country on the way to Porthtowan etc.  COUNTRYMAN'S TREACLE Garlic (Carew) "Triacle" was any remedy, medicinal mixture, also of certain springs of water.  COUR/CORE A period of work, a shift. If you were paid a wage, you were said to be working 'in coure' but if you were working outside of your normal job for gainful purposes, you was 'working out of core'.  COURANT COURANTIN' Cows and young heifers in particular do kick their heels in rthe air and runa bout at the same time.  COURSEY To go gossiping  COURSEY To go gossiping  COURSEY To go gossiping  COUSIN JACK Cornshan out of Comwall. All Gladiolus byzantinus.  COUSIN JACK Local term of contempt. They used to say, 'wherever in the world there's a hole in the ground you'd find a Cousin Jack at the bottom.  COUSES / COWZEY / COURSEY A chat; to gossip. To go a gossipping  COVERCLOUTS Spater-dashes.  COVERSLIT A blind. You had to be careful that there were no holes in your coverslits during the wartime blackout.  COVERSLUT Clothing slipped on to cover dirt.  COWAL Hoveable part of an oast-house; a windlass.	COTT
Dot over the fire, that there cotter el will be rid 'ot."  COTTEDALE  Fix the extreme ends of the net to the batch.  COTTON-ON  Grasp the idea. Comprehend. ""e nodded right nuff so I think 'e cottoned on te what I was tellen."  COUGING  Shuffling. Walking with heavy tread. "Must of bin a long day, Fred is gone uplong couging. I could 'ear' is boots scroodgin 'long the gravel from in 'ere."  COUNTER  To sing, especially in a place of worship  COUNTHOUSE  Mine management office building.  COUNTRY  The ground itself near an excavation. We have the well known area of North Country on the way to Porthtowan etc.  COUNTRY JANNER  COUNTRY HANNER  COUNTRY WAS TREACLE  Garlic (Carew) "Triacle" was any remedy, medicinal mixture, also of certain springs of water.  COUR/CORE  A period of work, a shift. If you were paid a wage, you were said to be working 'in coure' but if you were working outside of your normal job for gainful purposes, you was 'working out of core'.  COURANT  Cow's courant??? Cows and young heifers in particular do kick their heels in rthe air and runa bout at the same time.  COURANT/COURANTIN'  Capering, Romping, a running romp. Numbering the pushes for a child on a swing. (Courant is a form of dance, does anyone know what it is?)  COURSEY  To go gossiping  COUSIN JACK  Comishman out of Comwall. All Gladiolus byzantinus.  COUSIN JACK  COUSIN JACK  Comishman out of Comwall. All Gladiolus byzantinus.  COUSE / COWZEY / COURSEY  A chat; to gossip. To go a gossipping  COVERCLOUTS  Spatter-dashes.  COVERSLIT  A blind. You had to be careful that there were no holes in your coverslits during the wartime blackout.  COVERSLUT  Clothing slipped on to cover dirt.  COWESUL  One who takes blame for someone else  COW / COWL  Fish basket
COTTON-ON  Grasp the idea. Comprehend. "'e nodded right nuff so I think 'e cottoned on te what I was tellen."  Shuffling. Walking with heavy tread. "Must of bin a long day, Fred is gone uplong couging, I could 'ear 'is boots scroodgin 'long the gravel from in 'ere."  COUNTER  To sing, especially in a place of worship  COUNTHOUSE  Mine management office building.  COUNTRY  The ground itself near an excavation. We have the well known area of North Country on the way to Porthtowan etc.  COUNTRYJANNER  COUNTRYMAN'S TREACLE  Garlic (Carew) "Triacle" was any remedy, medicinal mixture, also of certain springs of water.  COUR/CORE  A period of work, a shift. If you were paid a wage, you were said to be working 'in coure' but if you were working outside of your normal job for gainful purposes, you was 'working out of core'.  COURANT  Cow's courant??? Cows and young heifers in particular do kick their heels in rthe air and runa bout at the same time.  COURSEY  COURSEY  To go gossiping  COURTLEDGE / CURTILEGE  OURTLEDGE / CURTILEGE  COUSIN JACK  Cornishman out of Cornwall. All Gladiolus byzantinus.  COUSIN JACK  Cornishman out of Cornwall. All Gladiolus byzantinus.  COUSSE / COWZEY / COURSEY  A cleat term of contempt. They used to say, wherever in the world there's a hole in the ground you'd finid a Cousin Jack at the bottom.  COUSSE / COWZEY / COURSEY  A clat; to gossipping  COVERCLOUTS  Spatter-dashes.  COVERSLIT  A blind. You had to be careful that there were no holes in your coverslits during the wartime blackout.  COVERSLUT  Coveale part of an oast-house; a windlass.  Fish basket
COUNTER COUNTER To sing, especially in a place of worship COUNTRY The ground itself near an excavation. We have the well known area of North Country on the way to Porthtowan etc.  COUNTRYJANNER COUNTRYJANNER COUNTRYMAN'S TREACLE Garlic (Carew) "Triacle" was any remedy, medicinal mixture, also of certain springs of water.  COUR/CORE A period of work, a shift. If you were paid a wage, you were said to be working 'in coure' but if you were working outside of your normal job for gainful purposes, you was 'working out of core'.  COURANT COWANTY COWANTIN' Cow's courant???? Cows and young heifers in particular do kick their heels in rthe air and runa bout at the same time.  COURANT COURANTIN' Capering, Romping, a running romp, Numbering the pushes for a child on a swing. (Courant is a form of dance, does anyone know what it is?)  COURSEY To go gossiping COURTLEDGE / CURTILEGE COUSIN JACK Cornishman out of Cornwall. All Gladiolus byzantinus.  COUSSE / COWZEY / COURSEY A chat; to gossip. To go a gossipping COVERCLOUTS Spatter-dashes.  COVERSLIT A blind. You had to be careful that there were no holes in your coverslits during the wartime blackout.  COVERSLUT COVERS LUT CONSONLE COWAL Fish basket  Fish basket	COTTLEDALE	Fix the extreme ends of the net to the batch.
COUNTER COUNTER To sing, especially in a place of worship COUNTER COUNTRY Mine management office building. COUNTRY The ground itself near an excavation. We have the well known area of North Country on the way to Porthtowan etc. COUNTRY JANNER COUNTRY JANNER COUNTRY Garlie (Carew) "Triacle" was any remedy, medicinal mixture, also of certain springs of water. COUR/CORE A period of work, a shift. If you were paid a wage, you were said to be working 'in coure' but if you were working outside of your normal job for gainful purposes, you was 'working out of core'. COURANT COURANT COURANTIN' Capering. Romping, a running romp. Numbering the pushes for a child on a swing. (Courant is a form of dance, does anyone know what it is?) COURSEY COURILEDGE / CURTILEGE COUSIN JACK Comishman out of Comwall. All Gladiolus byzantinus. COUSSE / COWZEY / COURSEY COUSSE / COWZEY / COURSEY A chait, to gossip. To go a gossipping COURSE / COURSEY COUSSE / COWZEY / COURSEY A chait, to gossip. To go a gossipping COURSE / COWZEY / COURSEY A chait, to gossip. To go a gossipping COVERCLOUTS Spatter-dashes. COVERSLIT A blind. You had to be careful that there were no holes in your coverslits during the wartime blackout. COVERSLUT COWEAL COWAL Fish basket	COTTON-ON
COUNTER  To sing, especially in a place of worship  Mine management office building.  COUNTRY  The ground itself near an excavation. We have the well known area of North Country on the way to Porthtowan etc.  COUNTRY JANNER  COUNTRYMAN'S TREACLE  Garlic (Carew) "Triacle" was any remedy, medicinal mixture, also of certain springs of water.  COUR/CORE  A period of work, a shift. If you were paid a wage, you were said to be working 'in coure' but if you were working outside of your normal job for gainful purposes, you was 'working out of core'.  COURANT  Cow's courant??? Cows and young heifers in particular do kick their heels in rthe air and runa bout at the same time.  COURANT / COURANTIN'  Capering. Romping, a running romp. Numbering the pushes for a child on a swing. (Courant is a form of dance, does anyone know what it is?)  COURSEY  To go gossiping  COURTLEDGE / CURTILEGE  yard at front or back of house. The boundary of any domestic property.  COUSIN JACK  Cornishman out of Comwall. All Gladiolus byzantinus.  COUSE / COWES / COWEY / COURSEY  A chat; to gossip. To go a gossipping  COVERCLOUTS  Spatter-dashes.  COVERCLOUTS  A blind. You had to be careful that there were no holes in your coverslits during the wartime blackout.  COVER-SLUT  Cone who takes blame for someone else  COW / COWL  Moveable part of an oast-house; a windlass.  COWAL  Fish basket	COUGING	Shuffling. Walking with heavy tread. "Must of bin a long day, Fred is gone uplong
COUNTHOUSE Mine management office building.  COUNTRY The ground itself near an excavation. We have the well known area of North Country on the way to Porthtowan etc.  COUNTRY JANNER Country person  COUNTRYMAN'S TREACLE Garlic (Caren) "Triacle" was any remedy, medicinal mixture, also of certain springs of water.  COUR/CORE A period of work, a shift. If you were paid a wage, you were said to be working 'in coure' but if you were working outside of your normal job for gainful purposes, you was 'working out of core'.  COURANT COW'S courant??? Cows and young heifers in particular do kick their heels in rthe air and runa bout at the same time.  COURANT / COURANTIN' Capering, Romping, a running romp. Numbering the pushes for a child on a swing. (Courant is a form of dance, does anyone know what it is?)  COURSEY To go gossiping  COURTLEDGE / CURTILEGE yard at front or back of house. The boundary of any domestic property.  COUSIN JACK Cornishman out of Cornwall. All Gladiolus byzantinus.  COUSIN JACK Local term of contempt. They used to say, 'wherever in the world there's a hole in the ground you'd find a Cousin Jack at the bottom.  COUSSE / COWZEY / COURSEY A chat; to gossip. To go a gossipping  COVERCLOUTS Spatter-dashes.  COVERSLUT A blind. You had to be careful that there were no holes in your coverslits during the wartime blackout.  COVER-SLUT Clothing slipped on to cover dirt.  COVER-SLUT One who takes blame for someone else  COW / COWL Moveable part of an oast-house; a windlass.
COUNTRY The ground itself near an excavation. We have the well known area of North Country on the way to Porthtowan etc.  COUNTRY JANNER COUNTRYMAN'S TREACLE Garlic (Carew) "Triacle" was any remedy, medicinal mixture, also of certain springs of water.  COUR/CORE A period of work, a shift. If you were paid a wage, you were said to be working 'in coure' but if you were working outside of your normal job for gainful purposes, you was 'working out of core'.  COURANT COWANT COWANT Cow's courant??? Cows and young heifers in particular do kick their heels in rthe air and runa bout at the same time.  COURANT/COURANTIN' Capering. Romping, a running romp. Numbering the pushes for a child on a swing. (Courant is a form of dance, does anyone know what it is?)  COURSEY To go gossiping COURTLEDGE / CURTILEGE yard at front or back of house. The boundary of any domestic property.  COUSIN JACK Cornishman out of Cornwall. All Gladiolus byzantinus.  COUSSE / COWZEY / COURSEY A chat; to gossip. To go a gossipping  COVERCLOUTS Spatter-dashes.  COVERSLIT A blind. You had to be careful that there were no holes in your coverslits during the wartime blackout.  COVERSLUT COVER-SLUT Cone who takes blame for someone else  COW / COWL Moveable part of an oast-house; a windlass.  COWAL Fish basket
the way to Porthtowan etc.  COUNTRY JANNER COUNTRYMAN'S TREACLE Garlic (Carew) "Triacle" was any remedy, medicinal mixture, also of certain springs of water.  COUR/CORE A period of work, a shift. If you were paid a wage, you were said to be working 'in coure' but if you were working outside of your normal job for gainful purposes, you was 'working out of core'.  COW'S courant??? Cows and young heifers in particular do kick their heels in rthe air and runa bout at the same time.  COURANT / COURANTIN' Capering. Romping, a running romp. Numbering the pushes for a child on a swing. (Courant is a form of dance, does anyone know what it is?)  COURSEY To go gossiping  COURTLEDGE / CURTILEGE Yard at front or back of house. The boundary of any domestic property.  COUSIN JACK Cornishman out of Cornwall. All Gladiolus byzantinus.  COUSSE / COWZEY / COURSEY A chat; to gossip. To go a gossipping  COVERSLUT A blind. You had to be careful that there were no holes in your coverslits during the wartime blackout.  COVERSLUT COVER-SLUT One who takes blame for someone else  COW / COWL Moveable part of an oast-house; a windlass.  COWAL Fish basket
COUR/CORE  A period of work, a shift. If you were paid a wage, you were said to be working 'in coure' but if you were working outside of your normal job for gainful purposes, you was 'working out of core'.  COURANT  COW's courant??? Cows and young heifers in particular do kick their heels in rthe air and runa bout at the same time.  COURANT/COURANTIN'  Capering. Romping, a running romp. Numbering the pushes for a child on a swing. (Courant is a form of dance, does anyone know what it is?)  COURSEY  To go gossiping  COURTLEDGE / CURTILEGE  yard at front or back of house. The boundary of any domestic property.  COUSIN JACK  COUSIN JACK  COUSIN JACK  Local term of contempt. They used to say, 'wherever in the world there's a hole in the ground you'd find a Cousin Jack at the bottom.  COUSSE / COWZEY / COURSEY  A chat; to gossip. To go a gossipping  COVERCLOUTS  Spatter-dashes.  COVERSLIT  A blind. You had to be careful that there were no holes in your coverslits during the wartime blackout.  COVERSLUT  Clothing slipped on to cover dirt.  COVER-SLUT  One who takes blame for someone else  COW / COWL  Moveable part of an oast-house; a windlass.  Fish basket	COUNTRY
COURANT COURANTIN' Capering. Romping, a running romp. Numbering the pushes for a child on a swing. (Courant is a form of dance, does anyone know what it is?)  COURSEY COUSIN JACK COUSIN JACK COUSIN JACK COUSSE / COWZEY / COURSEY A chat; to gossip. To go a gossipping COURSEY A chat; to gossip. To go a gossipping COURSEY COUSIN JACK COUSIN JA	COUNTRY JANNER
COUR/CORE  A period of work, a shift. If you were paid a wage, you were said to be working 'in coure' but if you were working outside of your normal job for gainful purposes, you was 'working out of core'.  COURANT  Cow's courant??? Cows and young heifers in particular do kick their heels in rthe air and runa bout at the same time.  COURANT / COURANTIN'  Capering. Romping, a running romp. Numbering the pushes for a child on a swing. (Courant is a form of dance, does anyone know what it is?)  COURSEY  To go gossiping  COURTLEDGE / CURTILEGE  yard at front or back of house. The boundary of any domestic property.  COUSIN JACK  Cornishman out of Cornwall. All Gladiolus byzantinus.  COUSSE / COWZEY / COURSEY  A chat; to gossip. To go a gossipping  COVERCLOUTS  Spatter-dashes.  COVERSLIT  A blind. You had to be careful that there were no holes in your coverslits during the wartime blackout.  COVERSLUT  COVERSLUT  Cone who takes blame for someone else  COW / COWL  Moveable part of an oast-house; a windlass.  COWAL  Fish basket	COUNTRYMAN'S TREACLE
coure' but if you were working outside of your normal job for gainful purposes, you was 'working out of core'.  COURANT Cow's courant??? Cows and young heifers in particular do kick their heels in rthe air and runa bout at the same time.  COURANT / COURANTIN' Capering. Romping, a running romp. Numbering the pushes for a child on a swing. (Courant is a form of dance, does anyone know what it is?)  COURSEY To go gossiping COURTLEDGE / CURTILEGE yard at front or back of house. The boundary of any domestic property.  COUSIN JACK Cornishman out of Cornwall. All Gladiolus byzantinus.  COUSIN JACK Local term of contempt. They used to say, 'wherever in the world there's a hole in the ground you'd find a Cousin Jack at the bottom.  COUSSE / COWZEY / COURSEY A chat; to gossip. To go a gossipping  COVERCLOUTS Spatter-dashes.  COVERSLIT A blind. You had to be careful that there were no holes in your coverslits during the wartime blackout.  COVERSLUT Clothing slipped on to cover dirt.  COVER-SLUT One who takes blame for someone else  COW / COWL Moveable part of an oast-house; a windlass.  COWAL Fish basket	COUR/CORE
COURANT COURANTIN' Capering. Romping, a running romp. Numbering the pushes for a child on a swing. (Courant is a form of dance, does anyone know what it is?)  COURSEY To go gossiping  COURTLEDGE / CURTILEGE yard at front or back of house. The boundary of any domestic property.  COUSIN JACK Cornishman out of Comwall. All Gladiolus byzantinus.  COUSIN JACK Local term of contempt. They used to say, 'wherever in the world there's a hole in the ground you'd find a Cousin Jack at the bottom.  COUSSE / COWZEY / COURSEY A chat; to gossip. To go a gossipping  COVERCLOUTS Spatter-dashes.  COVERSLIT A blind. You had to be careful that there were no holes in your coverslits during the wartime blackout.  COVERSLUT Clothing slipped on to cover dirt.  COVER-SLUT One who takes blame for someone else  COW / COWL Moveable part of an oast-house; a windlass.  COWAL Fish basket		coure' but if you were working outside of your normal job for gainful purposes, you was
and runa bout at the same time.  COURANT / COURANTIN' Capering. Romping, a running romp. Numbering the pushes for a child on a swing. (Courant is a form of dance, does anyone know what it is?)  COURSEY To go gossiping  COURTLEDGE / CURTILEGE yard at front or back of house. The boundary of any domestic property.  COUSIN JACK Cornishman out of Cornwall. All Gladiolus byzantinus.  COUSIN JACK Local term of contempt. They used to say, 'wherever in the world there's a hole in the ground you'd find a Cousin Jack at the bottom.  COUSSE / COWZEY / COURSEY A chat; to gossip. To go a gossipping  COVERCLOUTS Spatter-dashes.  COVERSLIT A blind. You had to be careful that there were no holes in your coverslits during the wartime blackout.  COVERSLUT Clothing slipped on to cover dirt.  COVER-SLUT One who takes blame for someone else  COW / COWL Moveable part of an oast-house; a windlass.  COWAL Fish basket	COURANT
COURANT / COURANTIN' Capering. Romping, a running romp. Numbering the pushes for a child on a swing. (Courant is a form of dance, does anyone know what it is?)  COURSEY To go gossiping COURTLEDGE / CURTILEGE yard at front or back of house. The boundary of any domestic property.  COUSIN JACK COUSIN JACK COUSIN JACK Local term of contempt. They used to say, 'wherever in the world there's a hole in the ground you'd find a Cousin Jack at the bottom.  COUSSE / COWZEY / COURSEY A chat; to gossip. To go a gossipping COVERCLOUTS Spatter-dashes.  COVERSLIT A blind. You had to be careful that there were no holes in your coverslits during the wartime blackout.  COVERSLUT COVER-SLUT One who takes blame for someone else  COW / COWL Moveable part of an oast-house; a windlass.  COWAL Fish basket	COURAINI	· ·
swing. (Courant is a form of dance, does anyone know what it is?)  COURSEY  To go gossiping  COURTLEDGE / CURTILEGE  yard at front or back of house. The boundary of any domestic property.  COUSIN JACK  COrnishman out of Cornwall. All Gladiolus byzantinus.  Local term of contempt. They used to say, 'wherever in the world there's a hole in the ground you'd find a Cousin Jack at the bottom.  COUSSE / COWZEY / COURSEY  A chat; to gossip. To go a gossipping  COVERCLOUTS  Spatter-dashes.  COVERSLIT  A blind. You had to be careful that there were no holes in your coverslits during the wartime blackout.  COVERSLUT  COVER-SLUT  CONERSLUT  One who takes blame for someone else  COW / COWL  Moveable part of an oast-house; a windlass.  COWAL  Fish basket	COURANT / COURANTIN'
COURSEY  COURTLEDGE / CURTILEGE  COUSIN JACK  Local term of contempt. They used to say, wherever in the world there's a hole in the ground you'd find a Cousin Jack at the bottom.  COUSSE / COWZEY / COURSEY  A chat; to gossip. To go a gossipping  COVERCLOUTS  Spatter-dashes.  COVERSLIT  A blind. You had to be careful that there were no holes in your coverslits during the wartime blackout.  COVERSLUT  COVER-SLUT  COVER-SLUT  One who takes blame for someone else  COW / COWL  Moveable part of an oast-house; a windlass.  COWAL  Fish basket	COORDITY COORDINA
COURTLEDGE / CURTILEGE yard at front or back of house. The boundary of any domestic property.  COUSIN JACK Cornishman out of Cornwall. All Gladiolus byzantinus.  Local term of contempt. They used to say, 'wherever in the world there's a hole in the ground you'd find a Cousin Jack at the bottom.  COUSSE / COWZEY / COURSEY A chat; to gossip. To go a gossipping  COVERCLOUTS Spatter-dashes.  COVERSLIT A blind. You had to be careful that there were no holes in your coverslits during the wartime blackout.  COVERSLUT Clothing slipped on to cover dirt.  COVER-SLUT One who takes blame for someone else  COW / COWL Moveable part of an oast-house; a windlass.  COWAL Fish basket	COURSEY
COUSIN JACK COUSIN JACK Local term of contempt. They used to say, 'wherever in the world there's a hole in the ground you'd find a Cousin Jack at the bottom.  COUSSE / COWZEY / COURSEY A chat; to gossip. To go a gossipping  COVERCLOUTS Spatter-dashes.  COVERSLIT A blind. You had to be careful that there were no holes in your coverslits during the wartime blackout.  COVERSLUT COVER-SLUT COVER-SLUT One who takes blame for someone else  COW / COWL Moveable part of an oast-house; a windlass.  COWAL Fish basket COUSIN JACK  Local term of contempt. They used to say, 'wherever in the world there's a hole in the ground you'd find a Cousin Jack at the bottom.  COUSSE / COWZEY / COURSEY  A chat; to gossip. To go a gossipping  COVERCLOUTS  Spatter-dashes.  COVERSLIT  A blind. You had to be careful that there were no holes in your coverslits during the wartime blackout.  COVERSLUT  COVER-SLUT  COVER-SLUT  One who takes blame for someone else  COW / COWL  Moveable part of an oast-house; a windlass.  COWAL  Fish basket ground you'd find a Cousin Jack at the bottom.  COUSSE / COWZEY / COURSEY A chat; to gossip. To go a gossipping  COVERCLOUTS Spatter-dashes.  COVERSLIT A blind. You had to be careful that there were no holes in your coverslits during the wartime blackout.  COVERSLUT COVER-SLUT COVER-SLUT One who takes blame for someone else  COW / COWL Moveable part of an oast-house; a windlass.  COWAL Fish basket		y .
COUSSE / COUZEY / COURSEY  A chat; to gossip. To go a gossipping  Spatter-dashes.  COVERSLIT  A blind. You had to be careful that there were no holes in your coverslits during the wartime blackout.  COVERSLUT  Clothing slipped on to cover dirt.  COVER-SLUT  One who takes blame for someone else  COW / COWL  Moveable part of an oast-house; a windlass.  COWAL  Fish basket
COVERCLOUTS  Spatter-dashes.  A blind. You had to be careful that there were no holes in your coverslits during the wartime blackout.  COVERSLUT  COVER-SLUT  COVER-SLUT  One who takes blame for someone else  COW / COWL  Moveable part of an oast-house; a windlass.  COWAL  Fish basket	COUSSE / COWZEY / COURSEY
COVERSLIT  A blind. You had to be careful that there were no holes in your coverslits during the wartime blackout.  COVERSLUT  COVER-SLUT  One who takes blame for someone else  COW / COWL  Moveable part of an oast-house; a windlass.  COWAL  Fish basket wartime blackout.  COVERSLUT COVER-SLUT COVER-SLUT One who takes blame for someone else COW / COWL Moveable part of an oast-house; a windlass. COWAL Fish basket
COVERSLUT COVER-SLUT One who takes blame for someone else COW / COWL Moveable part of an oast-house; a windlass. COWAL Fish basket		· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·
COVER-SLUT One who takes blame for someone else COW / COWL Moveable part of an oast-house; a windlass. COWAL Fish basket	COVERSLUT	Clothing slipped on to cover dirt.
COW / COWL Moveable part of an oast-house; a windlass. COWAL Fish basket
COWAL Fish basket		Moveable part of an oast-house; a windlass.
COW CHAWL/CHOL Cow shed	COWAL
	COW CHAWL/CHOL	Cow shed

Fish basket - carried on the back by fish sellers, fastened by a broad band around forehead.	COW PARSLEY	Hogweed
GOWAL/COWL   Basket held by strap on head, as carried by fisherwomen on their backs. In size a shape rather like the farmers' maun.
Shape rather like the farmers' maun.
Shape rather like the farmers' maun.	COWAL /COWL	Basket held by strap on head, as carried by fisherwomen on their backs. In size and
COWBROOZ COWB Fish bladder COWERONG COWERONG Fish bladder COWL Fish bladder COWSEY COULTY COWSLICK COWSEY COULTY COWSHEW COWSHEW COWSHEW CONY Fish bladder COYL Fish bladder C		shape rather like the farmers' maun.
GOWE Fish bladder COW-FLAPS Wild parsnips; hogweed COW-FLAPS Wild parsnips; hogweed COW-FLAPS Wild parsnips; hogweed COW-FLAPS Wild parsnips; hogweed COW-FLAPS COW-FLAPS COW-FLAPS COW-FLAPS COW-FLAPS COW-FLAPS COW-FLAPS COW-FLAPS Linvelcome clergyman COW-FLAPS COW-FLAPS COW-FLAPS COW-FLAPS Linvelcome clergyman COW-FLAPS COW-	COWAL(LE)
COWH. Fish bladder COW-LAIPS Wild parsnips, logweed COW-LAIPS Wild parsnips, logweed COW-LAIPS Wild parsnips, logweed COW-LAIPS Wild parsnips, logweed COW-LAIPS COW-L
COWL FLAPS  OWL Fish basket  COWL ROOZ  "Cast net"  COWLEKE/ COWLAKE  A glutton.  COWLEKE/ COWLAKE  A glutton.  COWSEY/ COOZEY  Chat, gossip, to loiter.  COWSHERM  COWSHERM  COWGRIPM  COWSHERM  COWGRIPM  COWSHERM  COWGRIPM  COWSHERM  COYNE  COYN  Dull colour of turbled sea. Cowsherm; cow-dung, O.E.  Lower company of the lead.  COYNE  COYN  Pert. Sausy, "She was a bit coxy didn't ce think?  COYNCH  Rotten mess  COYNCH  Rotten mess  COYNCH  Rotten mess  COZ  Flagged or cobbled area of a farmyard, usually near the house. Similar to caunce imagine.  COZ  Flagged or cobbled area of a farmyard, usually near the house. Similar to caunce imagine.  CRABALONG/CRABALORGIN  Spider rab. (As above)  CRABBED  CRABCE  Ridge Tile  CRACE  Ridge Tile  CRACE  Ridge Tile  CRACE  Radge Tile  CRAFE/CRAFF  To codeg up. To mend. To stitch roughly as in mending sails. "You 'awe crafed the shure unif look at the puckers in the stitch'n'. A bodge job  CRAFING  CRAFING  CRAFING  CRAFING  CRAKE/CRAKED  A land in sance  CRACE  CRAILING  CRAKE/CRAKER  Missel drussh.  CRAME  CRAKE/CRAKING  A harsh cry. To complain  CRAME  CRAMM  A tall story—a white lie. "Thu was a cram shure nufl', b'leeve it did ee?"  CRAMM  A tall story—a white lie. "Thu was a cram shure nufl', b'leeve it did ee?"  CRAMM  A tall story—a white lie. "Thu was a cram shure nufl', b'leeve it did ee?"  CRAMM  A tall story—a white lie. "Thu was a cram shure nufl', b'leeve it did ee?"  CRAMM  A tall story—a white lie. "Thu was a cram shure nufl', b'leeve it did ee?"  CRAMM  A tall story—a white lie. "Thu was a cram shure nufl', b'leeve it did ee?"  CRAM
COWL (COWL NOOZ)  COWLID IRON  Unwelcome clergyman  COWLECK / COWLAKE  A glutton  COWSEY / COOZEY  Chat, gossip, to loiter.  COWSHEM  COWSHEM  COWSHIRM  COWSHIRMY  Dull colour of furbed sea. Cowshern; cow-dung. O.E.  COWSHIRMY  COWSLICK  Hair hanging on forchead  COXY  Pert. Saucy. "She was a bit coxy didn't ee think?"  COYNE / COYN   For Suce   She was a bit coxy didn't ee think?  COYNT   Toss the head.  COYNT   Toss the head.  COYNT   Toss the head.  COYNT   Toss the head.  COZ   Flagged or obbbled area of a farmyard, usually near the house. Similar to caunce imagine.  CRAB  CRABALONG / CRABALORGIN  CRABBLE   Verb: or un off line. Eg when ploughing. A vehicle going forward and slightly sideways at the same time.  CRABBLE (AT)  CRABBLE (AT)  CRABBLE (AT)  CRABBLE   Carabpot. "we're goove load these crabbuts onta the van te take down te the boast (RACE)  RAGE   Ridge Tile  CRACE   Ridge Tile  CRAFE / CRAFE   To code up. To mend. To stirch roughly as in mending sails, "You 'ave crafed the shure muff look at the puckers in the stirch'n". A bodge job  CRAFE / CRAFE   To code up. To mend. To stirch roughly as in mending sails, "You 'ave crafed the shure muff look at the puckers in the stirch'n". A bodge job  CRAFE / CRAFE   To code up. To mend. To stirch roughly as in mending sails, "You 'ave crafed the shure muff look at the puckers in the stirch'n". A bodge job  CRAFE / CRAFE   To code up. To mend. To stirch roughly as in mending sails, "You 'ave crafed the shure muff look at the puckers in the stirch'n". A bodge job  CRAFE / CRAFE   To code up. To mend. To stirch roughly as in mending sails, "You 'ave crafed the shure muff look at the puckers in the stirch'n". A bodge job  CRAFE / CRAFE   To code up. To mend. To stirch roughly as in mending sails, "You 'ave crafed the shure muff look at the puckers in the stirch'n". A bodge job  CRAFE / CRAFE   To code up. To mend. To stirch roughly as in mending sails, "You 'ave crafed the shure muff. The pull the shure muff. The pull the shure muff.  CRAME   To code up. To cod
COWLECK / COWLAKE COWLECK / COWLAKE A glution. COWLECK / COWLAKE A glution. COWSEY / COOZEY Chat, gossip, to loiter. COWSHIEM Cowding, Dussen, stank in that cowshem there, ee de look pretty fresh te me." COWSHIEMY Dull colour of turbled sea, Cowshern; cow-dung, O.E. COWSLICK Hair hanging on forchead COYNE / COOKER COYNE
COWLECK / COWLAKE A glutton COWSEY / COOZEY COWSIEM COWSEY / COOZEY COWSIEM COWSEY / COOZEY COWSHENY COWSHENY Dull colour of rubbied sea. Cowshern; cow-dung. O.F. COWSHENY Dull colour of rubbied sea. Cowshern; cow-dung. O.F. COWSLICK Hair hunging on forchead COXY Pert. Saucy. "She was a bit coxy didn't ee think? COYSE / COIGN End stone of a building. I think this must relate to 'quoin', a cornerstone. COYYCH ROTHER COYYCH ROTHER COYYCH ROTHER COYYCH ROTHER COYYCH ROTHER COY COYACH ROTHER COY COYACH ROTHER COY ROTHER COYACH ROTHER ROTHER COYACH ROTHER COYAC
COWSETY COOZEY COWSTEM COYY Pert. Saucy. "She was a bit coxy didn't ee think?" COYY Pert. Saucy. "She was a bit coxy didn't ee think?" COYYCIG COYY Rottem mess COY Flagged or cobbled area of a farmyard, usually near the house. Similar to caunce imagine. COY-COT Flagged or cobbled area of a farmyard, usually near the house. Similar to caunce imagine. CRAB Verb: to run off line. Eg when ploughing. A vehicle going forward and slightly sideways at the same time. CRABALONG / CRABALORGIN CRABBED CRABBED CRABBET (AT) CRABET CRABBET CRA COWSHEM COWSHEM Cowdung. Dussen, stank in that cowshem there, ee de look pretty fresh te me." COWSHEMY Dull colour of turbled sea. Cowshem, cow-dung. O.E. COWSHENY Dull colour of turbled sea. Cowshem, cow-dung. O.E. COXY Pert. Saucy. "She was a bit coxy didn't ee think? COYNE /COIGN Fert Saucy. "She was a bit coxy didn't ee think? COYNT Toss the head. COYNT Toss the head. COYNT Toss the head. COYNT Rost ness. COZ. Flagged or cobbled area of a farmyard, usually near the house. Similar to caunce imagine. COZ. Flagged or cobbled area of a farmyard, usually near the house. Similar to caunce imagine. CRAB COZ. Similar to caunce imagine. CRABALONG / CRABALORGIN Spider crab. (As above) CRABBET (AT) Searf, or cravat. Also: very clever person. CRABBUT Crabpot. "we'r goyne load these crabbuts onta the van te take down te the boast Ridge Tile CRACE Ridge Tile Tile Ridge Tile Tile Ridge Tile Tile Ridge Tile CRACE Ridge Tile Tile R
COWSHEMY  COWSHERNY  Dull colour of turbled sea. Cowshem, cow-dung, O.E.  COWSHERNY  Dull colour of turbled sea. Cowshem; cow-dung, O.E.  COWSLICK  Hair hanging on forehead  COYNE (COTOR)  Fent Saucy. "She was a bit coxy didn't ee think?  COYNT Toss the head.  COYNT Toss the head.  COY-YCH Rotten mess  COZ Flagged or cobbled area of a farmyard, usually near the house. Similar to caunce imagine.  CRAB Verb: to run off line. Eg when ploughing. A vehicle going forward and slightly sideways at the same time.  Spider rab, (As above)  CRABBED  CRABBED Irritable, Artful  CRABBET (AT)  CRABBET (AT)  CRABBET (AT)  CRABBET (AT)  CRABBET (AT)  CRABBET (AT)  CRACE Ridge Tile  CRACKED Mad, insane  CRACKED Mad, insane  CRACKED Mad, insane  CRAFT / CRAFT  CRAFT
COWSHERNY Dull colour of turbled sea. Cowshern; cow-dung, O.F. CONSTICK Hair hanging on forehead COXY Pert. Saucy. "She was a bit coxy didn't ee think? COYNE/COIGN End stone of a building. I think this must relate to 'quoin', a cornerstone. COYNT Toss the head. COYYCH Rotten mess COZ Flagged or cobbled area of a farmyard, usually near the house. Similar to caunce imagine. CRAB Verb. to run off line. Eg when ploughing. A vehicle going forward and slightly sideways at the same time. CRABALONG / CRABALORGIN Spider crab. (As above) CRABBET (AT) CRABBET (AT) CRABBUT CRABBUT CRABBUT CRACE Ridge Tile CRACKED Mad, insane CRACE CRACE Ridge Tile CRACKED Mad, insane CRAFING CRADIE Raised sides of a corn tiff. ?? Help!! CRAFE / CRAFF To codge up. To mend. To stitch roughly as in mending sails. "You 'ave crafed the shure nutf' look at the puckers in the stitch'n". A bodge job CRAFING CRAILI Basket. CRAILI Basket. CRAMIC A harsh cry. To complain CRACKER Missel thrush. CRAMIC CRAMIC CRAMIC CRAMIC A harsh cry. To complain CRAMIC CRAMIC CRAMIC CRAMIC CRAMIC CRAMIC CRAMIC CRAMIC CRAMIC A lat story – a white lie. "That was a cram shure nuff, b'leeve it did ee?" CRAMIC CRAWE CRAMIC CRAMIC CRAMIC CRAMIC CRAMIC CRAMIC CRAM
COXY Pert. Saucy. "She was a bit coxy didn't ee think? COYNE / COIGN End stone of a building. I think this must relate to 'quoin', a cornerstone. COYNT   Toss the head. COY-YCH   Rotten mess COY-YCH   Rotten mess COY-YCH   Rotten mess CRAB   Verb: to run off line. Eig when ploughing. A vehicle going forward and slightly sideways at the same time. Spider rab, (As above) Irritable, Artful CRABBED   Irritable, Artful CRABBED   Irritable, Artful CRABBUT   Crabpot. "we're govne load these crabbuts onta the van te take down te the boast CRACE   Ridge Tile CRACE   Ridge Tile CRACE   Ridge Tile CRACE   Rassed sides of a corn tiff. ?? Help!! CRAFE / CRAFF   To codge up. To mend. To stitch roughly as in mending sails. "You 'ave crafed if shure nuff look at the puckers in the stitch'n". A bodge job CRAFT / CRAFT   Croft. Uncultivated land CRAIL   Basket. CRAIL   Basket. CRAIMLY MOSSEL   Piece of bread and cream. CRAKER   Missed thrush. CRAME   Piece of bread and cream. CRAME   Crush, crease. Noun: a white lie. CRAMM   A last lots / a complain   CRAMME   A last lots / a white lie. CRAMME   A last lots / a white lie. CRAMME   A last lots / a white lie. CRAMMING   Lying, telling lies CRAMMING   Lying, telling lies CRAMMING   Lying, telling lies CRAMMING   Creatures CRAMMING   Creatur
COYNY Pert. Saucy. "She was a bit coxy didn't ee think?" COYNCH End stone of a building. I think this must relate to 'quoin', a cornerstone. COYNT Toss the head. COY-YCH Rotten mess COZ Flagged or cobbled area of a farmyard, usually near the house. Similar to caunce imagine.  CRAB Verb: to run off line. Eg when ploughing. A vehicle going forward and slightly sideways at the same time.  CRABALONG / CRABALORGIN Spider erab. (As above) CRABBED Irritable, Artful CRABBET (AT) Searf, or eravat. Also: very elever person.  CRABBUT Crabpot. "we're goyne load these crabbuts onta the van te take down te the boast CRACE Ridge Tile CRACKED Mad, insane CRACE Raised sides of a corn tiff. ??? Help!!  CRACKED Mad, insane CRADLE Raised sides of a corn tiff. ??? Help!!  CRAFF / CRAFF To codge up. To mend. To stitch roughly as in mending sails. "You 'ave crafed the shure nuff look at the puckers in the stitch'n". A bodge job  CRAFFING Rough, mending CRAFT / CRAAFT Croft. Uncultivated land CRAIKING Moving about stiffly as with rheumatism.  CRAIL Basket.  CRAIL Basket.  CRAME A harsh cry. To complain  CRAME Missel thrush.  CRAM Crush, crease. Noun: a white lie.  CRAM A tall story — a white lie. "That was a cram shure nuff, b'leeve it did ee?"  CRAME A shure or a hard COYNE (COIGN End stone of a building. I think this must relate to 'quoin', a cornerstone.  COYYCH Toss the head.  COYYCH Rotten mess  COZ Flagged or cobbled area of a farmyard, usually near the house. Similar to caunce imagine.  CRAB Verb: to run off line. Eg when ploughing. A vehicle going forward and slightly sideways at the same time.  CRABBLONG / CRABALORGIN Spider rab, (As above)  Irritable, Artful CRABBED Irritable, Artful CRABBED Irritable, Artful CRABBET (AT) Scarf, or ravat. Also: very clever person.  CRABBUT Crabpot. "we're goyne load these crabbuts onta the van te take down te the boaat CRACE Ridge Tile  CRACED Mad, insane  CRACED Mad, insane  CRACED Mad, insane  CRAPIC Raised sides of a corn tiff. ?? Help!!  CRAFE / CRAFF To codge up. To mend. To stitch roughly as in mending sails. "You 'ave crafed the shure nuff' look at the puckers in the stitch'n". A bodge job  CRAFTING  CRAFTING Rough, mending  CRAFT / CRAAFT Croft. Uncultivated land  CRAIL Basket.  CRAIL Basket.  CRAME MOSSEL Piece of bread and cream.  CRAKE / CRAKING A harsh cry. To complain  CRAKE / CRAKING A harsh cry. To complain  CRAME A tall story — a white lie.  CRAME A tall story — a white lie.  CRAME A tall story — a white lie.  CRAMME A tall story — a white
COY-YCH Rotten mess COZ Flagged or cobbled area of a farmyard, usually near the house. Similar to caunce imagine. CRAB Verb: to run off line. Eg when ploughing. A vehicle going forward and slightly sideways at the same time. CRABBLOG / CRABALORGIN Spider crab. (As above) CRABBET (AT) Scarf, or cravat. Also: very clever person. CRABBUT Crabpet. "we're goyne load these crabbuts onto the van te take down te the boast (CRABUT) CRABBUT Crabpet. "we're goyne load these crabbuts onto the van te take down te the boast (CRACE) CRACE Ridge Tile CRACKED Mad, insane CRACLE Raised sides of a corn tiff. ?? Help!! CRAPE / CRAFF To codge up. To mend. To stitch roughly as in mending sails. "You 'ave crafed the shure nuff look at the puckers in the stitch'n". A bodge job CRAFFING Rough, mending CRAFT / CRAAFT Croft. Uncultivated land CRAIKING Moving about stirily as with rheumatism.  CRAIL Basket. CRAME Picce of bread and cream.  CRAKER / CRAKING A harsh cry. To complain  CRAKER Missel thrush.  CRAM Crush, crease. Noun: a white lie. CRAM A tall story - a white lie. "That was a cram shure nuff, b'leeve it did ce?" CRAME A tall story - a white lie. "That was a cram shure nuff, b'leeve it did ce?" CRAME A tall story - a white lie. "That was a cram shure nuff, b'leeve it did ce?" CRAME A tall story - a white lie. "That was a cram shure nuff, b'leeve it did ce?" CRAME To creep. CRAME A tall story - a white lie. "That was a cram shure nuff, b'leeve it did ce?" CRAME A tall story - a white lie. "That was a cram shure nuff, b'leeve it did ce?" CRAME A tall story - a white lie. "That was a cram shure nuff, b'leeve it did ce?" CRAME To creep. CRAME To creep. CRAME A tall story - a white lie. "That was a cram shure nuff, b'leeve it did ce?" CRAME To creep. CRAME To creep. CRAME To creep. CRAME A tall story - a white lie. "That was a cram shure nuff, b'leeve it did ce?" CRAME To creep. CRAME To cree
COY-YCH  Rotten mess  COZ  Flagged or cobbled area of a farmyard, usually near the house. Similar to caunce imagine.  CRAB  Verb: to run off line. Eg when ploughing. A vehicle going forward and slightly sideways at the same time.  CRABBLONG / CRABALORGIN  Spider crab. (As above)  Irritable, Artful  CRABBET (AT)  Scarf, or cravat. Also: very clever person.  CRABBUT  CRABBUT  CRADLE  Raised sides of a corn tiff. ?? Help!!  CRACE  Ridge Tile  CRACED  Mad. insane  CRADLE  Raised sides of a corn tiff. ?? Help!!  CRAFE / CRAFF  To codge up. To mend. To stich roughly as in mending sails, "You 'ave crafed the shure nuff look at the puckers in the stitch'n". A bodge job  CRAFT / CRAFT  CRAIL  CRAIL  CRAIL  CRAIL  CRAIL  CRAIL  Basket.  CRAIL
Flagged or cobbled area of a farmyard, usually near the house. Similar to caunce imagine.  CRAB  Verb: to run off line. Eg when ploughing. A vehicle going forward and slightly sideways at the same time.  CRABBLONG / CRABALORGIN  ROBBED  CRABBET (AT)  Searf, or cravat. Also: very clever person.  CRABBUT  CRABBUT  CRABBUT  CRABBUT  CRABULE  Raised sides of a corn tiff. ?? Help!!  CRACE  CRACE  CRACED  Mad, insane  CRADLE  Raised sides of a corn tiff. ?? Help!!  CRAFE / CRAFF  To codge up. To mend. To stitch roughly as in mending sails. "You 'ave crafed the shure nuff look at the puckers in the stitch'n". A bodge job  CRAFING  CRAFING  CRAIKING  Moving about stiffly as with rheumatism.  CRAIKING  CRAIKING  CRAME  CRAME  CRAME  CRAME  CRAMM  CRAKER  Missel thrush.  CRAM  CRAMA  A tall story — a white lie. "That was a cram shure nufff, b'leeve it did ee?"  CRAME  CRAME  To creep.  CRAME  A lang lie  CRAME  A lang lie  CRAME  CRAME  A lang lie  CRAME  CRAME  A lang lie  CRAME  A lang lie  CRAME  CRAMB  CRAME  A lang lie  CRAMB  CRAMB  CRAMB  CRAMB  CRAMB  CRAMB  A lang lie  CRAMB  CRAW  Also a cow (bird)  CRAWB  CRAWB  CRAWB  CRAWB  CRAWB  CRAMB  CRAW  Also a cow (bird)  CRAWB  CRAMB  C
crab
CRABBLONG / CRABALORGIN CRABBED CRABBET (AT) Spider crab. (As above) Irritable, Artful CRABBET (AT) CRACE Ridge Tile Raised sides of a corn tiff. ?? Help!! CRACE CRACE CRABET (AB) CRABET (AB) CRAFE (AB) CRABET (AB) CR	COZ
sideways at the same time.  CRABALONG / CRABALORGIN  CRABBED  CRABBET  CRABBET (AT)  Searf, or cravat. Also: very clever person.  CRABBUT  CRABBUT  Crabpot. "we're goyne load these crabbuts onta the van te take down te the boaat crack E  Ridge Tile  CRACKED  Mad, insane  CRACKED  Mad, insane  CRAFE Rised sides of a corn tiff. ?? Help!!  CRAFE / CRAFF  To codge up. To mend. To stitch roughly as in mending sails. "You 'ave crafed the shure nuff look at the puckers in the stitch'n". A bodge job  CRAFTING  CRAFTING  Rough, mending  CRAFT / CRAAFT  Croft. Uncultivated land  CRAIKING  Moving about stiffly as with rheumatism.  CRAIL  CRAIL  Basket.  CRAME / CRAKING  A harsh cry. To complain  CRAKER  Missel thrush.  CRAM  Crush, crease. Noun: a white lie.  CRAM  A tall story — a white lie. "That was a cram shure nuff, b'leeve it did ee?"  CRAME  CRAME  A lass of cream. "Our new Guernsey cow is given sum 'ansome drop o'crame."  CRAMME  A huge lie  CRAMMING  L ving, telling lies  CRAMP  Starfish  CRAN  Tall stories "ees always tellin cramses that one."  CRANT  A musing situation or prank  CRAYEL  CRAWE  A Creatures  CRAME  CRAWE  CRAWE  The lintel over a chimney (granite)  CRAW  Also a crow (bird)  CRAWB  Dried sheep skin.  CRAMS  CRAWB  CRAWB  L impet shell. Croagen, croagen; a small matter.  CRAMS  CRAWB  Dried sheep skin.  CRAMS  CRAWS  CRAMS  CRAWS  CRAMS  CRAWS  CRAWS  CRAMS  CRAMS  CRAMS  CRAMGEN  L impet shell. Croagen, croagen; a small matter.  CRAMS  CRAMS  CRAMS  CRAMS  CRAMS  Dried sheep skin.  CRAMS	CRAR
CRABBLONG / CRABALORGIN   Spider crab. (As above)   CRABBED   Irritable, Artful   Irritable, Artful   CRABBET (AT)   Searf, or cravat. Also: very clever person.   CRABBUT   Crabpot. "we're goyne load these crabbuts onta the van te take down te the boast CRACE   Ridge Tile   Raised sides of a corn   tiff. ?? Help!!   CRACE   Raised sides of a corn   tiff. ?? Help!!   To codge up. To mend. To stitch roughly as in mending sails. "You 'ave crafed the shure nutfl look at the puckers in the stitch'n". A bodge job   CRAFING   Rough, mending   CRAFT / CRAAFT   Croft. Uncultivated land   CRAIKING   Moving about stiffly as with rheumatism.   CRAIL   Basket.   CRAIMEY MOSSEL   Piece of bread and cream.   CRAKE / CRAKING   A harsh cry. To complain   CRAKE / CRAKING   A harsh cry. To complain   CRAKE / CRAKING   A harsh cry. To complain   CRAME   Crush, crease. Noun: a white lie.   "That was a cram shure nuff, b'leeve it did ee?"   CRAME   A tall story – a white lie. "That was a cram shure nuff, b'leeve it did ee?"   CRAME   A huge lie   CRAMMER   A huge lie   CRAMMER   A huge lie   CRAMMING   Lying, telling lies   CRAMMER   A huge lie   CRAMMING   CRAMS   Tall stories "'ees always tellin cramses that one."   CRAMS   Tall stories "'ees always tellin cramses that one."   CRAMS   CRANT   Amusing situation or prank   CRAME   Creatures   Creatures   CRAME   Creatures   Creatures   CRAWE   Creatures   Creatures   CRAWE   Creatures   Creatures   CRAWGEN   The Irritable each of a buddle. Also ridge tiles of a roof. Also ridge of eart bank of a leat caused by continual scouring of leat. (See pednang last, parts of a bank of a leat caused by continual scouring of leat. (See pednang last, parts of a bank of a leat caused by continual scouring of leat. (See pednang last, parts of a bank of a leat caused by continual scouring of leat. (See pednang last, parts of a bank of a leat caused by continual scouring of leat. (See pednang last, parts of a bank of a leat caused by continual scouring of leat. (See pednang last, parts of a bank of	CIVAD
CRABBED   Irritable, Artful	CRABALONG / CRABALORGIN
CRABBET (AT) CRABBUT Crabpot. "we're goyne load these crabbuts onta the van te take down te the boaat CRACE Ridge Tile CRACKED Mad, insane CRACLE Raised sides of a corn tiff. ?? Help!! To codge up. To mend. To stitch roughly as in mending sails. "You 'ave crafed the shure nuff look at the puckers in the stitch'n". A bodge job CRAFING Rough, mending CRAFT/CRAAFT Croft. Uncultivated land CRAIL Basket. CRAIMEY MOSSEL Piece of bread and cream. CRAMEY CRAKING A harsh cry. To complain CRAKER Missel thrush. CRAM CRAME CRAM A tall story – a white lie. "That was a cram shure nuff, b'leeve it did ee?" CRAME CRAME A lall story – a white lie. "That was a cram shure nuff, b'leeve it did ee?" CRAME CRAME A lall story – a white lie. "That was a cram shure nuff, b'leeve it did ee?" CRAME CRAME A lall story – a white lie. "That was a cram shure nuff, b'leeve it did ee?" CRAME A lall story – a white lie. "That was a cram shure nuff, b'leeve it did ee?" CRAME A lall story – a white lie. "That was a cram shure nuff, b'leeve it did ee?" CRAME A lall story – a white lie. "That was a cram shure nuff, b'leeve it did ee?" CRAME A lall story – a white lie. "That was a cram shure nuff, b'leeve it did ee?" CRAME A lall story – a white lie. "That was a cram shure nuff, b'leeve it did ee?" CRAME A lall story – a white lie. "That was a cram shure nuff, b'leeve it did ee?" CRAME A huse lie CRAMING Lying, telling lies CRAMP Starfish CRAMS Tall stories "'ees always tellin cramses that one." CRAN BOO herrings CRANT Amusing situation or prank CRAPPLE A Cripple CRATES Creatures CRATES Creatures CRATES Creatures CRATES Creatures CRAVEL The lintel over a chimney (granite) The lintel over a chimne
CRACE Ridge Tile CRACKED Mad, insane CRACKED Mad, insane CRACKED Raised sides of a corn tiff. ?? Help!! CRAFE / CRAFF To codge up. To mend. To stitch roughly as in mending sails, "You 'ave crafed the shure nuff look at the puckers in the stitch'n". A bodge job CRAFING Rough, mending CRAFING Moving about stiffly as with rheumatism. CRAIL Basket. CRAIL Basket. CRAIMEY MOSSEL Piece of bread and cream. CRAKE / CRAKING A harsh cry. To complain CRAKE / CRAKING A harsh cry. To complain CRAME A tall story — a white lie. CRAM Crush, crease. Noun: a white lie. CRAME To creep. CRAME A huge lie CRAME A huge lie CRAMING Lying, telling lies CRAMING Lying, telling lies CRAMING Tall stories "'ees always tellin cramses that one." CRANT Amusing situation or prank CRAPPLE A Cripple CRAWE The lintel over a chimney (granite) CRAW Also a crow (bird) CRAW Also a crow (bird) CRAWB Dried sheep skin. CRAWB Dried sheep skin. CRAWB Also a crow (bird) CRAWB Also a crow (bird) CRAWB Dried sheep skin. CRAWB Limpet shell. Croagen, crogan; a small matter. CRAWG Dried sheep skin. CRAWG Dried sheep skin. CRAWG Dried sheep skin. CRAWS Dried sheep skin.		,
CRACKED Mad, insane CRADLE Raised sides of a corn tiff. ?? Help!!  CRAFE / CRAFF To codge up. To mend. To stitch roughly as in mending sails. "You 'ave crafed the shure nuff' look at the puckers in the stitch'n". A bodge job  CRAFFING Rough, mending CRAFT / CRAAFT Croft. Uncultivated land CRAIKING Moving about stiffly as with rheumatism.  CRAIL Basket. CRAIL Basket. CRAIMEY MOSSEL Piece of bread and cream.  CRAKE / CRAKING A harsh cry. To complain  CRAKE / CRAKING A harsh cry. To complain  CRAME Missel thrush.  CRAM Crush, crease. Noun: a white lie.  CRAM A tall story – a white lie. "That was a cram shure nuff, b'leeve it did ee?"  CRAME To creep.  CRAME A haye lie  CRAMBE A huge lie  CRAMME A huge lie  CRAMMING Lying, telling lies  CRAMP Starfish  CRAMP Starfish  CRAMS Tall stories "ees always tellin cramses that one."  CRANT Amusing situation or prank  CRANT Amusing situation or prank  CRAPPLE A Cripple  CRATES Creatures  CRAVEL The limitel over a chimney (granite)  CRAW Also a crow (bird)  CRAWB Dried sheep skin.  CRAWB Dried sheep skin.  CRAWN Dried sheep skin.  CRAWN Dried sheep skin.  CRAYS / CRAZE bendands.	` /
CRACKED  CRADLE  Raised sides of a corn tiff. ?? Help!!  To codge up. To mend. To stitch roughly as in mending sails. "You 'ave crafed the shure nuff look at the puckers in the stitch'n". A bodge job  CRAFFING  Rough, mending  CRAFT / CRAAFT  CRAINING  Moving about stiffly as with rheumatism.  CRAIL  CRAIMEY MOSSEL  Piece of bread and cream.  CRAKE / CRAKING  A harsh cry. To complain  CRAKE / CRAKING  CRAMME   Missel thrush.  CRAMME   Missel thrush.  CRAMME   To creep.  CRAME   A tall story – a white lie. "That was a cram shure nuff, b'leeve it did ee?"  CRAME   A tall story – a white lie. "That was a cram shore nuff, b'leeve it did ee?"  CRAME   A lauge lie  CRAMME   A lauge lie  CRAMMING   Lying, telling lies  CRAMMING   Lying, telling lies  CRAMP   Starfish  CRAMS   Tall stories "ees always tellin cramses that one."  CRANT   Anusing situation or prank  CRAPPLE   A Cripple  CRATES   Creatures  CRAVEL   The lintel over a chimney (granite)  CRAW   Also a crow (bird)  CRAWB   Dried sheep skin.  CRAWN   Dried sheep skin.  CRAWN   Dried sheep skin.  CRAMN   Crease: the middle head of a buddle. Also ridge tiles of a roof. Also ridge of eart bank of a leat caused by continual scouring of leat. (See pednang last, parts of a CRAFE / CRAFF  To codge up. To mend. To stitch roughly as in mending sails. "You 'ave crafed the shure nuff look at the puckers in the stitch'n". A bodge job  CRAFT / CRAAFT  Croft. Uncultivated land  CRAIKING  Moving about stiffly as with rheumatism.  CRAIMEY MOSSEL  Piece of bread and cream.  CRAME / CRAKING  A harsh cry. To complain  CRAME / CRAME  CRAMM  CRAME  CRAMM  CRAME  To creep.  CRAME  A tall story – a white lie. "That was a cram shure nuff, b'leeve it did ee?"  CRAME  CRAME  To creep.  CRAME  A land Cream. "Our new Guernsey cow is given sum 'ansome drop o'crame."  CRAMMER  CRAMMER  A huge lie  CRAMMING  Lying, telling lies  CRAMP  CRAMS  Tall stories "'ees always tellin cramses that one."  CRANT  CRANT  Amusing situation or prank  CRAPPLE  A Cripple  CRATES  CREATES  CREATES  CREATES  CREATES  CREATES  CRAVEL  The lintel over a chimney (granite)  CRAW  Also a crow (bird)  CRAWB  Dried sheep skin.  CRAWS  CRA	CRACKED shure nuff look at the puckers in the stitch'n". A bodge job  CRAFFING Rough, mending CRAFT / CRAAFT Croft. Uncultivated land CRAIKING Moving about stiffly as with rheumatism.  CRAIL Basket. CRAIMEY MOSSEL Piece of bread and cream. CRAKE / CRAKING A harsh cry. To complain CRAKER Missel thrush. CRAM Crush, crease. Noun: a white lie. CRAM A tall story – a white lie. "That was a cram shure nuff, b'leeve it did ee?" CRAME To creep. CRAME A lals of cream. "Our new Guernsey cow is given sum 'ansome drop o'crame." CRAMMER A huge lie CRAMMING Lying, telling lies CRAMP Starfish CRAMS Tall stories "'ees always tellin cramses that one." CRANT Amusing situation or prank CRAPLE A Creatures CRATES CRATES Creatures CRAVEL The lintel over a chimney (granite) CRAW The CRAW Also a crow (bird) CRAWB Dried sheep skin. CRAWS Dried sheep skin CRAYS / CRAZE Creates create the middle head of a buddle. Also ridge tiles of a roof. Also ridge of eart bank of a leat caused by continual scouring of leat. (See pednang last, parts of a	CRADLE	Raised sides of a corn tiff. ?? Help!!
CRAFFING CRAFT / CRAAFT Croft. Uncultivated land CRAIKING Moving about stiffly as with rheumatism.  CRAIL Basket. CRAIMEY MOSSEL Piece of bread and cream. CRAKE / CRAKING A harsh cry. To complain CRAKER CRAKER Missel thrush. CRAM Crush, crease. Noun: a white lie. CRAM CRAM A tall story – a white lie. "That was a cram shure nuff, b'leeve it did ee?" CRAME To creep. CRAME A huge lie CRAMBE CRAMBE A huge lie CRAMP Starfish CRAMP Starfish CRAMS Tall stories "'ees always tellin cramses that one." CRANT Amusing situation or prank CRAPLE A Cripple CRATERS CRATES CRATES CRATES CRAWE CRAW The Intel over a chimney (granite) CRAW CRAW Also a crow (bird) CRAWB Dried sheep skin. CRAWS CRAWS CRAWS CRAWS CRAWS Dried sheep skin CRAYS / CRAZE Creaters bank of a leat caused by continual scouring of leat. (See pednang last, parts of a	CRAFE / CRAFF	To codge up. To mend. To stitch roughly as in mending sails. "You 'ave crafed that up
CRAFT / CRAAFT CRAIKING Moving about stiffly as with rheumatism.  CRAIL Basket. CRAIMEY MOSSEL Piece of bread and cream.  CRAKE / CRAKING A harsh cry. To complain CRAKER CRAM CRAM CRAM CRAM CRAM A tall story – a white lie. CRAM CRAME To creep. CRAME Also Cream. "Our new Guernsey cow is given sum 'ansome drop o'crame." CRAMBE CRAMING CRAMBI CRAPLE A Cripple CRATERS Creatures CRATES CRATES CRATES CRATES CRATES CRATES CRAWBI CRAWB Dried sheep skin. CRAWB CRAWB Dried sheep skin CRAWN CRAMS CRAWN Dried sheep skin CRAWN Dried sheep skin CRAWN CRAMS CRAWS C		shure nuff look at the puckers in the stitch'n". A bodge job
CRAIKING Moving about stiffly as with rheumatism.  CRAIL Basket.  CRAIMEY MOSSEL Piece of bread and cream.  CRAKE / CRAKING A harsh cry. To complain  CRAKER Missel thrush.  CRAM Crush, crease. Noun: a white lie.  CRAM A tall story – a white lie. "That was a cram shure nuff, b'leeve it did ee?"  CRAME To creep.  CRAME A huge lie  CRAME A huge lie  CRAMMER A huge lie  CRAMBO Lying, telling lies  CRAMP Starfish  CRAMS Tall stories "'ees always tellin cramses that one."  CRAM 800 herrings  CRANT Amusing situation or prank  CRAPPLE A Cripple  CRATES Creatures  CRATES Creatures  CRAVEL The lintel over a chimney (granite)  CRAW Also a crow (bird)  CRAWB Dried sheep skin.  CRAWGEN Limpet shell. Croagen, crogan; a small matter.  CRAWN Dried sheep skin  CRAYS / CRAZE Crease: the middle head of a buddle. Also ridge tiles of a roof. Also ridge of eart bank of a leat caused by continual scouring of leat. (See pednang last, parts of a CRAIMEY MOSSEL Piece of bread and cream.  CRAKE / CRAKING A harsh cry. To complain CRAKER Missel thrush. CRAM Crush, crease. Noun: a white lie. CRAM A tall story – a white lie. "That was a cram shure nuff, b'leeve it did ee?" CRAME CRAME A tall story – a white lie. "That was a cram shure nuff, b'leeve it did ee?" CRAME CRAME A laso Cream. "Our new Guernsey cow is given sum 'ansome drop o'crame." CRAMMER A huge lie CRAMMING Lying, telling lies CRAMP Starfish CRAMS Tall stories "'ees always tellin cramses that one." CRAN CRANT Amusing situation or prank CRAPPLE A Cripple CRATES Creatures CRATES Creatures CRAVEL The lintel over a chimney (granite) CRAW The Crop CRAW Also a crow (bird) CRAWB Dried sheep skin. CRAWN Dried sheep skin CRAWN Dried sheep skin CRAYS / CRAZE Crease: the middle head of a buddle. Also ridge tiles of a roof. Also ridge of eart bank of a leat caused by continual scouring of leat. (See pednang last, parts of a	CRAFT / CRAAFT
CRAIMEY MOSSEL  Piece of bread and cream.  CRAKE / CRAKING  A harsh cry. To complain  CRAM  Crush, crease. Noun: a white lie.  CRAM  CRAM  A tall story – a white lie. "That was a cram shure nuff, b'leeve it did ee?"  CRAME  CRAME  To creep.  CRAME  Also Cream. "Our new Guernsey cow is given sum 'ansome drop o'crame."  CRAMMER  A huge lie  CRAMMING  Lying, telling lies  CRAMS  Tall stories "'ees always tellin cramses that one."  CRAMS  CRANI  CRANI  CRANI  CRANI  CRAPPLE  A Cripple  CRATERS  Creatures  CRATES  CRATES  CRATES  CRATES  CRAVEL  The lintel over a chimney (granite)  CRAWB  CRAWB  Dried sheep skin.  CRAWGEN  Limpet shell. Croagen, crogan; a small matter.  CRAWN  Dried sheep skin  CRANI  CRAYS / CRAZE  Creates creating of leat. (See pednang last, parts of a bank of a leat caused by continual scouring of leat. (See pednang last, parts of a	CRAIKING
CRAKE / CRAKING CRAKER Missel thrush. CRAM Crush, crease. Noun: a white lie. CRAM A tall story – a white lie. "That was a cram shure nuff, b'leeve it did ee?" CRAME To creep. CRAME A huge lie CRAMBE CRAMBE CRAMMER A huge lie CRAMMING Lying, telling lies CRAMP Starfish CRAMS Tall stories "'ees always tellin cramses that one." CRAMN CRANT Amusing situation or prank CRANT CRAPPLE A Cripple CRATES CRATES CRATES CRATES CRAVEL The lintel over a chimney (granite) CRAW Also a crow (bird) CRAWB CRAWGEN CRAWN CRAWN CRAWN Dried sheep skin. CRAWN CRAYS / CRAZE Creatures of a buddle. Also ridge tiles of a roof. Also ridge of eart bank of a leat caused by continual scouring of leat. (See pednang last, parts of a CRAM Crush, crease. Noun: a white lie.  CRAM A tall story – a white lie. "That was a cram shure nuff, b'leeve it did ee?"  CRAME To creep.  CRAME Also Cream. "Our new Guernsey cow is given sum 'ansome drop o'crame."  CRAME Also Cream. "Our new Guernsey cow is given sum 'ansome drop o'crame."  CRAMMER A huge lie  CRAMMING Lying, telling lies  CRAMP Starfish  CRAMS Tall stories "'ees always tellin cramses that one."  CRAN 800 herrings  CRANT Amusing situation or prank  CRAPPLE A Cripple  CRATERS Creatures  CRATES Creatures  CRATES Creatures  CRAVEL The lintel over a chimney (granite)  CRAW Also a crow (bird)  CRAWB Dried sheep skin.  CRAWN Dried sheep skin  CRAYS / CRAZE  Crease: the middle head of a buddle. Also ridge tiles of a roof. Also ridge of eart bank of a leat caused by continual scouring of leat. (See pednang last, parts of a CRAM Crush, crease. Noun: a white lie.  CRAM A tall story – a white lie. "That was a cram shure nuff, b'leeve it did ee?"  CRAME To creep.  CRAME Also Cream. "Our new Guernsey cow is given sum 'ansome drop o'crame."  CRAMMER A huge lie  CRAMMING Lying, telling lies  CRAMP Starfish  CRAMS Tall stories "'ees always tellin cramses that one."  CRAN 800 herrings  CRANT Amusing situation or prank  CRAPPLE A Cripple  CRATERS Creatures  CRAVEL The lintel over a chimney (granite)  CRAW Also a crow (bird)  CRAWB Dried sheep skin.  CRAWGEN Limpet shell . Croagen, crogan; a small matter.  CRAYS / CRAZE Creating of a leat caused by continual scouring of leat. (See pednang last, parts of a CRAME To creep.  CRAME Also Cream. "Our new Guernsey cow is given sum 'ansome drop o'crame."  CRAME CRAME Also Cream. "Our new Guernsey cow is given sum 'ansome drop o'crame."  CRAMMER A huge lie CRAMMING Lying, telling lies CRAMP Starfish CRAMS Tall stories "'ees always tellin cramses that one."  CRAN 800 herrings CRANT Amusing situation or prank CRAPPLE CRATERS Creatures CRATES Creatures CRAVEL The lintel over a chimney (granite)  CRAW Also a crow (bird) CRAWB Dried sheep skin.  CRAWGEN Limpet shell . Croagen, crogan; a small matter.  CRAYS / CRAZE Crease: the middle head of a buddle. Also ridge tiles of a roof. Also ridge of eart bank of a leat caused by continual scouring of leat. (See pednang last, parts of a CRAME  CRAME  Also Cream. "Our new Guernsey cow is given sum 'ansome drop o'crame."  CRAMMER  A huge lie  CRAMMING  Lying, telling lies  CRAMP  Starfish  CRAMS  Tall stories "'ees always tellin cramses that one."  CRAN  800 herrings  CRANT  Amusing situation or prank  CRAPPLE  CRATERS  Creatures  CRATES  Creatures  CRAVEL  The lintel over a chimney (granite)  CRAW  CRAW  Also a crow (bird)  CRAWB  Dried sheep skin.  CRAYS / CRAZE  Crease: the middle head of a buddle. Also ridge tiles of a roof. Also ridge of eart bank of a leat caused by continual scouring of leat. (See pednang last, parts of a CRAME  CRAMMER  A huge lie  CRAMMING  Lying, telling lies  CRAMP  Starfish  CRAMS  Tall stories "'ees always tellin cramses that one."  CRAN  800 herrings  CRANT  Amusing situation or prank  CRAPPLE  CRATERS  Creatures  CRATES  CRAVEL  The lintel over a chimney (granite)  CRAW  CRAW  Also a crow (bird)  CRAWB  CRAWB  Dried sheep skin.  CRAYS / CRAZE  Crease: the middle head of a buddle. Also ridge tiles of a roof. Also ridge of eart bank of a leat caused by continual scouring of leat. (See pednang last, parts of a CRAMMER CRAMMING Lying, telling lies CRAMP Starfish CRAMS Tall stories "'ees always tellin cramses that one." CRAN 800 herrings CRANT Amusing situation or prank CRAPPLE CRATERS Creatures CRATES CRAVEL The lintel over a chimney (granite) CRAW CRAW Also a crow (bird) CRAWB Dried sheep skin. CRAWGEN CRAYS / CRAZE Crease: the middle head of a buddle. Also ridge tiles of a roof. Also ridge of eart bank of a leat caused by continual scouring of leat. (See pednang last, parts of a CRAMMING CRAMP Starfish CRAMS Tall stories "'ees always tellin cramses that one."  CRAN 800 herrings CRANT Amusing situation or prank CRAPPLE CRATERS Creatures CRATES Creatures CRAVEL The lintel over a chimney (granite) CRAW CRAW Also a crow (bird) CRAW CRAWB Dried sheep skin. CRAWGEN Limpet shell . Croagen, crogan; a small matter. CRAYS / CRAZE Creates the middle head of a buddle. Also ridge tiles of a roof. Also ridge of eart bank of a leat caused by continual scouring of leat. (See pednang last, parts of a
CRAMS Tall stories "'ees always tellin cramses that one."  CRAN 800 herrings  CRANT Amusing situation or prank  CRAPPLE A Cripple  CRATERS Creatures  CRATES Creatures  CRAVEL The lintel over a chimney (granite)  CRAW The Crop  CRAW Also a crow (bird)  CRAWB Dried sheep skin.  CRAWGEN Limpet shell . Croagen, crogan; a small matter.  CRAWN Dried sheep skin  CRAYS / CRAZE Crease: the middle head of a buddle. Also ridge tiles of a roof. Also ridge of eart bank of a leat caused by continual scouring of leat. (See pednang last, parts of a CRAMS Tall stories "'ees always tellin cramses that one."  CRAN 800 herrings  CRANT Amusing situation or prank  CRAPPLE A Cripple  CRATERS Creatures  CRATES Creatures  CRAVEL The lintel over a chimney (granite)  CRAW Also a crow (bird)  CRAW Also a crow (bird)  CRAWB Dried sheep skin.  CRAWGEN Limpet shell . Croagen, crogan; a small matter.  CRAWN Dried sheep skin  CRAYS / CRAZE Crease: the middle head of a buddle. Also ridge tiles of a roof. Also ridge of eart bank of a leat caused by continual scouring of leat. (See pednang last, parts of a CRANT CRAPPLE A Cripple CRATERS Creatures CRAVEL The lintel over a chimney (granite) CRAW CRAWB CRAWB CRAWB CRAWGEN CRAWN CRAWN CRAYS / CRAZE  Solution CRAYS / CRAZE  Solution CRAW Solution CRAWS Solution CRAYS / CRAZE Crease: the middle head of a buddle. Also ridge tiles of a roof. Also ridge of eart bank of a leat caused by continual scouring of leat. (See pednang last, parts of a CRAPPLE A Cripple CRATERS Creatures CRATES Creatures CRAVEL The lintel over a chimney (granite) CRAW The Crop CRAW Also a crow (bird) CRAWB Dried sheep skin. CRAWGEN Limpet shell . Croagen, crogan; a small matter. CRAWN Dried sheep skin CRAYS / CRAZE Crease: the middle head of a buddle. Also ridge tiles of a roof. Also ridge of eart bank of a leat caused by continual scouring of leat. (See pednang last, parts of a CRAPPLE A Cripple CRATERS Creatures CRATES Creatures CRAVEL The lintel over a chimney (granite) CRAW The Crop CRAW Also a crow (bird) CRAWB Dried sheep skin. CRAWGEN Limpet shell . Croagen, crogan; a small matter. CRAWN Dried sheep skin CRAYS / CRAZE Crease: the middle head of a buddle. Also ridge tiles of a roof. Also ridge of eart bank of a leat caused by continual scouring of leat. (See pednang last, parts of a CRATES CRAVEL The lintel over a chimney (granite) CRAW The Crop CRAW Also a crow (bird) CRAWB Dried sheep skin. CRAWGEN Limpet shell . Croagen, crogan; a small matter. CRAWN Dried sheep skin CRAYS / CRAZE Crease: the middle head of a buddle. Also ridge tiles of a roof. Also ridge of eart bank of a leat caused by continual scouring of leat. (See pednang last, parts of a CRAVEL The lintel over a chimney (granite)  CRAW The Crop  CRAW Also a crow (bird)  CRAWB Dried sheep skin.  CRAWGEN Limpet shell . Croagen, crogan; a small matter.  CRAWN Dried sheep skin  CRAYS / CRAZE Crease: the middle head of a buddle. Also ridge tiles of a roof. Also ridge of earth bank of a leat caused by continual scouring of leat. (See pednang last, parts of a CRAVEL  CRAW  The Crop  CRAW  Also a crow (bird)  CRAWB  Dried sheep skin.  CRAWGEN  Limpet shell . Croagen, crogan; a small matter.  CRAWN  Dried sheep skin  CRAYS / CRAZE  Crease: the middle head of a buddle. Also ridge tiles of a roof. Also ridge of earth bank of a leat caused by continual scouring of leat. (See pednang last, parts of a CRAW Also a crow (bird)  CRAWB Dried sheep skin.  CRAWGEN Limpet shell . Croagen, crogan; a small matter.  CRAWN Dried sheep skin  CRAYS / CRAZE Crease: the middle head of a buddle. Also ridge tiles of a roof. Also ridge of earth bank of a leat caused by continual scouring of leat. (See pednang last, parts of a CRAWB Dried sheep skin. CRAWGEN Limpet shell . Croagen, crogan; a small matter. CRAWN Dried sheep skin  CRAYS / CRAZE Crease: the middle head of a buddle. Also ridge tiles of a roof. Also ridge of eart bank of a leat caused by continual scouring of leat. (See pednang last, parts of a CRAWB       Dried sheep skin.         CRAWGEN       Limpet shell . Croagen, crogan; a small matter.         CRAWN       Dried sheep skin         CRAYS / CRAZE       Crease: the middle head of a buddle. Also ridge tiles of a roof. Also ridge of eart bank of a leat caused by continual scouring of leat. (See pednang last, parts of a CRAWGEN  CRAWN  Dried sheep skin  CRAYS / CRAZE  Crease: the middle head of a buddle. Also ridge tiles of a roof. Also ridge of earth bank of a leat caused by continual scouring of leat. (See pednang last, parts of a CRAWN  CRAYS / CRAZE  Crease: the middle head of a buddle. Also ridge tiles of a roof. Also ridge of earth bank of a leat caused by continual scouring of leat. (See pednang last, parts of a CRAYS / CRAZE  Crease: the middle head of a buddle. Also ridge tiles of a roof. Also ridge of eart bank of a leat caused by continual scouring of leat. (See pednang last, parts of a bank of a leat caused by continual scouring of leat. (See pednang last, parts of a		Crease: the middle head of a buddle. Also ridge tiles of a roof. Also ridge of earth on the Buddle.)
CRAZE The 'middlin's' of a buddle	CRAZE	The 'middlin's' of a buddle

CRAZE MILL	Stone mill formerly used to crack large sized tin ore.
CRAZ'D A SQUEER	Cracke or broken, a square pane of glass
CREAG	A crack. Cp. W. cryk.
CREAG / CRIG	Burrow, barrow, tumulus. "Tis full o' they creags out to Goonhilly."
CREAMY MOSSEL	Bread and cream
CREASE	A building term for the ridge of the roof
CREASE / CRESSER	Half grown bream. Also a person who exaggerates.
CREDDLE / CROWDLE	Loiter. "See that stranger aver there do ee? 'e bin creedlin' round they push bikes all
CREDDLE / CROWDLE	af noon. Gus on over to en an' see w'at he's up to."
CREECHER	Missel thrush. Originally Screecher E.D.D.
CREEM
	To squeeze. Trembling, fear
CREEM	Also to grip firly in jaws,or vice "Creem un right up tight 'e'll stay there then."
CREEN	Of stone, readily split, to shale away. Cp.
CREEN	To grieve, to pine or complain
CREEN(ING)	To grieve. Complain (complaining of illness) Old people are sometimes said to be creeners. (Crene, Cornish)
CREENER / CREENING	An ailing sickly person. Complaining. "A creenin' woman will live fer ever!" Old people are sometimes said to be creeners. Crene , Cornish
CREENY	Felling cold
CREEPY STOOL	Very low stool for the smallest children to set pon in front the fire.
CREEPY-CREEPY	Trembling
CREEVED	Food improperly cooked. 'Half raw'
CREEVED	Partly-cooked; half raw. Please see CREEVED above, which is it, can someone help
ODECCED / CDYCED / CDECCTION	please?
CREGSER / CRYSER / CRESSHOK	The kestrel.
CRELL / CRILL	Frayed ends of a border. See Crully.
CRELLAS	Ancient broken down hut. From shaken down. "an excavation in a bank roofed to make a shelter"
CREMMED WITH LOUCH	Full of rubbish "Our backhouse is cremmed with louch, you an't eben standup in un ees sa full."
CREPPLE	Cripple
CRESSER	A fish resembling a Bream
CREVAN	A dry hard crust. "I nearly brock my false teeth on that crevan you gived me."
CREVAN	Crust
CREW	Manx shearwater.
CRIB (AWAY)	To break bits off or to crumble. "That there plaster on that wall 'ave cribbed away brave aver the last few months, p'raps there's mundic in en." Or to crumble away naturally.
CRIB	Food taken at breaktime
CRIB	Comb or crest.
CRIB	To c heat by glancing at another's answers, perhaps at school.
CRIBBAGE FACE	Thin wrinkled face
CRIBBED	Broken china ornament, especially a projecting part.
CRIBBED AWAY
	Worn away. 'the road has cribbed away at the edges.  Part of the harness of a "Vore" horse
CRIBBEN
CRIBBER	A small eater – 'picker of food. "She's a real cribber at meal times she dawn't think nathin 'bout the waste of good food."
CRIBBIN' THE FLINT	Removing edges of flint
CRIBBLE	To fray out Also, a grating across a stream (stream-works) (To wear out by friction)
CRICK	Crick-stone. Another name for the Men-an-tol or other ancient holed stone, derived from its power of curing children's complaints, particularly Ricketts
CRICK(L)ING	Collecting items for marriage. "Now they're engaged, they'll be busy crickling stuff for the 'bottom drawer'.
CRICKEN / CRICKS / CRINNICKS	Dry sticks at end of a furze rick; hedge kindling wood.
	Low, three-legged stool. "We de sit down on the cricket te milky the cows."
CRICKETY CRICKETY	Frail, rickety (brickly)
CRICKETY CRICKIN'	Picking sticks & odds & ends
CRICKING
CRICKLE	Picking up loose dried sticks from hedgerows. (See CRICK above.)
	Of a prop in a mine, to break or totter under weight.
CRICKLIN	Breaking down from overweight
CRICKLY  CRICKMOLE / CRICKMAL	Frail, rickety  Somewordt, "Soon that allows up to the girous 'ayo as? 'a can do a thrimple grickmole."
CRICKMOLE / CRICKMAL	Somersault. "Seen that clown up te the circus 'ave ee? 'e can do a thripple crickmole; I've never seen othing' like it."
CRICKS	Dead twigs, particularly those lying in the countryside hedgerows. "Clear up they cricks round the front door will 'e the wind must of blawed them in.
CRICKSTONE	A holed stone, with supposedly magic powers to cure a crick in the back ikf gthe sufferer

	could crawl through it
CRID	Curd from mastitis affected milk,
CRIDDLE	Curdle
CRIDS	Cruds
CRIG	A round mow of corn
CRIM	To shiver with cold. "Tis keen nuff this marnin to make ee crim with the cold edna?
CRIM / CROOM / CRUMMET	Crumb. Also, a short time, "wait a croom." A tiny amount
CRINGLE	Gate or door hasp. "The cringle on the outhouse door is brock now, Mrs will ;ave git a
CKINGLE	new one w'en she next go in te town."
CRINION	Barley bran.
CRINK	Turn or twist. "it en with the hammer an' crink en aver."
	To shiver. (See crim above)
CRINNY
CRIP(B)	To bereak a small bit off
CRIPPLE	Any creeping thing. Long or Slow cripple: the slowworm or blind-worm.
CRIPPLE	A lame or disabled person, probably one who has some form of eformity and unable to
CDIDG	work.
CRIPS	Crisps "Put a packet of they there crips in my crib box will 'e mawther?"
CRIPSE	To craze or crack glass or earthenware.
CRIPSED	Nicely browned
CRISS-CROSS ROW	The alphabet. (In the old books is was always headed with a Cross. See WIKIPEDIA on line)
CRISSY-CROSSY	The pattern made on heavy cake i.e. criss cross
CRITCH	Crutch
CRITICAL	A critical parish: one difficult to deal with.
CRO	Mine spirit, the zellan. ?? Anyone any ideas what a zellan is??
CROAGER	Very small matter
CROAKE	Complainer
CROCK	Three-legged iron cooking pot. Less put the crock on the trivet an' warm up that stew, my pots is rattlin" Similar to a small cauldron. (Croca, Anglo Saxon. Crochan, Cornish for The Pot.)
CROCK	Large cast iron open vessel hung on the crooks at one side of the open hearth. (Similar to above.)
CROCK ON	An invitation to take one's arm! (How very romantic)
CRODER / CROWDY	A fiddle player. "That ol'd croder is comin round again with 'is cap in 'is 'and. I'm goyne un latch the door and go out back."
CD CETHANDA DON DONATE
CROFTHANDY DRY DRIZZLE	Mizzle or sqewy drizzle
CROFTS	Unbroken rough ground; much of this was broken in pre and during WWII to help feed us all.
CROG(G)AN / CRAWGEN	Limpet shell
CRONECK	The toad. Cor. Cronek
CROOK	Hook, - eg. Boot-crook
CROOK / CROOPY / CROOP	Bend, to stoop down. "I 'ate picken they vilolets, it de just kill yer back croopen down all the time."
CROOKED	Arm in arm. "I see Alfred and 'is new girl friend are gone outlong crooked up together;
	true romance spose."
CROOKS	Wooden hoops supporting panniers.
CROOKS	Two iron hooks suspended from a bar across the the chimney; they were adjustable for height and could be slid sideways to bring them over the fire. [see CROCK]
CROOM / CRIM	A small quantity. "Cud I 'ave a crim of sugar please Mrs. Varker?"
CROON	To wail.
CROONY	Foolish. Imbecile. "He's a proper croony sure nuff."
CROP	Best of the concentrated tin.
CROP OF THE BUNCH	Best of the concentrated till.  Best of the family either human or animal. Prettiest
CROPE – CROPISH/ CROPEING	To be miserly – greedy or stingy person. "She's a right ol' crope, she dawn't put
CROLE - CROPISH/ CROPEING	nothing in the offertory box up Chapel of a Sunday; I've watched 'er week by week, tis
CDOD CW / CDOUCDUC	always the same."
CRORGY / CROUGING	Miserable person; always complaining. Also, shuffling. "She's always crouging, CDOCENIC	nawthin is ever right far the woman, she dun aw 'ow well off she is."
CROSENS	Limpet shells
CROSS CUT	Mining term. Also, contradictory person, "always on the cross-cut."
CROSS SIGHTED	Squinting.
CROUGIN'	Shuffling
CROUST / CROWST	Lunch (Also see Crib) which is food eaten between meals.
CROW	Top sheaf at the ridge of a rick.
CROW	Pigsty (rhymes with 'now')

CROW / CRAW	Boast. Brag. "Dammy 'tall, what are ee crowin' 'bout now, you've awnly won third prize."
CROWD	A fiddle. To press. A crowder is a fiddler. (crwth, Welch)
CROWD	Purr like a (cat)
CROWD / CROWDER	A slow-coach. Dawdler. He's a proper crowder, always three scats be'ind the rest."
CROWD/CROWDY-CRAWN	A sheepskinned bottomed corn measure, used as a tambourine.
CROWDING	Purring. 'The cat's crowding'
CROWDLE (ING)	Loiter, Loitering. (See crowder above)
CROWDY	To play the fiddle. Cor. Crowd, a fiddle. "He can crowdy real 'ansmome, you just hum it once an' ee can play it."
CROWDY CRAWN	Wooden sieve with sheepskin bottom used for oddments and as a tambourine. (see Crowd above)
CROWDY-SCRATCH	The fiddle stick. "look up, he've bin an' brock a string on 'is crowdy-scratch.'
CROWNER	Coroner. "The crowner said,' accidental death'. But I still bleeve 'e was pushed."
CROWNING	An inquest. "At the crowning the jury took ages te make up their minds."
CROWS FOOT	Kenning Herb (Hemp)
CROWS-AN-WREA	Witches croft
CROWSECK	Cross tempered.
CROW-SHEAF	Top-most sheaf in row of corn Cp. Welsh, crewyn, last load of corn.
CROWST	A meal eaten at the workplace. (See also Crib & Croust)
CROWST / CROUST	Aforenoon snack (crust)
CRUB	Angle of blade to shovel handle (hilt)
CRUCKEY	Verb: to crouch down. (See also clucky)
CRUDDLE	To curdle, go sour. Also off ice; "too rudely to go skating." ?? This is a bit obscure, assistance please.
CRUDDLY	Curley
CRUDDLY	Curly. "With this damp air see 'ow 'er air is gone cruddly."
CRUDGS / CRUDDY	Sour milk formerly taken to Penzance market, carried in pitchers on women's heads. "This milk is all gone cruddly ma, I an't drink this."
CRUEL	Cruel-hard. Extremely difficult. "That job you gived the boy te do was a bit cruel wadna?"
CRUEL	Emphatic interjection. "cruel shape", "cruel wisht."
CRUEL FINE (GOOD)	Very fine; Very good
CRULLED	Encrusted
CRULLY / CRAIL	Curly and verb, to curl.
CRULLY-HEAD	Curly-head. "The child is just born but 'e got a crully-head already."
CRUM	When the angle made by a tool shaft to the blade is small, it is crum.
CRUM/CROOM	A little bit of anything. In other parts of the kingdom a crum(b) is generally confined to bread or cake. Crwth Welch. (Cruma, Sax.)
CRUM-A-GACKLE	Perplexity; bother
CRUMBED / CRUMB	Very fine. Drawn together with cold. Numb fingers. Bent
CRUMPTINS	Small eformed apples. "I've jus' picked up a pail full o' crumptins, I think I'll feed them te the pigs."
CRUNK	To croak, of Ravens. Cp. Runky. ?? Anybody?
CRUSELING	Being fretful (grizzling)
CRUSHIN'	Ailing, Failing in health,. "Poor ol' Sam is crushin' now ina bouy?" "Es, you can see it in en caan't ee yo?"
CRYING THE NECK	Harvest field ceremony. When the last sheaf is cut the harvest is complete, thanks be to God.
CRYKY	An exclamation like Oh! My gosh.
CUBY LICK	House-leek (Sempervivum). A parish jest? CRUCKLE DOCK,
CUCHY	To cuddle
CUCKABOO	Bucca or Scarecrow
CUCKHOLD BUTTONS	Burdock. See COCKLE
CUCKLEDOCK	Burdock (Cuckfold)
CUCKOLD	Red Gurnard.
CUCKOO	Jack Ralph; Wrasse
CUD	A quid of tobacco. (Quid is a piece of chewing tobacco)
CUDDEN	Could not. "I cudden but over 'ear what he said."
CUDDEN	Cousin
CUDDLE/CODDLE	A cuttlefish
CUDDLING	Doing light work (Almost wasting time.) "He' spent all mornin' there cuddling away time an' nuthin te shaw fer it." (See cawdle)
CUDDY	To hide. Also, a cluster, cache. A group, a collection
CUDGE	Nestle
CODOL	Trout

CUDCELLDIC	Г.
CUDGELLING	Fencing
CUDGY WAX	Cobblers wax
CUDRIDDEN	A disturbance
CUE	Protective iron on heel of boots & shoes; an ox shoe. Also to put on such Go down te
	Mr Rawe an' axe en te put up heavier cues this time. These didn' last two jumps te the back door!"
CUFF	A piece of leather or old gum-boot worn over the back of right hand and fore arm when paring thorns and brambles. "These brembles are pretty spikey, I think I'll put up me cuff."
CUFF	To hit someone. "I'll cuff go to ee if you aren't careful."
CUFF AWVER	Verb: to come to terms, to settle a deal perhaps
CUFFAN / CUFFERN	Hen crab.
CUFFED	Bruised (scuffed) "they taties are all cuffed in they picking machines."
CUKOO	A small plant with purple flowers like a iniature foxglove in flower april, may
CULFER / CULPHER	Damage done to crab pots.
CULFER/CULFERED/	Beat; beating
CULFERING	Boun, searing
CULFERAS	An ungainly disagreeable person
CULFERED	over cultivated ground.
CULIACK /PILLIACK	A Good for nothing person. Helston (1933) Cor. culyak? from cul, lean, or col, chaff.
CULIAK	A good-for-nothing person. "He's a lazy lout in fact I'd go as dfar as to say, he's a culiak."
CULKIN/QUILKIN	Frog
CULLER	Man whow deals in state rubbish
CULLOPING	A good thrashing or beating
CULVER	Pigeon or dove
CULVER HOUND	The nurse hound. ??
CULVERHOUSE	A dovecote
CUMMIS-ZON	Come along also let's go "Cummis-zon, we're keepen these good people out o' bed!"
CUMMIS-ZON (NOW)	Come on (now). An invitation. "Cummis-on and don't be se stubburn." Also 'let's go.
CUNDARD /CUNYARD	A conduit. Waterhole. Usually square sedctioned with flat heavy slates on top.
CUNDY	To shift a baulk of timber from side to side to bring it parallel with another. Also,
OT DITTE / OT DITT	winding in and out.
CUNEY / CUNY	Moss. Lichen. Mildew, . Also, slippery. "mind the cuney on the footpath or you'll go kiting."
CUPPERT(S)	Cupboard
CUPBOARD BED	A built-in bed, lit-clos.
CUPEL	Small vessel used in assaying.
CUPLAW / COPLAW	see [C.S.W 79.].
CUPPERTS	Cupboards
CUR'L(S) /CUR'LLS/ CARLLS	Carols. Glands of the neck. "Less join the others an'd go sing a few curls to the old folk.
COR E(S) / COR EES/ CIRCLES	Karol, (Cornish) a choir or a song.
CURL(E)Y	Curlew
CURL'NT	Curled it
CURM	To set, as mortar.
CURRANTY HOBBIN OR HOGGAN	Pastry rolled up with currants
CURRIDGE / KERRIDGE	The pluck of an animal or afterbirth.
CURWILLET / CAWILLY /	The sanderling, also the ringed plover. Both are small wading birds.
TOWILLEE
CURZING	Talking idly, gossiping
CUSH	Oyster spit
CUSH NOW	Relax. Said to comfort a person who is upset.
CUSKY / KISKY	Corky, brittle wood. "gone all kisky" Wood with dry rot is like this.
CUSSAL / CUZZLE	Deceitful. "He is as cuzzle as a wagon load o' monkeys."
CUSSANT / CUSS'NT	Cannot. "I've tried and tried bit I cussant do it."
CUSSY-MUSSELS	Cowrie shells (Cowrie = shell fish from Bali, Indonisia)
CUST	Can. Quote from 'Cornish Homes & Cusoms' 1933. 'Go's thy way homemy dear and live as long as thee cust.'
CUSTA/CUSTNA	Can you? Will you? "Custa sew a button on fer us please?" "Sorry I custna 'til after denner."
CUSTANCE	Punishment, in game of marbles, when one is moved while in play.
CUSTICE	A blow across the hand with a rod or cane
CUSTIS	A wooden hand-slapper, as used in dame schools
CUSTOM	Raw smuggled spirits
	Tan sinaggiou spinis
CUT-EEN	Verb: to plough first furrow for "Gathering"

CUTIT	Pert. Impudent. Sharp in reply
CUT UP	To talk posh or grand
CUTROUND	Bap or Split (bread) "I'll 'ave a dozen cutrounds please Mr Baker."
CUYN	Coin, as in money
CUZZAL / CUSSLE	Soft, slow, quiet. Softly and fairly. Also, to deceive.
CUZZLE	Soft & fair
CYCLEPT	Species of fish caught in the Fal.
CYPRESS	Tamarisk.

802 WORDS 21:06:19